GRAIN AND PRODUCE MARKET

Bulls Run Their Course, Wheat Prices on Decline.

WEAK CABLES, HEAVY RECEIPTS

Quotations Fall Off Steadily Throughout Session—Crop Reports Disregarded and Cash Trading Slow—Corn is Weaker.

OMAHA, March 7, 1910.

The bullish fever resulting from crop damage reports seems to have run its course and wheat values were kept on the decline again today. Weak cables, increased receipts and large world's shipments were further weakening features.

Receipts of corn continue liberal, while the demand shows little signs of improvement.

Prices continue on the decline and unless the demand picks up no change is predicted.

Wheat weakened sharply, selling lower steadily throughout the session. Crop reports were disregarded and cash wheat was decidedly slow; buyers were not inclined to take the moderate offerings.

The corn market was decidedly weak, selling was general and the bears had no opposition. Heavy receipts and no demand broke cash prices, offerings being taken from ½c to 1½c lower.

Primary wheat receipts were 1,356,000 bushels and shipments were 212,000 bushels, against receipts last year of 800,000 bushels and shipments of 312,000 bushels.

Primary corn receipts were 953,000 bushels and shipments were 416,000 bushels, against receipts last year of 1,020,000 bushels and shipments of 543,000 bushels.

Clearances were 342,000 bushels of corn, none of oats and wheat and flour equal to 101,000 bushels.

Liverpool closed ⅛@¼d lower on wheat and ⅛d lower on corn.

CHICAGO GRAIN AND PROVISIONS

Features of the Trading and Closing Prices on Board of Trade.

CHICAGO, March 7.—Under pressure of large arrivals May wheat fell off sharply today. Corn sagged decidedly and oats ranged lower with the other grains. Provisions gained materially in the earlier minutes of the market and then weakened in sympathy with the course of grain prices.

Bearish sentiment controlled wheat, May prices finishing with a net loss of 1⅛@1¼c, after registering an extreme decline of 1⅜c. The May delivery bore the brunt of the bears' onslaught, falling off from $1.12⅝ to $1.11½ and closed weak at $1.11⅝@1.11¾. July traveled down from $1.03⅝ to $1.02⅝ and then moved up again, finishing ½@¾c off at $1.03⅝. September closely approximating the movement of July.

Weakness was manifested in corn all day and prices at the low point showed losses of from 1⅛ to 1¾c. May fell off from 62⅝@63⅛c to 61⅝c. Buying by shorts caused a moderate rally from the low point, but the market closed weak, with May 1c down, at 62⅛c. Offerings of cash corn were fairly liberal and the demand was slow, which resulted in a decline of about 1c. No. 3 yellow sold at 58@59c.

Liquidation and short selling weakened oats, prices declining ⅝c to 1⅛@1¼c. The July option showed the greatest weakness. After selling between 45c and 44⅛c, May closed ⅜c off at 44⅜c.

In provisions, pork showed the greatest weakness, the May delivery declining from $24.97½ to $24.45. The market closed firm, with the May delivery unchanged to 7½c higher. Closing quotations on the May products were: Pork, $24.80; lard, $13.32½; ribs, $12.85.

WEATHER IN THE GRAIN BELT

Partly Cloudy Tuesday After Warmer Night for Nebraska.

OMAHA, March 7, 1910.

Light precipitation was general within the last twenty-four hours in the lake region, upper Ohio valley and eastern states, and light snows are falling in the lake region this morning, with light rains in the New England states. The weather is generally clear in the southern states, the central valleys and throughout the west, and no precipitation worthy of mention has occurred in those sections since the preceding report. A cool wave spread over the upper valleys and northwest during Sunday, and much colder weather prevails this morning from the Rocky mountains east over the central valleys and lake region. With the generally clear weather prevailing throughout the west, the outlook is favorable for continued fair in this vicinity tonight and Tuesday, with no important change in temperature.

NEW YORK STOCKS AND BONDS

Concerted Operations for Advance on Large Scale Are Perceptible.

STEEL AND UNION PACIFIC LEAD

Rise in These Issues Has a Sentimental Effect on Entire List—Bond Market is Irregular.

NEW YORK, March 7.—Concerted operations for an advance on a large scale were clearly perceptible in the stock market today. Unfavorable influences were entirely ignored in New York, although the market for Americans in London was slightly affected before trading began here.

Large and aggressive accumulation and rapidly rising prices in United States Steel and Union Pacific had a sentimental effect on the whole list that overrode all other considerations. The movement of steel suggested the resumption of market operations by the same organization which conducted the brilliant campaign in that stock last year.

Union Pacific was favorably affected by the character of the day's testimony in the hearing of the government's suit against the merger. The recital of Union Pacific history by one of its bankers, was read with profound interest in Wall Street. The influence of the Philadelphia strike was minimized by quiet conditions reported from that city, although conflicting claims left the actual situation somewhat confused. No question was raised of a probable decision in the American Tobacco case at Washington, in contrast with preceding Mondays, when the probability of a decision was as remote.

