

BASKET BALL FIVE ON TOUR

Nebraska Players Are in Poor Shape for Iowa Games.

AMES WILL PROBABLY WIN OUT

Return Contests with Drake Will Be Critical for Cornhuskers

LINCOLN, Feb. 8.—(Special.)—Crippled so badly that defeat at the hands of Ames seems almost certain, the Cornhusker basketball crew departed from Lincoln this afternoon for Des Moines and Ames to play the final four games in the northern division of the Missouri Valley Championship league.

In the two Ames games on the Nebraska floor last month Wood featured in dribbling play, and really won the contests for the Cornhuskers. His absence from the lineup makes it seem certain that the Cornhuskers will not triumph over Ames.

Even with a crippled lineup, the Nebraska five hopes to win from Drake. The Des Moines players visited Lincoln a week ago and were found to be easy prey. The Cornhuskers will be at considerable disadvantage in playing on a foreign floor, but even with this handicap they are counted upon to win.

An entirely different reception is looked for at Ames, however, and the Cornhuskers are hoped to lose two games there. Ames has a strong quintet, and nearly defeated the Nebraska five in Lincoln a few weeks ago. Playing in their home floor, they will probably have an easy time with the Cornhuskers.

In order to clinch the premier honors in the northern section of the league, the Cornhuskers must win both games from Drake and split the series of two with Ames. The Aggies are so strong that they will undoubtedly win four straight from Drake. Should they get two from Nebraska, and split the series with Ames, the Cornhuskers lose one to Drake, the chances would be that Ames would get the northern honors.

Nebraska now has four games to its credit; Ames, by defeating Drake in the series between those schools, will have four in its favor; and two more from Nebraska would give it six of the eight games in the series. In order to equal this record, Nebraska would have to take both games from Drake, which event would give it six won and two lost, and place it tied with Ames. A single defeat at the hands of Drake may cost the Cornhuskers the championship, and they are set, for that reason, on defeating the Des Moines players in both of the games this week. Two games over Drake and one over Ames will clinch the championship for Nebraska.

MATRIMONIAL MARKET NEWS OF THE DAY

The demand for fat ladies, young or old, is still very light. The wily, single, with the animated eye and straight front aspect is, however, much inquired after.

The ceaseless stream of Gibson and Fisher girl pictures, advertised by every magazine cover, continues to perpetuate this situation.

There is only one chance for the fatish woman, and that is for her to reduce. If she can quickly grow into the likeness of the front cover, she will find the hard labor of exercising, or the purgatory of dieting, it seems she ought to try. This is not impossible—may it be a fact, demonstrated by thousands in 1909. Let her take the elegant Marmola Prescription Table, after meals and at bed time. It will reduce her a pound a day.

This suggestion is made in all seriousness. It is not a mere fad, but a fact, demonstrated by thousands in 1909. Let her take the elegant Marmola Prescription Table, after meals and at bed time. It will reduce her a pound a day.

Big Bill Hokuf Star in Wrestling Thursday Night

He Will Try to Throw Three Men in Hour at Westergaard-De Rouen Preliminaries.

Big Bill Hokuf, like a certain distinguished Roman, is ambitious. Bill is the boy who went against Gorch the last time he was in town and while he didn't win the world's championship away from the Iowa farmer, did indicate that he had some wrestling skill.

With this same Bill will do things over at the Auditorium Thursday night when Jess Westergaard and Raoul de Rouen meet for the first time in a finish, catch-as-catch-can wrestling. In the preliminaries Herr Hokuf will undertake to pin to the mat in one hour three of his honorable contemporaries, namely, Jack Meyers, Jack Grande and C. Luther Grove. The last named gentleman, despite his florid complexion, is not a student of literature, nor yet of the ethics of parlor conduct, no matter if he does part his name in the middle. C. Luther is a wrestler and they say a hot one at that. At any rate, while it is commendable in any man to set his mark high, Bill Hokuf has cut out a mighty big night's work for himself, one which if he accomplishes, will distinguish him as some grappler.

Manager Gillan of the Auditorium believes—and perhaps not without justification—that these preliminaries will be the most interesting of the season. Jack Meyers, the fellow who undertook to throw young Schwager of Calhoun a couple of weeks ago twice in an hour and Grande is said to be as good as Meyers. Hokuf is much larger than any of these men and of powerful build. Gorch predicts great things for him some day.

GOOD PROSPECTS OF LEAGUE

Chance that Six-Club State League May Be Formed.

GRAND ISLAND, Neb., Feb. 8.—(Special.)—The far-reaching invitation extended to the various Nebraska cities indicates that at least a six-club league can be formed, including at least three of the larger cities of the state not represented in the Western league. Delegates will be present from Fremont, Hastings, Grand Island, Superior, Red Cloud and Seward.

Granting that the matter of forfeit such as would occur through non-attendance of a season can satisfactorily be made as to all of these, there would be four teams in the central and two in the eastern part of the state. Mr. Palmer of Fremont, however, will endeavor to secure the attendance of delegates from Columbus or South Omaha, in order that there will be three towns with Sunday ball. Fairbury is also a possibility, though nothing has so far been heard from that town.

