Six Thousand Lovers of Ring Applaud His Stunts.

FIGHT COMING IN GOLDEN STATE

No Definite Announcement of Place Made—Nelson Confident of De- feat.

Featuring Walsgat Next Tuesday.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 21.—Before 5,000 spectators, James J. Jeffries, who is to fight Jack Johnson on the afternoon of July 4, appeared in the ring at an "athletic carnival" conducted by Jack Gleason...

From the applause that the returned champion received as he went through his paces it was evident that the public was satisfied with his condition. He skipped the rope, did shadow fighting and other stunts to show his speed.

No announcement was made today as to where the fight will be held, although Announcer Jordan, in calling attention to the fight from the ring this afternoon, stated that it would be held in California.

Tex Rickard and Gleason will spend another day or two looking over the ground before deciding the place.

Tex Rickard said tonight that he was still receiving telegrams from his backers in Salt Lake City instructing him that the Utah city desires to stage the contest.

Nelson Is Confident.

Battling Nelson is so confident that he will defeat Al Walsgat at Point Richmond on Washington's birthday that he will meet Louis Blot and Jimmy Griffin, two promoters representing different clubs, to hear their best terms for a forty-five-round contest between him and "Cyclone" Johnny Thompson, either on the Saturday preceding or the one following Memorial day.

"Walsgat has been strutting around just as Munroe did after he met Jeffries in Montana," he said. "He has claimed that he made me back up. Well, I'll go after him on Tuesday just as Jeff went after Munroe, and we will see who will back up."

Walsgat is at the weight notch that will permit him to make the required 132 pounds by fight day with little difficulty.

The betting still remains at 10 to 6, with Nelson a strong favorite.

COUNTRY CLUB ENLARGES HOME

It Will Also Turn Over Management to Superintendent.

Directors of the Omaha Country club have decided to enlarge the club house this year in order to accommodate the increased membership and to better care for the wants of the members.

Superintendent Warren has been at the club since February 1, and will have general management of the house and grounds this summer.

The club has decided to try to get away from committee management and has engaged Mr. Warren to have supervision of the club house and kitchen.

CHURCHES MUST ADVERTISE

Rev. E. E. Hosman Insists Christian Must Give Signs of Life.

TOO MANY IGNORE CHURCH DOOR

View Held of Institution as Speechless Monument Has Effect of Keeping Out Good Men—Local Opinion Men in Pulpits.

"Churches must advertise." "It is time for the church of today to wake up and show some signs of life," said Rev. E. E. Hosman, pastor of the Walnut Hill Methodist Episcopal church, Sunday morning.

"Too many people do not even know where the churches are located. Too few try to even inform themselves of the whereabouts of the churches. I venture to say that, aside from the membership and the old residents, eight-tenths of the people of this beautiful addition to Omaha do not know where this church is, or that there is a Methodist Episcopal church at Forty-first and Charles streets.

This is true of churches all over the country and the matter should receive attention from those whose heart is in the church work. "We live in an age of publicity and the spirit of the times demands success are the firms which give the most attention to advertising. Some of you would be surprised beyond measure if you knew of the money some of these firms spend to let people know where they do business.

"The church has worthy competition today more than ever before from good in- dividuals and these use methods of publicity and advertising. The church is not popular with the masses of the people in our day. One reason is that too many come to look upon the church as a two-by-four institution run upon a penny peanut stand basis. It has nothing connected with it which will put men upon their feet. This must be corrected.

"One way is for the church to become a living, energetic movement and not a speechless monument closed six days in the week and smelling musty on Sunday. If the church stands for what we claim, it should be the liveliest movement in the community. Let the church do the things and be worthy of attracting men's attention and ability. Then it will attract the eye and get the attention of the people.

"One of the essentials in church advertising is a holy enthusiasm on the part of the members of the church. Show me a successful business and I will be able to show you that the men back of that business are enthusiasts. They are not ashamed of their business.

"Another essential is regular attendance, for that is good advertising which works both ways. It gives the man who goes a better standing in his community and also makes his church more attractive and have no holding power for strangers. Men like to go to church where the crowd goes.

"A third essential is a robust type of Christianity which grapples with things with a spirit to win."

WOODRUFF TELLS HOW PROFESSOR WAS FOOLED

Major of Regular Army Takes Sharp Issue with Theorists on Army Rationing.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 21.—Major Charles E. Woodruff, U. S. A., has taken sharp issue with some college theorists who think that the regular army soldier is overfed.

