

Nebraska Land Grafters Sell Many Lots At Broken Bow Operations Smoothly Conducted, But They Fail to Get Away Before They Are Forced to Refund.

BROKEN BOW, Neb., March 29.—(Special.)—A number of people in town have added another notch to their eye teeth, while a couple of alleged grafters somewhere on the line are probably administering self-licks for not dropping out of sight at an earlier stage of the game.

They registered C. M. Lester and M. J. Hansen, Spokane, Wash., and they sold lots at $2 per acre for the South Waukesha Township company. Only every other lot was disposed of, the odd ones being reserved for the company.

The number of would-be purchasers in this city was nearly forty. How many Hansen succeeded in getting at Merina and other places is not known at present. After looking into the case County Attorney Gadd decided, inasmuch as the money had been refunded and the men refused to sell more than $30 worth of lots to one party in the county, thus keeping within the bounds of petty larceny, not to put the county to the expense of a trial.

Coroner's Jury Unable to Solve Kaderia's Case

KEARNEY, Neb., March 29.—(Special Telegram.)—After a session of five hours, hearing testimony in the August Kaderia murder case, the coroner's jury brought in a verdict that he met death by two gunshot wounds inflicted either by himself or by some party unknown to the jury.

Kaderia's body was found lying in a field north of Riverdale last Friday. He had been missing for fifteen days and no effort was made by his relatives to locate him. There was no blood on the grass where Kaderia lay, Kaderia generally carried some money with him and two or three rare foreign coins. His pockets were empty when the body was taken charge of by the sheriff.

Beautiful Hair Comes With Dry Shampooing (From Woman's National Journal)

Dry shampooing always has been and always will be popular with the woman who takes pride in long, abundant and glossy hair. The dry shampoo does away with so much of the inconvenience and bother accompanying washing the hair—eliminates the long drying hours and abolishes the danger of catching cold—indeed, it is so all-around satisfactory, that one wonders why soap and water, eggs, etc. can find any followers whatever.

Nebraska Horsethief Taken 150 Miles Away From Theft's Scene Silver Creek Marshal Arrests Charles Bowers for Stealing Team from Iowa Farmer.

SILVER CREEK, Neb., March 29.—(Special Telegram.)—Charles Bowers, a young man supposed to have been living since his birth, north of Columbus, Platte county, was arrested here today by Marshal Lucas on advice from Sheriff Iler of Merrick county. He was charged with having in his possession a team of bay horses that did not belong to him.

When Marshal Lucas arrested him he made a dive for the wagon, but did not succeed in reaching it. When the wagon was searched a .33 caliber, 5-inch Colt revolver was found under the seat. Also a bottle of strychnine was found. People in Silver Creek had read with interest the story of a score of the country by Deputy Sheriff Thomas and Detective Devreese of the Omaha police force in search of a man alleged to have stolen a team from John P. Peterson of Honey Creek, Ia., described to be a bay team, one the two white feet and the other with four white feet.

BOY DROWNED AT BOSTWICK Little 4-Year-Old Clarence Filley Falls In Cistern—Dead When Taken Out. SUPERIOR, Neb., March 29.—(Special.)—Saturday evening while at play in the yard of a neighbor family, Clarence Filley, the 4-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Filley, station agent for the Burlington at Bostwick, a small station a few miles west of Superior, fell into the cistern. He was rescued by Mr. Phillips, but before medical aid reached his life was extinct. It is thought he was killed by the fall as a cross bar was left in the cistern and it is more than likely that his head struck this when he fell. The body was taken to Auburn, Neb., this morning for burial.

Two Tickets at Central City. CENTRAL CITY, Neb., March 29.—(Special.)—After all of the attempts at harmony there will be two tickets on the ballot for the regular spring election next Tuesday. At first there was an attempt to put up a compromise ticket and the committee of the anti-saloon and square deal parties called a joint caucus and with a large representation of both parties present a harmony ticket was put up. Later there was some dissatisfaction expressed and a new ticket was put in the field under the name of the Independent party. Part of the union party ticket was endorsed by the Independents, but for the office of mayor M. G. Merrill was nominated to oppose George E. Schiller on the union ticket. J. Cover, William Smith and J. R. Ratcliff were nominated to oppose Charles Eatsough, O. D. Burke and G. C. Agnew for councilmen, respectively. In the First, Second and Third wards, Dr. E. E. Boyd was nominated to oppose William McCullough for member of the school board. The saloon is not an issue in Central City, as the anti-saloon sentiment is overwhelming here and the question is no longer brought up.

