Here at last is real economy in filing devices—you buy what you need now—expand as you need it—and pay no premium for the privilege.

There is no excuse now for foregoing the advantage of modern methods—no cost for waste space.

If you will come in and talk it ever with us, we will gladly explain how little you have to use.
And the "biggest" man, too, can use the littlest filing system—"the little brother of the Shaw-Walker system"—let us tell you that also,