One more western town—Kearney, the only one showing a backward disposition—is also likely still to respond, there being a forward movement as to base ball in that city in the last few days. If South Omaha enters it will be with the understanding that dates are not to conflict with the Western league dates at Omaha and that it will be in a spirit of co-operation with the Western league rather than otherwise. Hastings has already proceeded to local organization, as has Grand Island.

SPAULDING'S ALMANAC IS OUT

Considerable Attention Given Therein to Western Sport.

Spaulding's official Athletic Almanac is off the press and is in demand in Omaha because of the interest in all track and field events, stimulated by the approaching indoor meet at the Auditorium.

RICKARD AND GLEASON TALK

Location for Big Mill Not Selected—Utah Prosecutor Will Act.

SALT LAKE CITY, Feb. 8.—After an informal talk today between "Tex" Rickard and Jack Gleason, partners in the contract for staging the Jeffries-Johnson fight, the statement was given out that no agreement had been reached as to the place in which the contest would be held.

CHIEF HASKELL IN TRAINING

Head of Western League Umpire Staff Hikes Over Long Route.

Jack Haskell, chief of the umpire staff of the Western league, is making daily hikes to reduce his weight in preparation for the coming season. Haskell's walk is about sixty days away. Haskell's walk is now from the center of town to Fort and back to the center of town, which is about twenty-four to twenty-eight, north on Twenty-fourth to Lake, east to Sherman avenue and back to Cummings street.

GIBSON TO KEEP THE GROUNDS

Omaha Country Club Will Retain Services of Expert.

Groundkeeper Gibson has again been engaged by the Omaha Country club to look after the greens and golf courses at the club. He has prepared some temporary greens on which quite a number of members were playing Sunday, brought out by the weather.

BOURKE PROJECTS AN INQUIRY

Wants to Know Where Schedule Meeting is to Be Held.

Pa. Bourke has written to President O'Neill to try to find out in advance the location of the schedule meeting of the Western league to be held. He advised the letter to Chicago. Pa. says he would just as soon have the meeting in Chicago as Des Moines, as he might meet some of the managers with whom he might negotiate some trade or deal for securing some more players.

'FOUNDERS' DAY' BANQUET

Edward and John A. Creighton Honored by Public Men.

GOVERNOR AND STAFF ATTEND

Patrick H. O'Donnell, Leading Chicago Lawyer, Makes Address—Alms of College are Set Forth.

Charity in the broadest, the most practical and the most universal sense was the underlying motive of Edward and John A. Creighton in founding Creighton university. The banquet in the Rome hotel last night emphasized the thought and amplified the theme as they told of the achievements of the institution and made prophecies of its future.

Over 300 persons assembled to celebrate the occasion, professors of the institution, those who had begun or are beginning their careers in the world and who came to pay respect to their alma mater, business men who realize the value of the foundation, and the governor of the state, who by his presence lent official prestige to the proceedings and acknowledged that the educational work of the university is not confined to the city of Omaha, but is state-wide and is having its influence in forming the character of the west.

Toastmaster James P. English, in introducing the speakers of the evening, Governor Schallenberger and Patrick H. O'Donnell of Chicago, said the Creighton brothers believed in the Christian doctrine of the brotherhood of man, and it was in that belief they had founded the institutions that had cast fuster upon their names.

Deserving Welcome

"In this city," said he, "the monuments to their memory are substantial and enduring and the doors of those institutions are open to the deserving without regard to race or creed."

"Every year," said Mr. English, "a small army of young men leaves the walls of the university to spread its learning throughout the west and to help in upbuilding the race."

The toastmaster paid a high compliment to the professional staff of the university and said the character of the assembly had met to do honor to the founders of the Creighton institutions.

Not a Caste of Money

Governor A. C. Schallenberger, speaking of the cost of education to the state, contrasted what the Creighton brothers had done in this respect for their country.

"They did not," he said, "believe in founding the caste of money, but in doing something that would be for the benefit of the country as a whole and would keep their names ever before the minds of their countrymen as promoters of what was for the good of the common country."

"The great problem of the future will be the equal adjustment of conditions between capital and labor. That question will be settled in the west, and to have it properly settled we must have an educated community. When we think of this, we must realize the value of what the Creighton brothers have done in founding the university."

"In the great march of American progress these great institutions founded by Edward and John A. Creighton shall be potent factors."

Lawyer's View

Patrick H. O'Donnell, speaking to the toast of "Good Government," said the problems of the city of the country were being fought out in the city of Chicago which had as its population representatives of all the races that go to make up the modern American people.

Mr. O'Donnell said that everywhere was there evidence of the value of education in guiding the acts of the country's citizens and he believed it would eventually bring about a right solution of vexed questions.

The speaker being prominent member of the Illinois bar, and one of the professors of the Lincoln-law school, spoke of governmental advance from a judicial viewpoint. His connection with an institution of this character also gave him a special appreciation of the aims of Creighton university which speak eloquently of its possibilities in the growing west.

