The Omaha Bikes rolled one of the highest totals of the season in the match against the St. James and definitely settled the fact that they are in the lead in the race to stay. A detailed account of the game will show that it was not luck alone that enabled them to maintain more than a 200 average for each man for the series:

It will be seen that errors were few and far between, but the strikes, however, were bunched, which only will develop into a large score.

League Gossip.

Cotton Top Jensen is helping the Cudahy crowd in their mad race for the top. Colonel Baehr is still so far in the lead in the Postoffice league that he is getting lonesome. Bill Schneider is coming back. Look out for Baehr in what a team these fellows used to make. Splash Francis is still hitting Louie down in the cellar. A very seldom puts anything in the Carman fund. T. B. C. Patterson expects to land his youngsters up next to the Mixers before the season is much further along. Hatenkin has abolished the Belden hook and is now shooting the Kinnerman straightaway, doing nicely for a starter. Bobbie Patterson has returned from St. Paul, where he went in the hope of getting some tips on how to play the game, so he is alleged. G. O. is getting ready for the St. Paul meet. If that crowd of Des Moines shooters don't murder the northern bowlers shoot some it will be funny. Cellarette Carman and Schulz had a great battle with the small balls recently. When it comes to mixed games Schulz surely is entitled to a ribbon. Sprague, the champion croquet artist in the city, is bowling better this season than for many moons and is helping the Metz boys win many a tight game. It looks better for the Cudahy team in the Booster league. If the team had only started a little better early in the season it would have been a walkaway. It will

WITH THE BOWLERS.

The Omaha Bicycle company team took three games from the Schroeder's St. James last night on the Metropolitan alley. Gilbreath, Hill, Hincirka, and Karp were the bowlers for the Omaha team. The Omaha team is going to send the St. James team to the tournament next month. Tonight the Willow Springs and Klauk's Glendale's scores were:

SEATTLE MAN AVOIDS THEM ALL

Contest Between Zbyzsko and Mah-mout Comes Out as Expected, for the Two Foreigners Are Very Evenly Matched.

SEATTLE MAN AVOIDS THEM ALL

The handpick between Mahmout and Zbyzsko came out just as anyone who knew the two men believed it would and more. Even Mahmout never had the remotest idea he could throw the big Pole in an hour, or at least he could not have believed he was strong enough to try to offer him those odds. He went into the deal only because these were the only terms on which Zbyzsko cared to meet Mahmout at this time.

SEATTLE MAN AVOIDS THEM ALL

Of course his notion that any man now in Seattle tonight, he will give Zbyzsko his moonshine, for Gotch is in a class to himself. Both Mahmout and Zbyzsko are good men, perhaps a shade better than anybody else except Gotch and Farmer Burns, but these they must remain. If these two foreign giants ever do come together in a firm, catch-as-catch-can match it will surely be a hummer.

SEATTLE MAN AVOIDS THEM ALL

J. H. Herman, manager for Zbyzsko, has written letters to several leading papers in the west, asking them to do what they can to force Dr. Roller into a finish match with Zbyzsko. Here is a copy of the letter:

I see where Dr. Roller is a worthy opponent in Seattle tonight. So you are in a chance of ever getting that fellow on the mat with Zbyzsko? Think the sporting public ought to force him to wrestle or else declare himself, for I am willing, on behalf of Zbyzsko to sign articles upon any conditions as to the division of the purse. All I want is a finish battle, and if Zbyzsko will also maintain the larger share of his share of the proceeds to any charitable organization that you or your paper may desire.

SEATTLE MAN AVOIDS THEM ALL

Do you want to force Roller into a bout with Zbyzsko, and, as I stated to you a former letter, I am willing to do what you may like to be lived up to by Zbyzsko. All we want is a finish contest. I remain, sincerely yours, J. H. HERMAN.

SEATTLE MAN AVOIDS THEM ALL

Roller "won" it. This Ordeman wrestle to which Herman refers was in favor of Roller, which means nothing. Roller has "won" many such wrestles in his home town, but nobody who knows him and the men he is supposed to have thrown, believes for a minute that the matches were on their merits.

SEATTLE MAN AVOIDS THEM ALL

Roller is a fine appearing fellow, good built and flashy, but he is not a top-notch wrestler, nor has he any amount of nerve. He has ducked and dodged for over a year to avoid a match with Jess Westergaard and refused to finish match every time with anyone who could not see his way clear to a mutual "understanding" before the referee's eyes. He has given a fairly finish contest with Zbyzsko, Mahmout or Westergaard, he will be quickly unmasked. But he probably will never go into such so long as he and his shrewd partner, Jack Curley, can avoid it.

SEATTLE MAN AVOIDS THEM ALL

Should Westergaard be able to down Zbyzsko, a major freight will be much doubt, he will then be matched with Mahmout. Mahmout and Zbyzsko are so evenly matched that they probably will be compelled to go it for a finish wrestle before the country will be willing to accept either as the challenger of Gotch.
