

PROMINENT KENTUCKY WOMAN

Says Health Gone, Saved by Pe-ru-na.

In Winter when Coughs, Colds and Catarrh are Rampant Peruna Should be in Every Home.

Mrs. William C. Moore, Mt. Sterling, Ky., writes: "It gives me great pleasure to recommend Peruna to those suffering with catarrh. I had catarrh of nose so badly my hearing had almost left me. I was miserable, both to myself and those around. I had tried many physicians and medicines, but without success. I felt that my health was gone. "But after using two or three bottles of Peruna I began to improve, and after taking ten bottles my hearing was restored, my catarrh cured, and I am now enjoying the best of health. "I feel that this remedy ought to be in every household, for it is a blessing to suffering humanity."

Give It a Trial.

Just buy a bottle. One or two days use will convince you.

Endured Ten Years.

Mrs. Cordia Brown, R. F. D. No. 4, Rogersville, Tenn., writes: "I had catarrh of the head, and had been troubled with it for ten years. I tried various remedies, but they did no good. "At last I bought a bottle of Peruna, and began to feel better as soon as I began taking it. I was very thin and weak, and had a bad taste in my mouth, and a choking and a tickling in my throat, and was about exhausted every day. I soon gained strength and flesh by taking Peruna. "I can safely recommend Peruna to all who are weak and run down as the best tonic I ever tried."

MRS. WILLIAM MOORE.

Mrs. Moore is a housewife of excellent standing in the community where she resides. Every one acquainted with her knows her to be a woman that can be relied upon for veracity. Just consider what she has said. First, she was suffering with catarrh so badly that her hearing was almost destroyed. This was a serious condition and her hearing was almost entirely lost. Then she tried many physicians and medicines, but without success. She felt that her health was gone. But after using two or three bottles of Peruna she began to improve, and after taking ten bottles her hearing was restored, her catarrh cured, and she is now enjoying the best of health. She feels that this remedy ought to be in every household, for it is a blessing to suffering humanity. She can safely recommend Peruna to all who are weak and run down as the best tonic she ever tried.

MORINO IS HELD FOR TRIAL

Author of Blackmail Letter Depressed by His Situation.

PLEADS INNOCENCE OF PURPOSE

Declares He Is Not a Member of the Mafia or Black Hand Crowd, Though the Police Think He Is.

Stefano Morino, alias Messa Pasquella, has been bound over to the federal grand jury by United States Commissioner Anderson in $1,000 on the charge of sending a threatening letter to Romano Del Papa of Geneva, N. Y., demanding $500 from the latter under penalty of the destruction of his home and death.

Pasquella was arrested in Denver recently at the instance of Postoffice Inspector H. E. Randall on information from Geneva, N. Y., and was brought to Omaha and confined in the Douglas county jail, the threatening letters having been written from Omaha.

Pasquella admitted having written the letters, but pleaded as an excuse that he was in need of money and he did not know at the time what he was doing, nor did he realize that he was committing a crime. At the time of his arrest he claimed to have friends in the east who would see him out of the trouble, but thus far these friends have failed to appear.

During the last three days Pasquella has persistently refused to eat anything at the jail, attributing his lack of appetite to mental worry over the fact that he is the sole support of his widowed mother and a sister.

Admits His Residence.

He admitted that he lived in Geneva, N. Y., up to about five months ago, being employed as a laborer on the Lehigh railroad, walking from there to Chicago, and came from Chicago to Omaha. He claims to be but 19 years of age. He has strenuously denied that he is in any way connected with the Mafia or Blackhand gang and that he is alone responsible for the letters written to Del Papa.

The United States authorities are disposed to believe that Pasquella is either directly or indirectly connected with the Blackhand organization and that it is through his association or connection with the gang that he was able to reach the west, and later make his escape to Denver, where he was finally arrested.

Laymen Listen

While Dr. Sheets Tells of Cause

Noted Exponent of Church Members' Movement Talks at Banquet for Methodists.

Two hundred and fifty of the Methodist laymen of Omaha assembled Friday evening around the banquet board in the auditorium of the Young Men's Christian Association to give evidence of their fealty to the Laymen's National Missionary movement about to be inaugurated in Omaha, and to hear the address of Rev. Dr. Frank H. Sheets, Chicago secretary of the Methodist Board of Foreign Missions, who is one of the enthusiasts in the Laymen's Missionary movement. Charles A. Goss presided at the meeting, which was begun with an invocation by F. H. Orcutt of Council Bluffs.

After the disposal of the substantial features of the banquet Chairman Goss introduced the speaker of the evening, Mr. Sheets expressed his profound gratitude at being present.