Although the stock market paid no attention to the bank statement, that exhibit was the subject of interested comment in other quarters. No very clear light was thrown on the unexplained decrease of upwards of $10,000,000 in cash held by the clearing house banks, where an increase estimated up to $3,000,000 was looked for.

The time loan market became notably strong and the supplies offered sensibly diminished. The call loan market was not affected. The advance in foreign exchange halted, notwithstanding continued hardening of London discounts and large sales here of stocks for London account. Rumors were current that permission will be accorded to the railroads to advance freight rates together with an advance in wages of employes.

Bonds were irregular. Total sales, par value, $3,356,000. United States 2's declined ⅛ per cent on call.

CATTLE—Receipts of cattle were disappointingly small this morning, only 145 cars being reported in. After the very good market that prevailed here during the greater part of last week it was only reasonable to expect a liberal run this morning, but it failed to materialize.

Under the influence of moderate offerings and a very active buying demand, beef steers advanced sharply this morning, being a big 10c higher, and in fact, so much higher that a good many salesmen were calling it 10@15c higher. The trade was active at the advance and the early arrivals all changed hands in very good season in the morning. There was nothing very choice on sale to make a test of extreme high prices. There were a few cattle good enough to sell at $7.65.

Cows and heifers were generally 10c higher, and in many cases 10@15c higher. The early market was active and the offerings changed hands quite readily at prevailing prices.

Good feeders sold as strong or a little stronger than any time yet with the demand good and the trade active. As high as $6.40 was paid for right good Wyoming hayfeds. There did not appear to be any great inquiry for list stockings, the market on that kind being without any noteworthy change.

Late trains met with very ready sale, the later market being fully as good as any time. As high as $7.10 was paid for a full load that came in late, with a part of a load selling up to $7.15.

Quotations on cattle: Good to choice cornfed steers, $6.50@7.50; fair to good cornfed steers, $5.25@6.50; common to fair cornfed steers, $4.75@5.35; good to choice cows and heifers, $5.00@6.00; fair to good cows and heifers, $4.50@5.00; common to fair cows and heifers, $3.00@4.50; good to choice stockers and feeders, $5.00@6.40; fair to good stockers and feeders, $4.50@5.00; common to fair stockers and feeders, $3.25@4.50; stock heifers, $3.00@4.00; veal calves, $4.00@8.25; bulls, stags, etc., $3.75@5.75.

HOGS—Light receipts, coupled with an active demand, resulted in a further elevation of hog values this morning. It was the same old story as far as tops and average cost were concerned—both were record-breakers.

Opening bids were just about a nickel higher than Saturday's average trade, and a few hogs sold at this advance, but the market quickly ascended to a dime higher level and the bulk of offerings went at the better figures. Some weakness was apparent toward the close, after most of the stuff had been received and weighed up, but neither the decline nor the amount of business at the close, was sufficient to affect the market as a whole. Shipping demand throughout the session was especially active.

A considerable portion of the hogs sold at $9.75@9.80, as compared with Saturday's big strings between $9.60@9.75, and the bulk a week ago of $9.35@9.45. Tops reached $9.90, as compared with Saturday's high top of $9.82½.

SHEEP—There was not very much activity to the live mutton trade at the opening this morning owing to the fact that actual offerings were limited and quality none too good. Almost thirty cars were expected, but only eleven arrived in time for early rounds and most of these were common and unfinished shipments.

Despite the dull appearance to trade, the more desirable classes of killers changed hands in very good season at generally steady prices and the market as a whole is quotable on this basis. Three loads of broken-fleece lambs were good enough to sell at $8.50, and even the more inferior lots commanded good, firm figures.

Demand from shearers for anything that promises profit is still brisk, but the volume of business seasonably small. The number of sheep and lambs taken back into the country last week was just about normal with previous weeks, but prices paid were the highest in the history of the trade at this point, fat kinds of lambs with a good fleece selling up to $9.00.

Quotations on sheep and lambs: Good to choice lambs, $9.00@9.35; fair to good lambs, $8.50@9.00; cull lambs, $5.50@7.00; good shearing lambs, $8.50@9.00; straight feeding lambs, $8.00@8.50; good light yearlings, $8.25@8.60; good heavy yearlings, $7.60@8.25; fair yearlings, $6.90@7.60; good to choice wethers, $7.40@7.75; fair to good wethers, $6.75@7.40; good to choice ewes, $7.00@7.50; fair to good ewes, $6.50@7.00.

NEW YORK, March 7.—COTTON—The market opened easy, unchanged to 8 points lower and quickly sold off to a net loss of 9@18 points under over-Sunday selling orders, attributed to rumors of bull clique liquidation on Saturday and a renewal of bear pressure encouraged by relatively easy cables. Covering checked the decline after stop-loss orders had been executed and there was some bull support on which the market rallied to within 4@11 points of Saturday's closing figures.
