

BOYS ADDRESS CONFERENCE

They Put Growups in Background at Tri-City Meeting.

WARREN HOWARD PRESIDENT

Officers Chosen for First Year of Newly Formed Organization—

Members of High School Faculty Speak.

A discussion of boys and boy work and their... Warren Howard, representing Immanuel Baptist church, and Stanton Salisbury of North Presbyterian church discussed the Sunday schools' opportunity in working with boys.

The officers of the conference, chosen at the first annual election, are: President, Warren Howard; vice president, Albert Wadsworth; secretary, Charles Hudson.

Dr. W. M. Davidson, superintendent of the public schools, acted as toastmaster at the Friday night session and called upon several of the boys for responses in addition to the regular speakers of the evening.

The address of welcome was delivered by Glenn Stine, vice president of the Nebraska State Boys' conference, and a member of the boys' delegation to the Young Men's Christian association.

Harry East, chairman of the committee on what might be done toward stimulating interest among the boys in this work, Leonard Paulsen, state secretary of the Young Men's Christian association of Iowa, told of the boys' obligation to his fellows and also of the work which was being done in Iowa.

W. A. Haberstro, field secretary of the Brotherhood of St. Andrew, midwest district, told of the influence of the work exerted by the conference in the work being done in Omaha, Council Bluffs and South Omaha.

One of the features of the conference will be the organization of a college club by the young men and boys who contemplate going to college. At later dates it is planned that representatives of colleges talk to the boys on their alma maters. These meetings are intended to give the boys' better ideas of the higher institutions of learning and to inform them regarding the various colleges and universities.

Verdict for Mrs. Ingersoll

Widow of Orator is Given Judgment for $170,000 Against Davis Estate.

BOSTON, Feb. 12.—Legal services of the value of $170,000, rendered by the late Robert G. Ingersoll were recognized today in a decree by Judge Hammond of the Massachusetts supreme court.

Mrs. Ingersoll, widow of the former lawyer and orator, is benefited by the decision affirming the decree of the probate court directing a distribution of the Massachusetts portion of the estate of Andrew J. Davis, a former copper mine owner of Butte, Mont., by whom Colonel Ingersoll was retained as an attorney. The estate in Massachusetts is valued at $200,000. The case, which has been in litigation for many years, will now go to the United States circuit court.

BOOST FOR GAYNOR BOOM

New York Democratic Committee Preparing to Endorse Missouri

NEW YORK, Feb. 12.—At a special meeting of the democratic state committee shortly to be held here it is understood that James J. Hagan, Tammany leader of the Fifteenth assembly district, will present the following resolution:

Resolved, That we felicitate the militant democracy of the great state of Missouri upon their early recognition of the statesmanlike qualities of William Gaynor, and that we assure the Missouri democracy that at the proper time the democracy of the Empire state will join them in an effort to make New York's mayor the next president of the United States.

It is understood, however, that Mayor Gaynor will not accept the invitation of the Jeffersonian club of Springfield, Mo., to attend their annual dinner.

Herds of Deer Ravaging Fields of Iowa Farmers

That some action will have to be taken by the state to protect the farmers of the eastern part of Iowa, and adjoining territory, from the ravages of the herds of wild deer now roaming the country is the opinion of Deputy United States Marshal W. A. Groneweg, who in his official capacity as deputy state game warden has been investigating the situation. Mr. Groneweg reported to Council Bluffs last evening after spending three days in the eastern part of the county and across the line in Shelby county looking into this matter at the request of farmers who have suffered considerable loss by reason of these herds of deer. He will make a report of the situation to State Game Warden Lincoln of Iowa on the latter's return from the south, where he now is. A number of years ago William Cuppy, a wealthy farmer living near Avoca, maintained a large deer preserve on his farm. Many of the animals escaped from time to time and took refuge in the timber. As the years went by the number increased until now it is estimated about 300 head of deer run wild in that section of the state. The damage these roaming herds do is immense. Once a herd of fifty deer get into a cornfield there is little or nothing of the corn left when they get through. Fences prove no obstacle,

DUN'S REVIEW OF TRADE

Reports of Business Conditions Are Somewhat Conflicting.

NEW YORK, Feb. 12.—R. G. Dun's Weekly Review of Trade today says: Reports of trade conditions are somewhat conflicting. While much activity still prevails in the finished branches of iron and steel the dullness in pig iron is becoming pronounced.

Many buyers are in the dry goods market, but their operations are generally conservative. The jobbers are doing almost an average season's business, but they are short of expectations of great activity. Jobbers are seeking a full business and have many contracts which have been in view. The shoe market is a waiting one. Since the departure of buyers from the Boston market, new contracts have been made, although manufacturers look for all varieties of "domestic" hides in very dull.

