The agreement is signed by but also from the many smaller institutions. Ames, Drake and Iowa as leaders of the state's athletic sentiment are planning through their foot ball coaches to compile tabulations of actual accidents.

Foot ball enthulsasts here advance the ning through their foot ball coaches to compile tabulations of actual accidents. Foot ball enthuisasts here advance the argument that so many of the injuries reported in the newspapers are not accurate. They point to the fact that many "doped" articels are sent out from foot ball camps each fall with fake lajuries calculated to fool opposing elevens. These "broken bones" and "sprains" devised by the wily coaches are responsible for the long lists according to local believers in the gridfron game. They also claim that with statistics collected by coaches the other side of the story will be able presented for the public's inspection.

Correspondence has been commenced by the coaches in the work of securing the facts and figures necessary to substantiate the belief of those who still have faith in and adhere to the present form of foot ball.
