Well improved half section in Thomas

Several hundred people have come here to see me and to see my lands. I have made many sales, but many who have come have not bought for various reasons, but everyone I have tried to send home with that same good feeling of fellowship as those to whom I sold.

Now the advertising which I have done has brought in a good many "curb-stoners."

Most of my readers know what the "curb-stoner," but is in and tries to get acquainted by buttonholing the newcomer. He is a man who as no conception of honor and only works upon the plan—get the money. This kind of people will sell you a gumbo patch or a gravel bed and represent it to be first class soll. They usually mislead and beguile. They can do this for they have no future, in many instances, no past, and no reputation at stake. If they bke you good and strong they can itempt to see me and to see my lands. I have made many sales, but many who have come hade many sales, but many who have come have not bought for various reasons, but everyone I have tried to send home with that a me good feeling of fellowship as those to whom I sold.

They go to some other town and follow the wake of some man who has risked his money in advertising some good section and they "curb-stone" there upon his patrons the same as they have here

I beg to say that I am financially re-ponsible, and will back up to the last point any assertions which I may make to sponsible, and will back up to the last point any assertions which I may make to you.

When you come to Crawford to see me don't expect to find me on the street corresponding to you can find me on the street corresponding to you can find my piece of thing. I maintain an ortice and you can find my piece and the applying if you can find my piece and the applying if you can find my piece and the applying if you can find my piece and the applying if you can find my piece and the applying if you can find my piece and the applying if you can find my piece and the applying if you can find my piece and the applying if you can find my pieces at either bank or to any honest man. In fact, they will tell you anything and will commence feeling of you and rubbing down your feathers in the right direction for whom they are paid to steer.

I have no stearers but depend solely upon a good, straight, legitimate line of advertising and I want good straight, legitimate of experience, if you piease, who can get from the depot to my office without failing in the hands of these bunce men.

Up until the time I heralded abroad early in this rich section, there were no curbstone, nor bunce men and those who are my competitors today merely depended upon swinging a dead occasionally, and to meet you come to consideration, who is entitled to the opportunity and pleasure of showing you this want section? Is it I, who have put in my money in good, straight, legitimate advertising, will be very glad to meet you can to find the same and an invitation to those from whom I have not heard, to send me their mams and a request for my office and not expect to find me hanging around the depots and the street corners.

If you the can don't mix up or become captive to the curbstoner and depot loafer.

If you all the want grows a second hand clothings and will read my come to come to look at my lands, you must come to look at my land