BRADSTREET'S REVIEW OF TRADE

Quiet Undertone Previously Noted is Maintained.

NEW YORK, Feb. 12.—Bradstreet's today says: Trade maintains the quiet undertone previously noted and not unusual, by the way, at this season of the year, when buyers are gathering at leading markets in preparation for the opening of the spring campaign. In the northwest, south, west, the south and on the Pacific coast reports are still highly optimistic and liberal.

In the lumber trade for export, southern reports are unsatisfactory conditions, but from the Pacific coast, lumber trade reports of business being the best since 1907. Good reports as to the shoe trade and that in rubber goods come from the west generally. Fears of a coal strike and attempts to raise prices have led to heavy buying by railroads and manufacturers.

Business failures in the United States for the week ending Feb. 12 were 249, against 232 last week, 311 in the like week in 1909, 224 in 1908, 208 in 1907. Business failures in Canada for the week numbered thirty-nine, which compares with thirty last week and twenty-nine for the same week last year.

Wheat, including flour, exports from the United States and Canada for the week ending February 10 aggregated 2,602,000 bushels, against 2,488,000 bushels last week and 2,079,754 bushels the week before. For the thirty-two weeks ending February 12, 1910, wheat exports aggregated 130,918,125 bushels in the same period last year.

Corn exports for the week are 1,135,000 bushels, against 1,340,500 bushels last week and 1,261,300 bushels in 1909. For thirty-two weeks ending February 12, 1910, corn exports are 6,408,751 bushels, against 18,008,119 bushels last year.

HOOF AND MOUTH DISEASE

Cattle Plague Discovered in Yards of Municipal Slaughter House in Berlin.

BERLIN, Feb. 12.—The hoof and mouth disease has been discovered among the cattle in the stock yards attached to the municipal slaughter house in Berlin.

The disease has been discovered among the cattle in the stock yards attached to the municipal slaughter house in Berlin. All cattle arriving today were subjected to a rigid examination.

Redmond Causes Flinger

The speech of John F. Redmond at the banquet of the United Irish league in Dublin last night has caused considerable fluttering in the liberal press and party.

He is generally approved by the moderate section of the press for what is declared to be an attitude calculated seriously to embarrass the government, but is warmly praised by the radicals, who have been urging the ministers to adopt a stern and vigorous policy towards the House of Lords. Mr. Redmond has received a joint telegram signed by three radical journals, the Nation, the Daily News and the Morning Leader. The message says: "Congratulations to you on your magnificent stand. The whole fighting force of liberalism is behind you."

It is almost universally agreed that Mr. Redmond has been driven to take the present step by pressure from the new O'Rourke party, whose bond of union is a hearty dislike of the budget. The liberal editors remind Mr. Redmond that though he undoubtedly can overthrow the government is not likely to gain much by such a course.

Unionists Profess Hope

Some of the unionist newspapers, notably the Glasgow Herald, see the possibility of a bargain with the government to get rid of obnoxious parts of the budget.

They argue that the unionist right to support the government, should the Irish members vote against the budget, on the condition that its objectionable features be eliminated from the following year's budget.

SMOOT DEFENDS TARIFF LAW

Senator Says it is Not Cause of High Prices for Food.

ALL VALUES ARE ADVANCED

Greatest Rise is in Items on Free List or on Articles on Which Duties Have Been Reduced.

NEW YORK, Feb. 12.—Senator Reed Smoot of Utah, republican, has heard from democratic sources that possibly the Payne tariff bill recently enacted might have something to do with the advanced cost of living. He disputed it indignantly last night at the banquet of the silk association with a defense of protection in general.

The tariff bill passed at the last session of congress, said Senator Smoot, "is the best tariff measure ever enacted into law. In America we live in better houses, we sleep in better beds, we eat more and better foods, we wear warmer and better cloths, our children attend better schools, we enjoy more of the comforts of life than any other people in any other country on the globe."

"I take it we are all alike interested in the general prosperity of the nation. We are all alike desirous of so safeguarding our industries as to insure our prosperity. We have such a safeguard and we call it protection."

"I deny that the tariff act of 1909 is the cause of the advance in the cost of living. The greatest advances have been upon articles on the free list, or upon which the duties were decreased, or upon which no advance was made over the Dingley rate. It is also notable that the extreme advances are upon the products of the farms; yet the advance received by the farmer is insignificant in comparison with the increase paid by the consumer."

Investigation, said Senator Smoot, has shown that there is an increase of from 300 to 500 per cent in the price paid by the ultimate consumer over the cost of manufacture of many imported and domestic articles. "Something is wrong," he said, "in a system of distribution which will allow such results."

"Prices are advancing all over the world, in free trade countries as well as in protecting countries. The supply has not kept up to the demand."