"The Laymen's Missionary movement is one of the greatest things of modern times," he said, "and is one that appeals to the best instincts of all men. It is not a new movement. It has nothing to do with missionary enterprises, but is wholly a thorough educational campaign for Christ. No collections are taken at its conventions for this or that benevolent purpose, its whole purpose is educational and in all respects the greatest movement of this generation."

"It is designed to solve the problem of world evangelization and is enlisting the energies of men before in the church. The movement proposes to put business into religion as well as religion into business. It is a movement of more than enthusiasm, and is destined to become a greater success in the future even than it has in the past."

Mr. Sheets showed the benefits that would accrue to the church both directly and indirectly and that the movement had the effect of bringing men into Christian work that had never before identified themselves with active church work. He dwelt at some length upon the great possibilities of this movement.

Upon the conclusion of Dr. Sheets' address there were several short talks along similar lines by laymen and it was very manifest that the Methodist laymen will take a very active and enthusiastic part in the campaign.

STEADY STREAM OF BUYERS

Auto Dealers Are Well Pleased with Results of Show.

ONE MAN SAYS EIGHTY SALES

Trucks Growing in Popularity Among Business Men and Large Number Will Go This Season.

Friday night saw a continuation of the crowds at the automobile show, for a steady stream of people filed through the Auditorium doors and up and down the aisles inspecting the cars. Dealers have found that the daytime is the time to sell the cars, as the night crowd has more of a sightseeing character.

Business fell off. Large numbers of sales made, and, while some of the sales must be taken with a grain of salt, it is certain that the present show had a big selling value and that many cars have been disposed of.

The Electric Garage company has sold all its electric cars and some for future delivery, as well as several of its higher-priced gasoline cars. J. J. Deight sold two of his Mercer cars the first day the car was on the floor of the show. He had also sold two of these before arrival.

Murphy & Son have sold two of their large trucks to Omaha concerns since the show. The first of these was a Lincoln large Frayer-Miller truck to a Lincoln concern.

One of the most interesting exhibits at the show is the chassis of the Mason car. This shows a friction gear which does away with the complicated gear system. It is starting gasolene cars.

Demand for Trucks. Murphy is most enthusiastic over his new truck and says he would not trade the agency with any dealer in the show. He says he believes the experimental stage for trucks has passed and that big concerns will be in the market strong this spring and that the demand will be large. He has large trucks and small trucks.

J. J. Deight has had to return several checks received for Stoddard-Dayton cars as he has sold his entire allotment. A buyer from Grand Island sent in his check. Mr. Deight was forced to return it, because he could not deliver the goods. The prospective buyer immediately came from Grand Island to pick out another car before all the higher grade cars were gone.

The well founded impression seems to have gained ground that there will be a scarcity of cars this spring and that the demand will far surpass the supply. While no autolog weather has been sighted several of the popular lines of cars are exhausted.

W. Hoffman claims the distinction of selling the largest number of cars to date at the show. His record is eighty cars for the Hupmobile and he claims the other dealers will have to move some if they expect to equal that record.

Country Buyers Here. George A. Yule of Racine, Wis., president of the Racine-Sattley company was a visitor at the show Friday and said he was surprised at the magnitude of the enterprise. His company has this year added the Firestone Columbus cars to its stock and has a late exhibit at the show in charge of Roy Coffen, local manager. Mr. Yule said he was also surprised at the large number of prospective buyers from the country.

H. C. Boastwick, president of the South Omaha National Bank, has bought the big "Peepers" limousine, which is exhibited at the show by Guy Smith. Mr. Smith has also sold a duplicate of the car to an Omaha buyer.

Dealers expect to close a large number of deals today which have been hanging fire for several days. There is not a dealer who says he has not a number of good prospects in addition to the cars sold.

Celestials Appeal to Mayor Gaynor. Executive Admits that Foreigners Are Safer in China Than Chinese Are in New York.

NEW YORK, Feb. 25.—The foreigner in China, says Mayor Gaynor, is safer in life and property than the Chinaman in New York. The Chinese consul called at the city hall today to complain of police extortion and violence and the mayor told him that he was perfectly well aware that more Chinamen were murdered and assaulted here than foreigners are killed and abused in China. He urged the consul to try to convince his fellow countrymen that any Chinaman need only come to the mayor for full protection under the law, without payment.

MILLER RENEWS FIGHT ON INDIAN WAREHOUSES. Minnesota Representative Says Mr. Hitchcock Misrepresents Situation to His Democratic Colleagues.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 25.—Representative Miller (rep.) of Minnesota, who made a futile effort to abolish the Indian warehouses located at New York, Chicago, St. Louis, Omaha and San Francisco by starting the appropriation for them out of the Indian bill, has reopened fight.

