Maine Has Aspirations.

C. L. Mains, deputy food commissioner, is feeling out the voters of the Fourth district with a view to running for the democratic nomination for congress. Mr. Mains got out of the way the long time and he believes now is about the accepted time for him to go before the members of his party.

Six Calves in Year.

H. Huff of Spalding has reported to Secretary Mellor of the state fair board that he has a cow which has given birth to six calves during the last fifteen months. The cow is a registered red Polled-Angus, Rens. She gave birth to two sets of triplets. Mr. Huff sent along photographs of the cow and her calves to the state fair. All of the calves are thrifty and doing well.

JOHN WHYMAN RETURNS HOME

Seward County Man Absent from Home for Year. SEWARD, Neb., March 7.—(Special.)—John Whyman, the man who so mysteriously left his wife and daughters a year ago, has returned. The family had moved to Milford when they first arrived in the county about two years ago. They were farming near Milford when the man disappeared. The family was prostrated and the two young daughters quit school. A brother of the man came to help out the work of the wife on the farm that year. Afterwards the family moved to Seward. On his arrival he went back to the former farm home and inquired looking for his family and inquiring located them here. On being asked where he had been during his long absence he replied "close around."

Complaint by W. C. T. U.

BEATRICE, Neb., March 7.—(Special Telegram.)—Mrs. Sarah M. Spalding, president of the Gage County Women's Christian Temperance union, swore out a warrant in the county court house today against Samuel Earl, a billiard and pool hall proprietor at Wymore, charging him with permitting minors to congregate and play in his place of business. Ida McKeever also swore out a warrant against Earl.

Nebraska STATE UNIVERSITY ATHLETE DIES OF PARALYTIC STROKE

G. G. Hammond of Pawnee City Expires—In Training for Omaha Meet.

LINCOLN, March 7.—(Special.)—G. G. Hammond of Pawnee City, a prominent University of Nebraska athlete, died early this morning from a stroke of paralysis, which he suffered last Friday. He was a junior in the engineering college of the university.

Last spring Hammond competed for the Cornhuskers in the track meets with Minnesota and Kansas. He was a high jumper and pole vaulter. He was expected to be one of the leading track athletes for this spring.

Nebraska

Hammond was a gymnast also and would have been a member of the Nebraska gymnastic team that will compete in the Western Intercollegiate meet at Minneapolis next month. Last winter he took part in the western meet that was held in Lincoln.

Nebraska

Until last week Hammond was, apparently in good health and was training for the track meet at Omaha and for the local gymnastic contests. During the early days of the week he complained of feeling ill and a little feverish, but his ailment was not taken seriously. He retired to bed early Friday night at his rooms in this city, and early in the morning was found lying on the floor of his room suffering from a paralytic stroke. The lower half of his body was paralyzed.

BOY HUNTER SHOTS HIMSELF William Koneczek Found Fatally Wounded by Accidental Discharge of Gun.

HARVARD, Neb., March 7.—(Special.)—An accident, which may be fatal, took place at the farm home of Mr. Koneczek, nine miles southwest of this city, his son William being found lying by a wire fence, unconscious, with two charges through his body, one near the heart, the other a little below, his gun by his side indicating he had caught the hammers on the wire fence in going through it, causing it to discharge. He had lain there some time before being discovered.

Nebraska

There seems no possible chance for his recovery and his death is expected at any time. MAY Repair Old Court House. BROKEN BOW, Neb., March 7.—(Special.)—The question of building a new court house at Broken Bow stands where it did immediately after the fire, calling for a better structure, was turned down by the people with a vote of 235 for, and 234 against. As no new propositions have been advanced so far to better the situation, the affair seems to be up to the county supervisors to repair the old court house as well as circumstances will permit and provide some suitable and safe place for the county records. The insurance money could be utilized and the balance drawn from the general fund with the statutory provision. Such is the opinion of County Attorney Gadd, backed by the attorney general of the state, whose opinion was also asked. The county divisionists made a strenuous fight against the levy, which was clearly demonstrated by the large majorities that were rolled up in each division stronghold; but there were many anti who turned down the levy who were misinformed and led to believe that the levy would be made on the actual valuation instead of the assessed valuation of property.

Nebraska

CITY Convention at Tecumseh. TECUMSEH, Neb., March 7.—(Special.)—The city central committee has called the annual city convention for Monday evening, March 14. It is to be expected that the usual plan in nominating candidates will be carried out. The license issue will be given a direct vote and two non-partisan candidates will be named for each city office. In that way the voter is given the preference of men and at the same time allowed to vote on the important issue as he sees fit. The coming election will choose mayor, clerk, treasurer, engineer and a member of the council for each of the three wards.
