

DR. LEAL COMING TO OMAHA

Water Company Has Called New Jersey Expert.

WILL ARRIVE HERE ON FRIDAY

Experiments with Chlorination Are to Be Undertaken at Once and Local Health Department is to Co-Operate.

E. M. Fairfield, general manager of the Omaha Water company, says they have arranged to have Dr. Leal of Jersey City, N. J., start experimenting with his system to purify the local water supply, at once.

"We have arranged to have Dr. Leal apply his chlorination system to the water supply and he is expected to arrive in Omaha Friday," said Mr. Fairfield. "Dr. Leal is the expert who has achieved much success in bacterial removal at Jersey City and other places, and is to work in conjunction with the Omaha health department in making similar demonstrations with the Missouri river water.

"Although convinced that the typhoid in Omaha is due to other causes than the city water, I realize the necessity of allaying any suspicion in the minds of water users by reducing the bacterial unit to the lowest possible figure. If all bacteria are removed, there should be nothing left to worry about.

No Typhoid North of Florence. "It will be of interest to the readers to know that a thorough search of the country north of Florence reveals no typhoid. This investigation, made last month, extends ten or twelve miles up the river on both sides and along streams tributary to the Missouri and no cases of typhoid was found. Four or five cases were reported in or near Florence during the winter, but as none of the patients was ill more than a very few days, in two cases not even a doctor being called, the conclusions is inevitable that it could not have been typhoid.

As to the conditions along the East Omaha coast as depicted in an evening paper, I have only to say that for years the city has been fouling its own nest by permitting that dumping ground to exist.

For years the Water company has protested, but without avail. The excuse has always been the same as the present one, that before high water comes the worst has been removed. Even if contamination from this source has been hitherto escaped, we cannot expect the miracle to repeat itself indefinitely."

PUBLICITY BUREAU INSISTS ON FAIR DEAL FOR OMAHA

Financial Publications Are to Be Set Right as to Business Done in This City.

Figures compiled by the publicity bureau of the Commercial club show that Omaha has not been given the proper rating during the past in eastern financial circles. The club has compiled comprehensive figures of all industries and activities in Omaha and furnishes these figures when they are asked for.

The Equitable has been publishing a collection of figures which have not been giving Omaha the proper rating. They were corrected. These figures show that the average deposits of the clearing house banks for 1909 were $4,007,000, whereas the compilation by the publicity bureau show the figures should be $52,897,000. The figures on average loans were $3,025,000, whereas they should have been $23,854,000.

Omaha will be placed in the school geographies by one of the big text book houses. The firm of Hinds, Noble & Eldredge of New York, extensive publishers of geographies used in public schools, will use a story showing how most animals are converted into food products. The publicity department has furnished copy and photos of the South Omaha packing houses and South Omaha will be used as typical of the great packing centers.

Mrs. L. O. Swope Gives Deposition

Mother of Mrs. Hyde Tells of Colonel Swope's Eccentricities—Still Believes in "Yarb" Man.

KANSAS CITY, March 3.—After weeks of delay, occasioned by squabbles between attorneys and her presence before the grand jury, Mrs. Logan O. Swope, the guiding hand in the investigation of the Swope mystery, today gave her deposition in Dr. B. C. Hyde's slander suit against John G. Paxton, an executor for the Thomas H. Swope estate.

There was little sensational testimony in Mrs. Swope's story. In fact it was hardly as interesting a deposition as had been expected, considering the hard fight that Dr. Hyde's attorneys have made for it. With twinkling eyes and many smiles for her son-in-law's attorneys Mrs. Swope told of the eccentricities of Colonel Swope, and then, with all seriousness expressed her confidence in Chasess Hatred Chase Jordan, the swarthy "yarb" man who in eight years has received between $10,000 and $30,000 for "doctoring" the Swope.

While Mrs. Swope was telling her story a deputy sheriff in Wyandotte county, Kansas, was searching for the herb specialist, for whom he had a warrant charging Jordan with practicing medicine without a license.

The warrant was secured by James Meek, assistant prosecuting attorney of Wyandotte county, after the State Board of Medical Registration and Examination had made complaint against Jordan. Jordan was found at his home ill, and as a result the warrant was not served today.

A. C. Smith, a drug salesman, also testified in Dr. Hyde's suit today. He told of selling pills to Jordan that contained belladonna and acetanalsid.

But regardless of all Jordan's troubles Mrs. Swope believes in him. She is still "doctoring" with him. Thus she testified today. She also testified that Mrs. B. C. Hyde, who precipitated the investigation of the "doctor," also had confidence in him at one time.

"Francis Hyde," said Mrs. Swope, in speaking of her daughter, "was just as well pleased as any of us when Jordan cured me."