He says his efforts were defeated by Representative Hitchcock of Nebraska, whom he charged with sending letters to his democratic colleagues, telling them that Secretary Ballinger was behind the move to abolish the warehouses, desiring to build up a political machine through the appointment of a large number of agents.

Mr. Miller said today that he would seek to have the Indian bill amended with a proviso that he would introduce a separate bill in the house for the purpose.

Lamro Fight

Grows Warmer

Rival Townsite Companies Will Have Town Waiting No Matter Where Road Goes.

LAMRO, S. D., Feb. 25.—(Special.)—At a large and exciting meeting of citizens and former citizens of Lamro, held at the hall last night, a new townsite company was formed and articles of incorporation were filed and the following officers elected: Edward H. Hall, president; E. Crook, vice president; G. E. Shaner, secretary; George W. Mitchell, treasurer; H. M. Duval, H. J. McGrovey and J. E. Kialing, directors.

The original townsite company of Lamro is known as the Lamro-Townsite company and is incorporated under the name of the Lamro-Townsite company and has a capital stock of $5,000.

Several of those who originally went into the deal of purchasing the quarter section on the supposed railway grade near here and some distance from Winner, have since moved to Winner, believing that that town would eventually kill Lamro, but it is the general belief here that the railroad will after all come through Lamro on an earlier survey, when an abundance of good water can be had, or it will make its water tank on the quarter section owned by the new townsite company, where plenty of water can also be had.

The Lamro deserters came over to the meeting with the demand that they either agree to buy all the real estate on the line in the new townsite or be given back the money they had already paid in. The Lamro boosters were organized and laughed at their demands. Hot words were passed, but the organization went on, the Lamro boosters taking every office and not recognizing those who had left them in a single point.

They now hold their quarter section on the proposed railroad extension as a lever over Winner and declare that if the railroad does miss the old town they will have stock yards, elevators and their co-operative lumber yard and other real estate on the line and connect it with a graded road, one mile of sidewalk to the old town, only a little over a mile away.

DAKOTA EXPRESS CASES

COME UP ON DEMURRER

Attorneys for Companies Declare Railway Board is Without Right to Fix New Rates.

SIOUX FALLS, S. D., Feb. 25.—(Special Telegram.)—The case of the express companies having lines in the state against the South Dakota Board of Railroad Commissioners was left open in court this afternoon before Judge Carland of the United States court. The afternoon was consumed in making arguments upon demurrers which had been filed by the state to that portion of the complaints of the express companies, which allege that railroad commissioners did not make a proper statute of the last legislature have jurisdiction and were without power to make a new schedule of express rates. The argument contending that the commissioners have jurisdiction was made by P. W. Dougherty, assistant attorney general of South Dakota and counsel of the railroad commissioners, while Bailey and Voorhees of this city made the arguments in favor of the contention of the express companies. A memorandum brief will be filed with Judge Carland tomorrow by Bailey and Voorhees, after which he will consider the case and decide the demurrer. As the question involved in the demurrer is vital to the case it was decided first to get it out of the way. In the event that the demurrer is sustained the case will be free for arguments to be made of the question whether or not a temporary injunction shall be issued restraining the railroad commissioners from putting the reduced schedule of express rates into effect.

HANSON CREDITORS WILL GET FIFTY CENTS ON THE DOLLAR

Men Whom Late Restaurant Owner Will Receive About Half Their Money.

A dividend amounting to 35 cents on the dollar was declared Saturday for the benefit of the Tolf Hanson creditors by E. F. Leary, trustee in bankruptcy. Another dividend amounting to about 15 cents on the dollar may follow. The creditors of Tolf Hanson will thus achieve about 50 per cent of their claims.

The creditors held a meeting at which it was voted to accept an offer from the First National bank to take the Tolf Hanson residence at Thirty-fourth and Lincoln, the insurance money and the Courtney stock in lieu of filing a claim against the estate. The house was mortgaged to the bank for $20,000, which is all that it is worth.

The next largest creditor is John Hart, but his dividend will not be paid him until pending outcome of his mechanic lien suit against G. E. Shukert, into whose possession the building has passed. Charles E. Courtney is the third largest creditor. He will get something less than $7,000 on his claim of $14,000.

Mike stood erect and hopeful. "Just ninety days, the weather will be much milder by that time," suggested Judge Crawford.

"It is," replied Mike, as he turned to the court officer.

Mike has done time for all that's on the calendar. He's willing to plead guilty to them all, but he will be in Omaha until the spring time comes.

"Fine," replied the judge; "go quick."
