SPLENDID STOCK RANCH SPLENDID STOCK RANCH

Here is an attractive proposition for the man who wants a good stock ranch in the North Platte valley:

It is on the new line of the Union Pacific, 160 miles west of North Platte. There are 581 acres, of which 115 are under irrigation, and you can raise enough alfalfa to feed a thousand head of cattle. Halance of the land is splendid pasture and along the creek is hay land.

YOU OUGHT TO SEE THAT CREEK. It is called the "Coldwater" and is well named—never falls and never froezes. It is a generous stream, with gravel bottom, not a marsh.

This ranch is only a little over a mile from the railroad station and will make a nice home for the man who wants to combine farming and stock raising.

Ask about this if interested. It is held at $5 per acre; easy torms.