Affairs at South Omaha Democrats Keep Away From Council, Retarding Business. FEAR NEW ELECTION OFFICERS Republicans Gaining Ground Steadily and Prospects Are Bright for Victory—Mrs. Johanna Gillita Dead.

Panic struck the democratic councilmen last night and frightened them away from the session. The democrats have been treated to two heavy body blows by the republican side of the council and were fearful of a repeated attack last night. They got the idea that the mayor was to appoint two more members of the boards of election in each precinct to conduct the school election, and rather than submit to that humiliation, they stayed away entirely to break the quorum so that the council could transact no business. This action, while it caused much unnecessary delay on important matters of the city government, amused the republicans greatly, for the mayor had no such intention. It is true that the school board ticket is to be on a separate ballot from the city ticket and that the opinion of one attorney holds that an additional judge and clerk be appointed, but the extra judges are not necessary. The republicans have not yet decided that such action is necessary and are willing to let the matter pass. If they must be appointed the election boards can swear them in on election day from the freeholders present at the opening of the polls.

Procession Started. The procession, which has been forming in South Omaha, started last night in a routing meeting of the republicans held at Hannigan's hall. Thirty-ninth and Q streets. Procession is a good word, for it is apparent with each meeting that the republican ticket is to be accomplished in the attempt to attack a democratic or raising an issue on speculation or falsehood the republicans have been winning by giving a straight-forward campaign by methods above reproach. The candidates stuck entirely to their own territory last night and spoke on the specific things which they expected to accomplish in the event of a successful campaign. Most of the candidates were there. Everyone was rejoiced at the apparent strength of the republican leaders. A prominent man in city affairs said yesterday that he believed two weeks ago that the democrats would win, but he had changed his mind and now held it a fact that they would have to work hard to save any of the ticket.

Registration Returns. The city clerk gave a report of a canvass of the registrations last night which showed that the First precinct of the Fourth ward and the Second precinct of the Sixth ward had failed to designate the party affiliations, but an estimate of the missing precincts showed that the democratic registration had gained about eighty for the day. The canvass showed that 1,266 persons were enrolled, which brings the total registration up to 4,940. Of this number approximately 4,400 registered democratic and 2,283 republican. There are about 100 scattering votes. The votes sworn in on election day will probably counterbalance the shrinkage from the registration so that the vote of the municipal election will probably be not more than 5,000.

The city clerk, J. J. Gillin, democratic nominee for city treasurer, refused to allow the mayor's stenographer to copy the pollbook record yesterday, which is considered a very unusual proceeding. The present mayor is republican, of course. The stenographer would be interested in delving such an examination as the republican propose. The clerk gave as his excuse that he had not yet checked up the books in his office; but there was nothing to hinder his releasing the books of a precinct as soon as finished. He will probably release them to the members of the Shamrock Ring contest.

Shamrock Ring Contest. The Shamrock Athletic club ring contest closes Wednesday night and the candidates are very eager and expectant. At last reports three candidates were very close together and each had a very credible showing. The contest will be a grand ball Wednesday evening at the club. The contest and the winner will be announced at a dance and program. Several speakers of prominence will be heard. Several announcements have been made of the standing of the contestants, but no more are to be made.

Roumanian Handy With Stein. John Domu, a Roumanian, hit Joseph Bender with a heavy glass beer stein last night and cut a severe gash in the German's forehead, from which he lost a great quantity of blood and which would require three stitches. Another cut was found near the left eye, but it was not serious. Dr. John Koutsky attended the man at the city jail. Domu was arrested and will probably have some damages to pay, as in addition to hitting Bender, he threw two glasses through the plate glass of the saloon from which the row occurred at Twenty-sixth and P streets. The quarrel arose over a disputed pay check.