Some years ago a squad of soldiers was fed on a greatly reduced diet under the supervision of a college professor to demonstrate his point that people in general could live on much less food than they consumed. Apparently a satisfactory showing was made, but now Major Woodruff has gathered evidence to show that most of the soldiers suffered severely from the experiment, and that as a matter of fact they would have been much more seriously affected had they not secretly and unknown to the professor indulged in extra meals during the test.

Major Woodruff wants even more food for the army, declaring that the United States army is behind European armies in that matter and favors an allowance of 30 cents per month for each soldier to buy extra food.

"TYPHOID MARY" GETS HER RELEASE AT LAST

Walking Receptacle for Germs Given Freedom, but Will Cook No Longer.

NEW YORK, Feb. 21.—"Typhoid Mary," whose real name is withheld at the request of the New York health authorities, is a free woman again today, after being confined in city hospitals, off and on for three years because physicians said she was a living receptacle for typhoid germs and a menace to public health. She is a cook and is considered particularly dangerous in that capacity as likely to transmit disease, but with the understanding that she is to cook no more, Health Commissioner Lederle announced today that the department had decided to release her.

The case is unique. After repeated cases of typhoid were discovered in families for whom the woman had cooked, the authorities made an investigation which resulted in the detention of the theory that she was a walking reservoir of typhoid germs, harmless to herself but easily communicated to others.

FAST OCEAN STEAMSHIPS HAMPERED BY FIERCE GALE

British Isles Swept by High Wind that Brings Trouble to Mariners.

LONDON, Feb. 20.—A fierce gale has swept over the British Isles, doing an immense amount of damage. The harbors are all crowded with shipping seeking shelter. Incoming vessels report extremely rough passages. The Adriatic and the America, which arrived today at Plymouth, experienced a succession of gales all the way across the Atlantic. The two steamers were in communication throughout the passage.

The Mauretania, after a long delay, succeeded in embarking the mails at Queenstown, but was unable to land its pilot, who was taken on to New York.

Reports received here tell of the wreck of a large number of small craft.

MEMORIAL FOR R. W. GILDER

Hundred Thousand Dollar Good Citizenship Fund to Be Created in Poet's Honor.

NEW YORK, Feb. 21.—Nineteen organizations, civic, social, literary and political, which include the late Richard Watson Gilder, poet and magazine writer, was a member yesterday held memorial services in his honor. Governor Hughes was the principal speaker.

Steps are under way for the creation of a fund of $100,000 to be entrusted to Columbia university and to be known as the Richard Watson Gilder fund for the promotion of good citizenship.

Among those on a special committee in charge of the movement are: Lawrence F. Abbott, Robert T. Lincoln of Chicago, William Brewster of San Francisco, Mrs. Grover Cleveland and S. Weir Mitchell.

TILLMAN WILL TALK AGAIN

Southern Senator Shows Most Surprising Recovery of Faculty of Speech.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 21.—Favorable indications showed themselves yesterday in the condition of Senator Tillman. The initial symptoms which caused his partial paralysis and loss of speech have abated and improvement has commenced, according to a bulletin issued this afternoon by the three attending physicians. Today he recognized and called by name one of the physicians, a man whom he had seen but once before.

The doctors consider this return of speech most favorable and they entertain no doubt now as to the patient's full recovery of his speech.

ROBBETT NOT YET SATISFIED

Possibility Yet Remains that Naval Court-Martial Case May Be Reopened.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 21.—There is an uncomfortable suggestion of a reopening of the famous Aud-Robbett court-martial case, which, it was supposed, had been finally settled by the approval of the Navy department of the findings of the court-martial. It appears now that attorneys for Surgeon Robbett have been authorized to present to the department arguments to show that the young officer was illegally punished in the imposition of the court-martial sentence of a loss of numbers after he had received a letter from the department which, in the opinion of his attorneys, amounted to a reprimand, and therefore a punishment.

ETIQUET FOR YOUNG WOMEN

Woman's Pride Should Always Yield to Man's Feeling of Self-Respect.

It is not considered very good taste to insist on paying such trifling sums as omnibus fares when out with friends, especially one's seniors.

Of course it may happen that a girl has for some reason a more dignified and deputed to see her home after an at home or reception. In such a case many a girl wonders if she should allow him to pay her cab or railway fare.

As a rule she may, though if she is one of those considerate, nice girls, who dis- tinguish themselves under an obligation of even a trifling kind to any young man, she may feel that she would prefer to pay for herself.

But one has to remember it is very humiliating to a man to be placed in such a position and a girl should sacrifice her pride to the sense of self-respect. We are to rush at the cabman, fare in hand, the pride of her companion would suffer in wondering what the cabman thought of him; for men are more sensitive than women to the opinion of others, even their inferiors.

