

BIG YEAR FOR BIG FIGHTS

Interest in the Johnson-Jeffries Bout Boost All Minor Events.

HUGE FORTUNES AT STAKE

Indications Are Spectators Will Come from All Over the Country and that Some Will Come from Across the Pond.

NEW YORK, March 5.—The first pugilistic little battle of the new year, fought at San Francisco on February 22, increased the evidence which points to 1910 as a record breaking twelve months in ring history.

The fact that the battle between the 210-pounders attracted thousands of spectators to the ring at Point Richmond, despite the disagreeable weather, argues well for a record breaking attendance when the big men enter the ring on Independence day.

With the date of the fight still some five months away, and several months uncertainties, such as the outcome of Johnson's trial for assault in this city, dimming the horizon, preparations for the contest and its aftermath go steadily forward.

Humphreys' Seventy-Seven Famous Remedy for Colds & GRIP

The rapidity of the cure, and the severity of an attack of Grip, depends upon how early the treatment is begun.

If "Seventy-seven" is used at the first feeling of lassitude and weakness, the attack will be light and short.

If the treatment is delayed till your bones begin to ache the cure will take longer.

"Seventy-seven" breaks up hard stubborn Colds that cling.

FORMER CRACK INFELDERS

Old Ball-Fans Say They've Not Been Excelled.

WONDERS OF THE PAST RECALLED

Start, Morrill, Anson, Connor, Brouthers, Tucker, Tenney, Pfeffer, Dunlap, Williamson, Glascock, Denny, Ward and Others.

NEW YORK, March 5.—"Are the infielders of today fast and clever as those of the past? Do they play more scientific ball?" John M. Ward was requested to answer these questions and he replied:

"There are some great players on the diamond now, I might mention Hal Chase, the crack first baseman, as an example, but when I look back into history and recall such star-infielders as Fred Pfeffer, Fred Dunlap, Joe Start, John Morrill, Broudock, Tom Tucker, Roger Connor and others too numerous to mention I am forced to say that I see no improvement."

That is the reply almost any veteran ball player will make to those queries, but it is hard to convince the modern-day fans that better infielders than Chase, Devlin, Bridwell, Tinker, Wagner, Evers, Eddie Collins, Lajoie, Chance, Miller, Konetsky and Hobbitel for instance ever lived.

Orator James O'Rourke, who sold the Bridgeport club, the other day and finally retired from active work on the field, was a high class first baseman when he wore a Boston uniform in 1873 and 1874. Joe Start was in his prime when he covered the bag for the Providence club in 1884.

Sid Farrar of the Philadelphia in 1895 was a superb handler of thrown balls and headed the list with an average of .979 for 113 games, which was a new record.

Tom Tucker of the champion Bostonians under the late Frank G. Selig, held the title of king of the first basemen after that until he was replaced by Ted Tenney, who was considered a phenomenon.

Other parties may come from over the sea. There is a lively interest in the fight on the continent.

Five of the specials under the personal direction of Mr. McCann will be for American fight fans. They are being filled with applicants each day.

Another angle to the fight as a business proposition is shown by the statement of H. H. Frazer, manager of the Chicago team, who has signed Jeffries up for an unlimited time tour of the world, following the contest which is set for July 4.

TO PROTECT FIGHTERS' HANDS

Wearing of Bandages a Habit with Them All.

ALUMINUM PADS A NEW WRINKLE

There Are Methods of Putting Them On that Call for Protest—Hardened Taps and Stiff Knuckle Covers.

When Jeffries and Johnson enter the ring in Frisco in July their heads will be encased in bandages, but before the gloves are drawn on these knuckle protectors will be carefully examined.

In a recent fight it was said that Hugh McGunn, the Smoky City slugger, used aluminum knuckle pads under the bandages in order to beat his antagonist, Mike McDonald, into quick submission.

Fair-minded handlers of pugilists have declared many times that soft cotton bandages should be tolerated but that anything of a harder substance should be barred.

When Kid McCoy knocked out Tommy Ryan at Maspeth years ago the latter was literally cut to pieces.

Joe Walcott once insisted that Mystery Billy Smith had a horseshoe in his glove. He had fought Smith on several previous occasions, but had never received a tremendous smash.

Tom Sharkey always wore bandages and so did Jim Corbett. But Sharkey knew a way to harden his hands by steeping them in some secret preparation.

When Chynskiy was knocked out by Peter Maher at the Broadway Athletic club, with Theodore Roosevelt among the spectators, it was asserted that the Irishman wore five yards of adhesive tape around each hand.

Stanley Ketchel, one of the hardest hitters in the ring, did not wear a bandage until the fight with Joe Thomas, which he won in thirty-two rounds.

For the inaugural meet, large cash prizes are offered for professional events and handsome trophies for amateur races and the fields in each class are expected to be larger than usual.

HOW HE CURED HIS RHEUMATISM

"Six years ago I had a severe attack of Rheumatism. I was confined to my bed for six months, and the doctors seemed unable to help me. I tried many liniments, plasters, home remedies, etc., but none of them gave me any permanent relief; the symptoms always returned when such treatment was left off. My knees and elbows were terribly swollen, so bad in fact, that for a while I could not move hand or foot. I certainly had one of the severest cases of Rheumatism I ever heard of. I was getting discouraged when I heard of S. S. S., but as it was recommended to me as a fine treatment for Rheumatism I began its use. This medicine soon helped me, and I continued taking it until I was cured sound and well. S. S. S. relieved the swelling, purified my blood, stopped all pain, and cured me entirely. This was six years ago and I have not had Rheumatism since."

1355 Mt. Vernon Ave., Columbus, O. R. H. CHAPMAN.

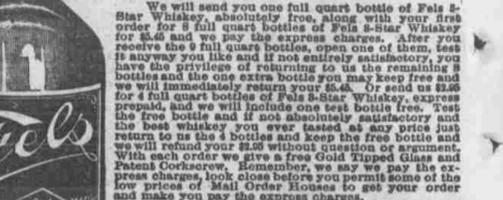

The severity of Mr. Chapman's case of Rheumatism proves the value of S. S. S. as a cure for this disease. It is just another demonstration of the fact that only a blood purifier can conquer the trouble. Rheumatism is an acid blood fermentation; a souring of the circulation from an excess of uric acid in the blood stream. This uratic impurity is transmitted to the blood through the process of absorption, and comes as a result of constipation, indigestion, weak kidneys, etc.

There is but one way to cure Rheumatism, and that is to purify the blood—cleanse the circulation of the uric acid impurity. S. S. S. goes into the blood and attacks the disease at its head, and by removing every particle of the uric matter, and building up the blood to a healthful condition, this medicine destroys the cause and cures Rheumatism.
