With the winning of the first basket ball game of the trip at Drake last night the Cornhusker basket ball five placed itself another notch nearer the Missouri Valley championship. The score was so close, however, that it is practically certain the Cornhuskers are not playing fast enough ball to win from Ames Friday and Saturday. When Drake was here two weeks ago the Nebraska five doubled the score on them. Last night the difference in points was only stwo field goals. This fact shows that the Cornhuskers have weakened.

The Tigers have not lost a game as yet, and last Friday defeated a quintet from Malvern which is one of the best basket ball teams in Iowa. The Coner team has a splendid record so far this season.

Changes for Grinnell Game. IOWA CITY, Ia., Feb. 10.—(Special.)— Iowa's basket ball team will be completely changed in the game against Grinnell next changed in the game against Grinnell next Friday evening, the second clash of the two fives in the state championship struggle. Murphy will probably be shifted to center to guard the dangerous Ziegler. Ryden and Sallandar will play the forwards, and Captain Stewart and Thomas will be the guards. For the last two evenings the basket ball practice has been "peppless" because of the loss of Hyland and West and the small prospects of defeating Grinnell next Friday on the Grinnell floor. Only a small squad has reported for the evening workouts. Yesterday afternoon it was reported that a close investigation of West's scholastic record may result in his being declared aligible. He carried extra hours of work last year, which may result in his fulfilling the letter of the rules.

SWITCHMEN VOTE TO STRIKE Employes of Eighteen Chicago Roads Submit Ultimatum Today.

CHICAGO, Feb. 10 .- By a reported vote of 3,007 to 91 switchmen members of the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen of eighteen Chicago railroads decided in favor of a strike. The vote was announced yesterday by F. A. Whitney, vice president of the switchmen's union.

At a recent conference between representatives of the union and general managers of the roads an increase in wages was refused. The railroads made certain concessions in the working rules and offered to submit the wage question to arbitration under the Erdman law. The switchmen say that they do not wish arbitration, but it is believed by the railroads the question will be settled by that method and that there will be no strike.

The question whether the men will strike or not probably will be settled tomorrow at 11 a. m., when representatives of the brotherhood are to give an ultimatum to the railroad managers. The railroad offi-
