differently. But the people in the country apparently believe the uplift magazines and the cowardly members of congress who wrought such havor today. They said the speaker should not be a member of the committee on rules, which they made over into a committee of ten. Much depends upon the makeup of that committee.

'May God bless and keep these men, for, so far as I am concerned. He only can bless them. Many so-called republicans are, in fact, populists, and are trying to outdo Bryanism.

Meeting of Insurgents.

There has not yet been called any meeting of the insurgents to consider what their foture course will be, but undoubtedly one will be held within a day or two. the state.

The next conflict will come, if it comes on the selection of the new rules committee provided for in the Norris resolution. The committee is to be elected by the house, instead of being appointed by the speaker, as heretofore. Neither the regular republicans nor the democrats have as yet made may arrangements for a party caucas, but both caucuses will be held within the next three or four days.

Representative Tawney, one of the leaders on the republican side, said today that no conference had been held to date on the subject, but undoubtedly one would occur, perhaps tomorrow. All of the caucuses must be held within ten days, for that is only three days before the legislature was the time limit fixed by the Norris resolution for the election of the new committee

Of this committee , the republicans will choose six members and the democrats four. Whether the insurgents will be given representation among the six republican members is now unknown. They say they have not asked and do not care for membership on the new committee.

We do not wish to assume responsibility for legislation or to try to force ourselves on the house in that way," said one of their number. "It would not be just for us to do so."

Democratic Members,

The democrats will choose their four members in caucus and expect their selection will be ratified by the vote of the sible, that cells were being built in the house. Of these four, three are practically certain to be Minority Leader Champ Clark, to completely change the policy with re-Fitzerald of New York and Underwood of Alabama. The first two are members of and was told to keep away from Mitchellthe old committee and undoubtedly will ville. Then he resigned, be accorded similar honors on the new. There is a general demand among the democrafs that Underwood, who is Leader Clark's first lieutenant on the floor, should be given a place. To attempt to predict whom the republicans will select would be the merest speculation, Besides Speaker Cannon, Dalzell of Pennsylvania and Smith of Iowa are farmers generally regard Mr. Cownie as the republican members of the present rules committee. By the terms of the Norris resolution, Speaker Cannon is specifically diminated from the new committee. The democratic leaders said today that they expected no difficulty in having their selection for this co ntifing