Colonel Swope, according to Mrs. Swope, was extremely eccentric. Constantly fearing death, he had talked of his demise for years before the end came. For twenty-five years he drank, becoming "tipsy," as she expressed it, during the latter part of each afternoon. He suffered greatly from stomach trouble, until a short time before his death, when he appeared to improve.

Second-Hand Man Attacks Ordinance

Sam? Riseman Seeks to Defeat Bill to Inspect Stores and Impose License Fee.

Sam Riseman, a second hand dealer of 220 North Sixteenth street, whose corporate name is the American Furniture company, seeks an injunction to put out of business the city ordinance exacting police inspection of second hand goods and stores, imposing a license fee of $10 and forbidding the display of a sign where there is no license. He maintains the ordinance is class legislation and unconstitutional.

Judge Day of the district court, before whom the case was brought, has issued an order upon the city requiring it to show cause why an injunction should not be granted and the hearing on this order is set for Saturday.

Police have found articles not purchased or obtained in the usual process of business transactions in certain places so often that the ordinance is being found its way on the statute books of the city and became operative March 1.

ENGLISH CALLED TO STAND

Attorney Summoned by Other Side as Witness in Will Case.

ASKED FOR RELATION TO CHURCH County Attorney Denies He is Under Retainer to Bishop Scannell—Father McGovern Important Witness.

Something of a thrill was caused in the Connor will trial when attorneys for the proponents suddenly called County Attorney James P. English to the stand. Mr. English with J. J. Sullivan is conducting the case for the heirs.

The questions asked the county attorney bore on his relations with the Catholic church as an attorney.

"You have performed various legal services for Bishop Scannell?" was one question. Mr. English answered that he had, and in reply to another question stated that he had drawn up incorporation papers for a number of parishes of the Omaha diocese.

"You are generally considered the attorney for Bishop Scannell?" "I am not under retainer as such," was the answer.

Other questions asked here upon English's retention by the heirs, which he testified was after the agreement had been signed among them by which Miss Grace

OMAHA SECOND CORN MARKET

Government Report Puts City Next to Top as World's Producer.

MAKES BIG JUMP IN ONE YEAR Over 25,000,000 Bushels of Grain Handled Here in 1909—City Ranks Sixth in Wheat and Fourth in Oats.

Corn Receipts in Bushels. 1909 1908 Omaha 22,291,600 12,127,900 Chicago 10,584,920 21,189,147 St. Louis 22,319,025 22,467,110 Peoria 15,104,354 15,827,286 Indianapolis 9,907,500 14,114,500

Omaha is the second corn market in the world, according to the government report, which is just out for the year 1909. At the close of 1908 Omaha was in fourth place, but during the year passed St. Louis, Peoria and Indianapolis. This record was made despite the fact that there was a great falling-off during November and December, due to the rains of November and the extreme cold of December, which made it almost impossible for the farmers to get their grain to market.

Omaha held its own as sixth in the list of wheat markets and in oats received is fourth, the same as last year. The monthly report of the Omaha Grain exchange shows an increase of 4,000 bushels for February over the corresponding month last year. The wheat receipts for last month were 725,000 bushels; corn receipts, 2,977,500 bushels; oats, 1,153,000 bushels; rye, 32,000 bushels; barley, 50,000 bushels; a total of 4,965,700.

IS COVERT A TAXPAYER?

Question Arises as to Right of Steel Worker to Enjoin Operations of Court House.

Doubt has arisen whether Percy F. Covert, plaintiff in the injunction suit against Caldwell & Drake, is a taxpayer, as Covert asserts in his petition here. The records in the office of the county assessor fail to show that Mr. Covert has within the last two years made any return on either real or personal property.

John O. Yeiser, Covert's counsel, "thinks" Mr. Covert has paid personal taxes, but is not sure about the matter. "If he is not," said Yeiser, "we shall substitute someone else who is."

Married Misery

People often rely on nature unaided to correct evil but it doesn't. One aim of corrective medicine should be to do away with married unhappiness. At the bottom of a deal of misery is found lack of cheerful yielding. Mean selfishness is as surely due to ill-health as famine is to failure. Ungovernable temper—a third fault—is largely the outcome of stomach disorder. All these causes disappear when stomach and liver are keyed to a finely balanced tone. The first sign of on-coming Biliousness, Indigestion or Headache, should suggest old Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. No other known medicine contains so complete a curative power for disordered stomach and torpid liver.—Twilvert many a conflict between man and woman.

Take pains, however, not to insist too strongly on having your own way except wish the druggist—insist that he give you Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. Constipation is always aggravating. A costive person is hardly fit to associate with—while free and easy bowel action tends to make the grouchy grumbler a cheerful optimist, lovable and full of hope. Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets, taken now and then, move bowels gently once a day. That's enough.