Representative Phillip Pitt Campbell of Kansas supported Senator Smoot in his defense of the tariff, and added: "It is said that prices of farm and food products are high. They are high. That is one of two things that makes our cost of living high in the world. The other factor is the high standard of wages for American workmen."

SALES OF STAMPS INCREASE

Fifty Largest Postoffices Show Big Gains in Receipts.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 12.—An unusually heavy increase is reported at fifty of the largest postoffices of the country during the month of January. Forty-nine of the fifty offices reported an increase in receipts as compared with the corresponding month of last year. The increases varied from 1.75 per cent at Dayton, O., to 27.81 per cent at Hartford, Conn.

The five postoffices showing the greatest percentage of increase in receipts over January of last year were Hartford, Conn., Springfield, Mass., Portland, Ore., Denver, Colo., and Chicago, Ill.

The general increase over the same period of last year is 11.27 per cent. This is taken as evidence of a decided improvement in business conditions throughout the country.

POLICY OF BRITISH CABINET

King's Speech Outlined at Adjourned Meeting of Ministers.

LONDON, Feb. 12.—The terms of the king's speech with which the new Parliament will be opened are finally agreed upon at today's adjourned meeting of the cabinet. Subsequently the ministers dispersed, several going to the country for the week-end, so there will be no further conferences before Monday.

According to an authorized statement given out tonight the cabinet council arrived at an absolutely unanimous conclusion on the course of procedure early in the week. This statement was the outcome of numerous rumors of serious cleavage among the ministers regarding the policy to be followed.

It is confirmed that after the passage of the budget a bill annulling the veto of the lords will be announced as the chief legislative work of the year.

It is understood that Premier Asquith has completed his cabinet appointments and only awaits the king's approval to publish them. Mr. Asquith will have an audience with his majesty Monday after the king's return from Brighton.

Verdict Against Laura Biggar

Mrs. Charles C. Hendrick of Brooklyn is Given Judgment for $75,000 in Alienation Suit.

NEW YORK, Feb. 12.—A verdict of $75,000, said to be the largest ever rendered in an alienation suit, was awarded today to Mrs. Charles C. Hendrick of Brooklyn against Laura Biggar, the former actress accused of alienating the affections of Mrs. Hendrick's divorced husband, Dr. Charles C. Hendrick. Mrs. Hendrick sued for $100,000.

Neither the defendant, who is said to be in California, nor Dr. Hendrick appeared at the trial, but were represented by counsel. Both were indicted several years ago for conspiracy in a sensational contest to win control of the $1,000,000 estate of Henry M. Bennett, a Pittsburgh theatrical manager. Mrs. Biggar, the former actress, was convicted, but she later secured a new trial and was freed.

Mrs. Hendrick then secured a divorce, naming Laura Biggar.

Gaynor Plans Double Duty

Rumor that New York Mayor Will Assume Duties of Police Commissioner.

NEW YORK, Feb. 12.—Mayor Gaynor may abolish the office of police commissioner in New York and assume the duties himself, it was rumored today. The rumor was given color by the fact that Commissioner Baker had left on a ten days' vacation and by the mayor's refusal to discuss Baker's rumored removal or resignation. Mr. Gaynor ending an interview with the words:

"How would I do for commissioner myself? If Baker returns, it is said, he will be only a figurehead."

Sale of Table Beaks.

HARLAN, Ia., Feb. 12.—(Special.)—W. W. Wheeler, the famous Hereford breeder of this city, held a dispersion sale of table-beaks yesterday. Many buyers were present from nearby states. Forty-seven lots were sold for $6,000, an average of $126.58 per head. Thirty females sold at an average of $103.33 and sixteen bulls went for an average of $146.66 each. Imperial Quince was the highest priced individual of the sale and sold to Henry Strampe, Paulina, Ia., for $230.

The principal buyers of the sale were: Henry Strampe, Paulina, Ia., who purchased seven lots at $1,385; E. W. Kreusch, Mount Vernon, Ia., seven lots for $680; F. H. Young, Valentine, Neb., six lots for $660, and John Buntala, Central City, Ia., three lots at $660.

Edwards Under Arrest.

CRESTON, Ia., Feb. 12.—(Special.)—Sheriff Mason last night brought Thomas Cayteyl, alias Thomas Edwards, who shot J. J. Credan, the operator at Arton, Iowa, his man at the home of a friend in Artope. The operator who was shot was brought here also last night to Coakley hospital, where his wound is considered serious. He told the hospital authorities that his first quarrel with Edwards occurred about three months ago and since then they had not spoken; that Wednesday night when Edwards came into the depot at the junction he began firing before a word had been spoken.

There is a united effort being made to back up such an organization by hearty co-operation and the good is expected as a result of the new organization's activities along these lines.