HOLME LACY CHANGES OWNERS

Historic Home of Lord Chesterfield Has Been Sold "Without Reserve."

The sale "without reserve" of all the furniture and art belongings of Holme Lacy, the historic home of Lord Chesterfield, proved one of the oddest affairs that collector, dealers and art experts have encountered for a long time.

For 600 years Holme Lacy, with its 5,543 acres, six villages, eighteen farms, deer park, ancient garden, and a rent roll of more than $50,000 a year, has belonged to the earls of Chesterfield. But the present earl is a poor man—he has lived for years on directors' fees in London, being on the boards of eighteen companies, several of doubtful quality—and when Sir Lucas Tooth, an Austrian brewer, offered the earl $200,000 cash down for the place the offer was accepted.

The earl's straitened circumstances were due both to his own bad management and to the extravagance of his wife, the beautiful End Wilton, daughter of the first Lord Nunburnholme.

THE WOMAN AND HER HAIR

Natural Color is Always Consistent and Suggests the Owner's Character.

The color of a woman's hair as given to her by nature—not by peroxide, henna and the like—is more than a matter of beauty and harmony with the complexion.

According to the physiologist, who closely considers every part of the human body in connection with character, the color of the hair is a distinct betrayal of one's disposition and mental and moral capacity.

Thus straight black hair that grows coarse and thick is supposed to belong to the woman who is in her sense of self-respect, but who is at the world on fire with her mental capacity.

Straight hair, moreover, indicates greater power to rule others than usually belongs to the envied curly head.

Auburn hair, though not generally known, is said to denote a kindly, sympathetic nature, but one who is a few tones deeper and the red-headed sister will be hot-tempered, domineering and jealous.

FOR S.S.S. RHEUMATISM

Rheumatism is in reality an internal inflammation; a diseased condition of the blood cells which supply the nourishment and strength necessary to sustain our bodies. The disease is caused by an excess of uric acid in the blood, which comes from indigestion, weak kidneys, constipation, and other irregularities of the system.

This uric acid produces an inflamed and acid condition of the blood, and the circulation, instead of nourishing the different portions of the body, continually deposits into the muscles, nerves, joints and bones, the irritating and pain-producing acid with which it is filled. Then follow the painful and torturing symptoms of Rheumatism.

We do not claim for S. S. S. that it is anything more than a first class blood purifier, and that is just what is needed to cure Rheumatism. S. S. S. goes into the circulation, and by neutralizing the uric acid and driving it from the blood, effectually and surely removes the cause of Rheumatism. S. S. S. is purely vegetable and will not injure the most delicate system. Book on Rheumatism and my medical advice free to all who write.

GRAND JURY WILL TAKE UP MAN WHO ABUSES FAMILY

Will Go After Joe Smith, Against Whom His Wife and Daughter Will Testify.

The case of Joseph Young, or Joseph Smith, as is his real name, will be submitted to the grand jury Wednesday, and his wife and his daughter, Miss Francis, if years ago, were arrested against him.

Smith was arrested Sunday at the instance of his wife, on charge of drunkenness and abuse of her and her daughter. Their tale is revolting. They feared for their personal safety longer and felt impelled to divulge their secret to the police.

The man and his family called themselves Young, but Mrs. Smith told the police their real name was Smith. The fellow was in Omaha a year and a half ago and was sent to St. Louis City on the charge of embezzlement with reference to the theft of a team of horses. He was not convicted and returned with his family to Omaha.

"It was at that time we adopted the name of Young," said Mrs. Smith. "He told me we would have to go by that name from then on, as we did not want people to know us."

After three weeks of terror and fear of the vengeance of her husband, Mrs. Smith yesterday caused the arrest of her husband at their home, 132 Douglas street.

"Three weeks ago he ran me out of the room with a gun and locked me up in the kitchen so that I could not protect my daughter, Frances, from his advances," was Mrs. Smith's statement to the police yesterday afternoon when she appeared at the station.

She declared that her husband, whom she married seven years ago, had not worked since Christmas and that in the period since he had been drinking and abusing the household continually.

Mrs. Smith has three children by a former marriage, a son of 19 and two daughters, 17 and 15 years old. The work of the three children is now supporting the home, according to the mother.

Frances, the girl of 17 years, verified her mother's statements with an even more pitiful recital.

"He used to come home and kick over the table if we didn't have what he wanted to eat," she said, "telling her story at the police station. "He's got a gun hidden out there now."