Grace before the banquet was said by the president of the university, the Very Rev. Eugene A. Magevney, S. J. During the evening music was given by an orchestra conducted by Prof. Heffner.

The banquet was one of the most enjoyable given in the city during the season and the prevalent good feeling and camaraderie which was commented upon by all the speakers was evidence of one very important element underlying the success of the Creighton university which makes it as an alma mater so dear to the students who have passed through its halls.

They were in attendance. The menu cards and toast lists were souvenirs of the day containing portraits and reproductions of autographs of Edward and John A. Creighton.

Ak-Sar-Ben Dates

Sept. 28-Oct. 8

Period of Festivity for This Year is Fixed by the Board of Governors.

Ak-Sar-Ben festivities will be held from September 28 to October 8 by a decision reached last night by the Board of Governors. The announcement that the War department would permit the troops to be sent here for the big military parade October 1 came yesterday.

The fixing of the date for the carnival has been delayed, pending the receipt of information in regard to the availability of the troops.

The Board of Governors took formal action of commendation and forwarded letters of congratulation to Senator Burkett and Senator Brown on the successful result of their efforts to bring the troops here during the carnival.

A change in the dates of the Des Moines military tournament and Fort Riley maneuver encampment has been so made that the returning troops can be in Omaha on that date. It is expected that the number of regular army troops to be here at that time will greatly exceed the number gathered last year.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 7.—(Special Telegram.)—It is expected that the order providing for a military tournament at Omaha during Ak-Sar-Ben week will be made tomorrow, the president having given his sanction for the tournament.

The president named the chairman of the following committees, for the Knights of Ak-Sar-Ben of 1910: Finance, A. C. Smith; Parade, C. D. Beaton; Ball, E. Buckingham; Ritual, C. F. Black; Amusement, Emil Brundage; House, Joseph Barker; Printing, H. J. Fenwick; Light, C. H. Pickett; Music, Fred Dueser; W. L. Yetter; purchasing, C. R. Courtney; membership, J. C. Root.

Own your own home

Omaha real estate men recommend buying a home on the easy payment plan.

M. T. Martin of Payne Investment company says: "Does buying a home on monthly installments appeal to the average wage earner or salaried man? I venture that fully 75 per cent of the houses we sell are bought in this manner. And mind you, we not only sell them, but they are paid for, not one purchaser in fifty falling in his effort to own his own home."

Ellis Will Direct Ohio Campaign

Assistant Attorney General Resigns to Take Charge of Fight in Buckeye State.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 8.—After several conferences at the White House today Wade H. Ellis of Ohio resigned his position as assistant to the attorney general in the Department of Justice to accept the chairmanship of the Republican executive committee in Ohio and to assume charge of the Ohio campaign this fall.

Regarding the resignation of Mr. Ellis the following statement was given out at the White House today.

"Mr. Vorys, the member of the National committee from Ohio; Mr. Walter Brown, chairman of the Republican State Central committee and Mr. Henry A. Williams, chairman of the Republican State Executive committee have been canvassing among the republicans of Ohio to determine who should succeed Mr. Williams.

"After a visit to Washington and full conference with the republican conductors in the state, Mr. Gordon will specially superintend the work in Omaha and South Omaha.

"The question of manufactured products, process of manufacture, wages, number of employees and cost of manufacture will be gone into.

"It is the intention of the census bureau to go very carefully into this branch of the census work," said Mr. Gordon, "and we are not limited as to time, though we shall push the work as rapidly as it can be done and done well. These statistics will not be made public until the entire census work is finished, as a matter of justice to the manufacturers, and even then the results of the census of this work will be given only in bulk."

GUARD YOUR KIDNEYS

Backache, Rheumatic Pains, Bad Urination and Other Symptoms Must Not Be Neglected.

The startling increase of deaths resulting from kidney trouble makes this advice timely. At first symptoms, such as backache, frequent or highly-colored urination, scalding urine, rheumatic pains in the joints, puffiness under the eyes, dimmed vision, etc., use the following prescription. Buy from any good druggist one-half ounce Murax compound in original sealed package and mix with one-half ounce fluid extract Buchu and one-half ounce fluid extract Uva Ursi. This mixture is said to work wonders. Local druggists say the demand for these ingredients is increasing every day.

It acts directly on the kidneys by cleaning these organs like organs which restores them to their natural function of filtering uric acid and impurities from the blood. In this way the cause of chronic rheumatism, diabetes and Bright's disease is removed.

DEVEREESE HOPS BACK ON POLICE FORCE FOR PENSION

Quickly Resigns New Office of Deputy United States Marshal When He Thinks of Future.

W. T. Devereese has tendered his resignation as Deputy United States Marshal and has gone back to duty as a member of the Omaha police force.

The reasons for Mr. Devereese's resignation were that should he have permanently resigned from the Omaha police force, which he left temporarily to accept the office of deputy marshal, he would have been barred from a pension as an officer of the Omaha police force through his having been seriously wounded in the discharge of his duties several months ago while undertaking the arrest of the desperado who shot and killed Officer Smith.

Mr. Devereese preferred returning to the police force for this reason and hence his resignation.
