

BOWLERS MAKING SLATE

Committee Recommends Re-election of Practically All Officers.

OMAHAN ON EXECUTIVE BOARD

No Action Taken on Proposal to Change Date of Tournament—Fond Du Lac Man Second in Singles.

DETROIT, March 10.—The executive committee of the American Bowling Congress met yesterday and nominated practically all the present officers for the same positions during the coming year.

It was decided to increase the numbers of the members of the executive committee from fifteen to eighteen.

The slate of officers for the coming year, prepared by the committee, includes:

- President—H. R. Bryson, Indianapolis, Ind.
Third Vice President—M. A. Phillips, St. Louis.
Secretary—A. L. Langtry, Milwaukee, Wis.
Treasurer—F. J. Padelou, Chicago.
Executive Committee—S. L. Drake, St. Louis; G. C. Franzen, Omaha; J. A. Stritz, Des Moines; C. A. Turner, St. Joseph, Mo.; C. A. Nichols, Kansas City.

The committee took no action on the proposed amendment concerning the opening date of the annual tournament, which is opposed by St. Louis. The amendment will be submitted to the meeting tomorrow without recommendation. St. Louis delegates oppose the arbitrary fixing of the opening date a Saturday in February, and say they will not bid for the 1911 tourney if they can adhere to their plan of opening it in January in order to give base ball players an opportunity to compete.

No Changes in Leaders.

Another day of the tenth annual tournament of the American Bowling Congress passed without a change in the leaders of any of the three events.

W. C. Zoellner of Fond du Lac, Wis., and Milwaukee, was the star of the day in the individual event, with 67, three pins behind the leading 66 of Glen Fisher of the Chicago bowlers.

Through an error in his score, John Kalde was credited with 62, but Secretary A. L. Langtry later announced that his correct score was 61, which was the second high score of the day and gave him sixth place.

Scores of leaders in each class to date follow:

OMAHA MAN CHOSEN COACH

Ben Cherrington Will Train Cornhusker Track Team.

SAVING MEN FOR OMAHA MEET

Small Delegations Will Be Sent by Board to Sioux City and Kansas City Contests.

LINCOLN, March 10.—(Special.)—Ben R. Cherrington of Omaha was today elected by the University of Nebraska athletic board to coach the Cornhusker track and field team for the coming season.

Cherrington, who has coached the Cornhusker track team for the past two seasons, was chosen by a vote of 10 to 2 over the other candidates. He took charge of the squad this afternoon and gave them two hours' training out of doors.

Cherrington coached the Omaha High school track team last year and turned out such a fast team that the Omaha side won the state meet with ease. The new coach is a junior in the university. His selection was made at the request of a majority of the track candidates. I. P. Hewitt, who had been considered for the position, found it impossible to accept the offer of the Cornhusker board.

During the last few days the track men have been in training out of doors for the indoor meets at Omaha, Sioux City and Kansas City. Even yesterday, during a snowstorm, they sprinted along the paved streets of the city, trying to get into the best form possible for the coming contests.

The Sioux City meet takes place Saturday. The Cornhuskers will not have a large representation there. The athletic board has decided to send only five or six men to the Sioux City and Kansas City meets in order to keep down expenses for the meet and have most of the track money available for dispatching a team of fifteen men to the Omaha games on April 1.

Team for Sioux City.

The men who will go to Sioux City Saturday are: McDonald, ex-captain of the Nebraska track team; Reed, speedy shirt distance man; Funkhouser, weight heaver; Graham, vaulter and high jumper; Minor and Burke, runners.

McDonald will be entered in the hurdle races, and is regarded as a probable winner of the short barrier run. He has been in training for two weeks and should be in fairly good condition. He holds both of the Nebraska records in the hurdle events.

Funkhouser is the freshman athlete who defeated Sidney Collins, the star university weight man, in the shot put on charter day. He heaved the iron ball over forty-four feet. He stands a good chance of getting a place in the Sioux City games.