M. PASQUALE WAS IN OMAHA

Suspected Blackhand Landed Through Officers Here.

DODGED CITY WHEN FOUND OUT

Letter to Banker of Geneva, N. Y., Makes Threat to Burn House Unless Money is Forthcoming.

Mazzeo Pasquale, an Italian now under arrest at Denver on the charge of being a member of the Black Hand organization which flourishes in the east, is said to have been in Omaha about two weeks ago and to have gone from this city to Denver, where he has been arrested by the post-office authorities.

Pasquale is said to have threatened a leading Italian banker of Geneva, N. Y., with death if the banker did not give him money. Pasquale succeeded in getting considerable cash in this manner from his victim. Coming west he sought to organize several gangs to work along the same lines as the Black Hand people work in the east. He continued to call on the Geneva banker for funds, but the police of Geneva traced him to Omaha and notified the local police department to look out for the man. When he was here it is said he had the name of Mariano Stefano Palanca; he was waiting for the letter which he had directed sent in care of a well known Italian of Omaha. A letter was received at the Omaha postoffice for the man, but it was registered and he failed to call for it. Getting word in some way that the detectives were after him, he left the city, probably going to Denver.

The letter he wrote to the Geneva banker was as follows: "Dearest Friend: I wrote you a letter to send me $50 and did not hear from you. I recommend you immediately send me $100. I know that you should do so. You must not say anything about this to anyone. If you do your house will go up in smoke. Put it in the envelope I enclose and send it with a 2-cent stamp. You understand you must send it and no harm will come to you. Say nothing to anyone. If you do you will die immediately."

Detectives Patsullo and Davis of the Omaha police department were detailed to work on the case when the matter was under investigation here. They gave the

Law Enforcement Officials Fined

Members of League in St. Paul Criticize Grand Jury in Petition to Court.

ST. PAUL, Minn., Feb. 12.—Dr. C. W. Young, and Prof. J. A. Vya, officers of the Law Enforcement league, have been fined $50 or given the alternative of serving five days in jail, in the district court, for criticizing a grand jury for failure to return indictments against alleged violators of the Sunday liquor law. The criticism was contained in a petition to the court asking that the cases be re-submitted to the grand jury, alleging that the grand jury failed to return indictments in the cases cited. Dr. Young and Prof. Vya will appeal to the supreme court.

WOMAN GETS BIG VERDICT AGAINST FATHER OF HUSBAND

Unique Alienation Suit Raises Interest of Public at Clear Lake, S. D.

MITCHELL, S. D., Feb. 12.—(Special.)—An interesting case has been on trial at Clear Lake in Deuel county for the last week, which had to do with the alienation of the affections of Joseph Williams from his wife through the instrumentality of the father-in-law, J. W. Williams. She brought suit against her father-in-law last fall at the same time that her husband started divorce proceedings against her, which she alleges was done through the instigation of the old gentleman. She demanded $20,000 damages for the alienation. Before her marriage to the son Mrs. Williams was a professional nurse and was called in a professional capacity to nurse the mother of the man she later married. After marriage the old people gave up their home at Waterloo, Ia., and moved to Clear Lake, and the family of four lived together, although not under pleasant circumstances after the first few years. The break in the family relations occurred when a niece came up from Sioux City to join the family and who was in very poor health. Mrs. Williams left and returned to Waterloo, and in the meantime the niece and the mother-in-law passed away. On the return of the daughter-in-law last August the difference was patched up with the husband, and it was then that the father-in-law commenced to cause the disturbance between husband and wife.

During the week that the trial was on the court house was crowded to the limit by the women of the town and surrounding country, all of whom took a deep interest in the case, many of them taking their dinner to the court house in order to hold their advantageous positions secured in the early morning. This jury late last night brought in a verdict awarding Mrs. Williams $15,000 damages. Mr. Williams is a man 75 years old and is said to be well off, owning much property in Waterloo.

Sugar Magnate Makes Plea of "Immunity Bath"

NEW YORK, Feb. 12.—To show that his claimed "immunity bath" had been a complete process, Charles R. Heike, secretary of the American Sugar Refining company, appeared again Friday before the United States circuit court in the continuation of the trial of his special plea to sugar underweighing conspiracy charges.

The case is an absolute novelty in the federal courts, being only approximately paralleled by the "beef trust" immunity case in Chicago. Heike claims amnesty on the conspiracy charge because he testified before a grand jury regarding matters covered by the indictment against him.

The prosecution disputes this and the trial on the issues of fact presented is taking place before Judge Martin and a jury. Federal Prosecutor Stinson declares that if Heike's contention is not upheld he will move for sentence on the conspiracy charge by bench conviction and plea of guilty as a confession of guilt.

Heike was on the stand as first witness when adjournment was taken yesterday and was recalled when court opened today.