Mrs. Johanna Gillin. Mrs. Johanna Gillin, wife of Edward Gillin, died at 9:40 last night at the residence, 119 North Thirty-ninth avenue. Mrs. Gillin was mother of J. J. Gillin, the city clerk. She had been ill ever since the death of her little grand daughter about three weeks ago. The child died in spasms after several hours and in her efforts to save the child she overexerted herself and the result was an attack of pneumonia. She was apparently on the way to safe recovery last night and up to within a few moments of her death seemed better than usual. The doctor in charge was greatly surprised at the unexpected turn for the worse. The funeral will probably be arranged today. Edward Gillin was made a member of the Omaha before it was a town at all and were among the earlier pioneers. C. L. U. Defends Trainmen. The South Omaha Central Labor Union has taken decided action on a certain aspersion cast on the American Federation of Labor by a daily paper which referred to Union No. 7112 unfavorably. Central Labor Union also defended James Kotera in his defense of P. J. Trainor from the unwarranted charge of being unfriendly to labor and having worked in the place of union men. The following is the text of the resolution in full as adopted: SOUTH OMAHA, Neb., March 29, 1910. RESOLUTION Whereas, In the issue of the World-Herald of March 22, an item appeared wherein a delegate of Central Labor Union at South Omaha was made to say among other things, that Federal Labor Union No. 7112 is a political organization and that its members are ones constituting the working men's political club, therefore, Be it Resolved by the delegates of Central Labor Union in regular meeting assembled that we call upon the World-Herald to make known through its columns the name of the delegate making such charges, and Be it Further Resolved, That we brand said accusation as false, untrue, unwarrantable and untrue to the members of Federal Labor Union No. 7112, and Be it Further Resolved, That we, the Central Labor Union do hereby endorse James Kotera, organizer of the American Federation of Labor, in his just and righteous defense of Mr. Trainor. PREAMBLE COMMITTEE CENTRAL LABOR UNION. Magic City Goals. Edgar Kiddoo is suffering from an attack of typhoid fever. Mrs. Neils Turnquist was reported ill last night, but it is not considered dangerous. David Anderson has been appointed a delegate by the chairman of the State Historical society to meet with a number of other delegates to be selected Thursday.

Herein is a big heating lesson

Many attractive-looking buildings offered for sale or to rent will not bear basement investigation. Shrewd buyers and renters now-a-days make it their first step of investigation to lay bare the basement secret: "It's a cold house—no wonder the cut price!" A poorly heated house is shunned as if it were haunted, whereas houses warmed by

are eagerly sought because no house is really worth living in unless the temperature in all rooms can be absolutely controlled in all kinds of weather; and they bring freedom from the back-breaking work, ash-dust and poisonous coal-gases which attend the use of cheap heating devices. You have noticed that the first question asked in buying or renting is: "How is it heated?" This is because it has come to be recognized as most important. Please note the serene satisfaction and the convincing air of the real estate agents who answer: "The building is perfectly warmed by an IDEAL Boiler and AMERICAN Radiators." All real estate dealers will tell you that "IDEAL Boilers and AMERICAN Radiators will attract and hold best tenants at 10% to 15% higher rental; or property sells quicker and owner gets back the full cost of the heating outfit. Money put into these outfits is therefore an investment—not an expense. They have imitators, but decidedly no equal."

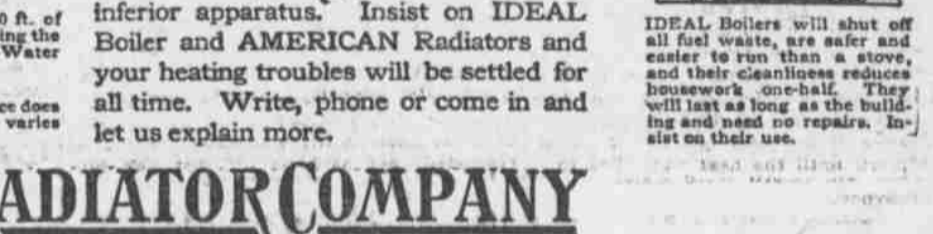

A No. 2-19 IDEAL Boiler and 315 ft. of 38-in. AMERICAN Radiators, costing the owner $150, were used to Hot-Water heat this cottage. A No. 2-22 IDEAL Boiler and 400 ft. of 38-in. AMERICAN Radiators, costing the owner $195, were used to Hot-Water heat this cottage.

At these prices the goods can be bought of any reputable, competent fitter. Price does not include cost of labor, pipe, valves, freight, etc., which installation is extra and varies according to climatic and other conditions.

"Otherwise the house is a bargain."

Quickly put into old or new cottages, houses, flats, stores, schools, churches, etc. Prices now usually rule the lowest of the year—and in these less hurried months you get the services of the quickest, most skillful fitters. Ask for free, valuable catalog—it will save you many heating dollars. Accept no substitute—risk no money to try any imitations or inferior apparatus. Insist on IDEAL Boiler and AMERICAN Radiators and your heating troubles will be settled for all time. Write, phone or come in and let us explain more.