Graham is the leader in the pole vault. He has done 11 feet in this event. He also will be entered in the high jump. Since the injury to Hummel, Graham has been the best jumper on the Cornhusker team.

Reed and Minor will represent the Cornhuskers in the shorter races. Reed is the faster of the two men. Nebraska's best runners did not compete in the tryouts for the meet because of their school work. Both Swanson and May are better short distance men than Reed and Minor and they will be ready to compete by the time of the Omaha games.

Nebraska's relay team at Sioux City on Saturday will be composed of McDonald, Reed, Burke and Minor. This team will be nearly as strong as the quartet that won first place for Nebraska in the Kansas meet last spring. Unless Grinnell sends a strong relay team to that meet, Nebraska ought to win first place.

Reed and Minor will represent the Cornhuskers in the shorter races. Reed is the faster of the two men. MOVE TOWARD BETTER CITY

Committee Named by Mayor to Work with C. M. Robinson.

LATTER POINTS OUT ELEMENTS

Center of Meeting Composed of Women, Officials and Private Citizens to Consider Plan of Improving Omaha.

CHARLES MUIFORD Robinson, who plans cities and makes over in modern, artistic fashion the unhealthful and waste places of municipalities, spent Thursday in Omaha. His visit resulted in the appointment of the following committee to consult with him with a view to his possible engagement to make a plan for Omaha to work toward. President E. F. Berryman of the Park board, President F. D. Wood of the Real Estate exchange, Frank L. Haller of the Commercial club, City Engineer Craig, City Comptroller Lobeck, Councilmen Hummel and Sheldon.

The committee met with Mr. Robinson at the council chamber at 10:30. It was agreed, after discussion, that the expert shall put in the form of a letter his ideas of the scope of work that a report for Omaha ought to cover, and also give the cost of his services in making a plan. If the committee decides to take the matter up seriously, City Engineer Craig was made chairman of the committee and City Comptroller Lobeck secretary.

The committee was named by Mayor Dahlman, who presided at the conference held with Mr. Robinson at the Rome hotel. Mrs. F. H. Cole, president of the State Federation of Women's Clubs, had hurriedly called over the phone a score of men and women to meet Mr. and Mrs. Robinson. As a result there was a gathering of perhaps twenty-five present, including many city officials and men prominent in business life.

Mrs. Cole introduces him.

At the opening Mrs. Cole told something of Mr. Robinson's work, and then the latter briefly explained his plan. He had been working in St. Joseph for two weeks to prepare a plan for a park system and a small civic center. This latter will have as its main feature at present the new city hall.

Mayor Dahlman called on several men in the audience to express their views on the possibility of starting a movement here to secure a definite plan of future city building for Omaha. City Attorney Burman favored the idea, giving reasons drawn from the experience of other cities, citing Denver in particular.

President Berryman and Members Miller and Watson of the Park board also thought the opportunity should be seized to secure the views of the visiting expert and gave him some outline of what has been done in the park building line and what is contemplated.

Victor Rosewater, who was called on by the mayor, said the Park board had done a good deal of creditable work with the money at its disposal. He pointed out that work in any one direction was not so much to be desired as intelligent effort consistently devoted to improving the city generally.

Some Obstacles to Beauty.

"You cannot make a good impression on visitors," said Mr. Rosewater, "when they see elegant buildings on this corner and strong retaining walls and old shacks that would not be a credit to a village. Neither can you make a good impression on visitors when they see along your principal streets the asphalt pavement full of holes." To bring about the kind of city we are all anxious to have we must take stock of our resources generally and of our finances particularly. No one subject of interest can be fostered at the expense of all others, but the best work will comprehend all the varied matters that are involved in city building.

Frank L. Haller said he had just returned from a trip through Mexico, "which we are accustomed to look on as a benighted nation. The examples of city beauty and city cleanliness that I saw while away made me ashamed of what we have in Omaha. The Woman's club and all other organizations must come down to earth. Pink teas and good resolutions are not what we want. When we see our streets littered with the refuse of the city and when left undone, we should make up our minds to stay down on the earth and do the best we can toward accomplishing the merely necessary things before indulging in platitudes and dreams."

This Gets Mrs. Cole.

This brought Mrs. Cole to her feet with the statement that the women wanted to hear what the men had to say, and they were not attempting to force their own views.

"We just want to help in any way we can," she said. "We are not giving pink teas, but I wish we could give one and invite all you men, especially Mr. Haller, in his present humor."

Mrs. Johnson also had a word to say as to the purposes and the hopes of the Woman's club, and then Mayor Dahlman read all present a very serious lecture on the need for going to the legislature if they want clean streets and a better city.

"When you talk of dirty streets," he said, "you can always have a fight if I am around, because no business men, no organization, would go to the legislature with us to have a maximum appropriation allowed that would be something like other cities of our size have. If you want cleaner streets and better municipal conditions, you must provide the money. Our whole appropriation could have been spent in three months this winter and then the streets would not have been clean and what would you do the other nine months. The business people and the leading citizens of Omaha must go to the legislature, after electing the right kind of men, and ask that the state constitution be amended so that Omaha can make its own charter. Then you can have your designs carried out, but not until then."

Several Others Speak.

Rome Miller introduced the mayor's views and said Omaha spends less on its parks than St. Joseph, even.

Judge Sutton spoke of the need of intelligently planned work and incidentally said he believed South Omaha is ready to come into Omaha today. The opportunity is offered without politics being mixed in the matter.

Councilmen Sheldon and Berka and City Comptroller Lobeck made brief talks on the general subject, and expressed the view that if the people are awakened to what is necessary, within a few years, Omaha can be one of the most beautiful cities in the country.

WASHINGTON, March 10.—A second attempt to have the house pass a bill providing for the purchase or erection of embassy buildings in foreign capitals was today defeated.

FATHER HURLEY IMPROVING

Young Omaha Priest in St. Louis Regains Strength, Father F. J. Judge Writes.

Father F. J. Judge of Sacred Heart, who is taking a brief rest from his arduous duties, is visiting with Father F. J. Hurley, who is still in Alexian Brothers Hospital, St. Louis.

Father Judge writes to a friend on The Bee that Father Hurley is improving in his physical condition and will, so his physician advises, be a strong man, ready for the duties of his work, by fall. His eyes, which were seriously weakened by his general nervous collapse, are responding nicely to the treatment and will be normal when he regains his strength.

Hobson and Payne Tilt Over Convict Road Law

WASHINGTON, March 10.—The general policy of denouncing roads by convict labor was discussed in the house yesterday in connection with a bill providing for military highway between Fort Leavenworth and Fort Riley, Kansas, with labor from the military prison at Fort Leavenworth. Opposition was expressed to having the government take part in the building of any state road.

Representative Hobson of Alabama brought forth an amendment suggesting to Mr. Anthony of Kansas, in charge of the measure that he believed it would clear away all constitutional difficulties upon the ground that the constitution itself provided that the government might construct military and postroads. Mr. Hobson's amendment provided for a division of the cost of roads between the government and the states when the secretary of war should approve plans for them as necessary. "There should be some great plan drawn up," said Mr. Hobson, "for the construction of roads in the United States under a single harmonious system. The roads of Alabama should fit in those of the adjoining states in every direction."

An Edison Phonograph will surprise you. The first time you hear it you will be surprised at its goodness. Everybody is particularly the first time you hear the Edison Phonograph play an Amberol Record. People who have heard Phonographs talked about, or who have heard them at a distance on the street, or who have heard some other make of sound-reproducing machine, do not realize the remarkable goodness of the Edison Phonograph. This is partly due to the wonderful sapphire point which does not scratch or make any sound, and partly due to the wonderful Amberol Records which are so smooth and clear that they can reproduce the finest violin melody with all its natural sweetness. This is the same instrument
