Democratic Plan Will Cost Proposed West L. Car Line.

PLATFORM IS MENACE TO CITY

Members Refuse to Attend Council Meeting and Give Awe Attitude on Street Line Contract.

"Will West L. Street lose its proposed car line?"

This possibility is probable with the election of a democratic administration which has an avowed platform requiring the repeal of the present contract ordinance inuring the extension and requiring the imposition of an occupation tax. The people of the Fifth ward are awake to the effect of an occupation tax, for that question was discussed many times last fall at their meetings.

Since the democrats promised to undo all

IS TRAIOR ON THE SQUARE?

Question Answered Affirmatively by South Omaha Union Men.

HIS RECORD AS A WORKINGMAN

His Card is Clean and his Voice and Purse Have Always Been Employed in the Cause of Organized Labor.

SOUTH OMAHA, March 30.—To the Editor of The Bee: In a recent issue of the Omaha World-Herald appeared under the heading of "The Brawny Union Man" an article which was intended to bring discredit down upon the heads of men who are beyond reproach. It says in part:

"Now, that article is a mere assertion and is not backed by proofs. I, for one, want to know where the Brawny Union Man was during the famous packing house strike. The writer of that letter was not a resident of the city at the time of the strike. He is a man who is unable to state. Coming to more modern history, I want to know wherein the Brawny Union Man betrayed labor by voting as he did as a county commissioner during the recent street car strike."

The writer of that public letter takes it upon himself to vindicate Mr. Traitor, and uses his official title in doing so. One thing is certain, and that is, the letter may speak for itself, but he does not speak for the central labor union, or any genuine trades union. The union known as the Federal Labor Union, No. 7112 is a political organization, whose members hold political jobs, and which was organized for political purposes. And as such, it is looked down upon by the real trades unions. It is the organization which now travels under the name of the Workingmen's Independent Political Club, and endorses the republican ticket. Its members for the most part are holding down jobs given the republican administration and are now being whipped into line by Mr. Traitor.

Facts About Queenan.

The above should have been signed by a "Brawny Union Man" whom we believe to be very close to Mr. Traitor, and who does not take it upon himself to improve any of the facts given out as respects Mr. Queenan other than the following:

William H. Queenan, democratic candidate for mayor, does not have to defend his attitude toward organized labor, or at any other time. He is a laboring man himself, has always employed union labor and has extended a helping hand to labor whenever the opportunity afforded.

We wonder if this "brawny union man" will insist upon the fact that Mr. Queenan has extended a helping hand to labor whenever the opportunity afforded.

We have investigated the records and find that Mr. Queenan gave the contract for building his residence at 1213 North Twenty-fifth street to an employer of unfair carpenters by the name of Nystrom, the plumbing to Thompson & Co., then on the unfair list, the painting to Gus Burden, an unfair painter, who daubed paint on the walls to such an extent that it became necessary to paper the walls, that he originally intended to remain white. The only union man who drove a nail or did an hour's work in the construction of that structure was an Omaha firm under the caption of John Rowe & Co. Mr. Queenan, you will note, did not give any work to South Omaha union labor, but employed the only union labor that was used on the building in Omaha. Now what say you, "Mr. Brawny Union Man?"

"Mr. Brawny Union Man" will further note that, as organizer of the American Federation of Labor, Mr. Kotera does not act under instructions from the Central Labor Union, but does work under the instructions of the American Federation of Labor and those instructions are to refute false statements made against local unions, and to help any and all unions, and he is simply acting under those instructions. Mr. Kotera has been a resident of South Omaha for the last twenty-five years and was a resident of South Omaha during the famous packing house strike, and he knows, as we know, that Mr. Traitor was a member of local packers' union No. 33 and marched in the demonstration parade through the streets of South Omaha with that union and local union No. 72 along with Jake Davis and a thousand other good union men.

Frank Hart's Statement

The following are extracts from a letter published in the World-Herald by a man whom we know to be a good, fair-minded, honest union man, and as it appears here, you will find expresses the opinion of the biggest majority of South Omaha union men.

A LETTER

SOUTH OMAHA, March 28.—To the Editor of the World-Herald: I am glad to see that your article in Saturday evening's paper in which you interviewed a union man, who is a member of the Central Labor Union, but hasn't the nerve to give his name.

This union man who is afraid to give his name is a political organization, and one would naturally infer that Mr. Kotera was a member of it, and that he is not, as Mr. Kotera is a journeyman barber, I want to say that there are some of the fairest and squarest men in this city, and that I believe any union man in South Omaha can vote for Mr. Traitor with a clear conscience, and if any more union men are interviewed I think they should have their names used.

FRANK H. HART.

24 North Twelfth Street.

Mr. Hart has been a resident of South Omaha for years and is a respected citizen and property owner. Mr. Hart is secretary of the State Federation of Labor and was recording secretary of the Central Labor Union during the recent street car strike and was a member of the committee on arrangements for the meetings as follows: at which meeting Mr. Traitor spoke in behalf of the striking street car men.

Trainer and Street Car Men.

The meetings were as follows: A meeting held at the Labor Temple on Tuesday evening, October 12, with Thomas Conway as chairman and the speakers as follows: P. J. Traitor, P. C. Caldwell, O. C. Pratt, international organizer of the street car men; Ben Commons, also an organizer, and John Lynn, then secretary-treasurer.

Another meeting held on the vacant lot along side the Packers' bank at Twenty-fourth and O streets on Tuesday evening, October 25, at which Thomas Conway was chairman and the speakers as follows: O. C. Pratt and Ben Commons, organizers; Patrick Ford, president of the Omaha Central Labor Union; Rev. Fisher of Omaha and P. C. Caldwell and P. J. Traitor, who were prepared to speak, but did not because of the lateness of the hour.

Another meeting held at the Labor Temple on Tuesday evening, October 25, at which the speakers were as follows: Judge A. L. Sutton, P. J. Traitor, Rev. Fisher, P. J. Leithan, E. I. Morrow, P. C. Caldwell, Ben Commons.

meetings, said in part: "Use judgment in all things, don't molest property if it can be avoided, but stand pat and stand together. A strike is a terrible thing, and should be avoided where possible, but when once a strike is declared, stand by your colors, for who will better your conditions if you don't help yourselves?"

Other Work of Traitor.

Mr. Traitor was interviewed in behalf of the street car strikers by a committee from the South Omaha Central Labor Union in regard to cost of holding these meetings. He was told by this committee that the union was getting short of funds and asked his advice. Mr. Traitor said: "Go order your printing done and rent your halls, and if then you can't pay the bills send them to me." Mr. Traitor again showed where he stood with regard to unions and the working classes. We regret to say, however, that Mr. Traitor was not given the opportunity to make good his promise, for John H. Van Wia, republican candidate for councilman, furnished the printing, and, as any union man will admit, waited until the money was on hand to pay the bill. He also printed 50,000 cards bearing the inscriptions, "Walk and Show Your Colors," "I Love to Walk, but Oh! You Street Car!" and a number of others for which he did not charge a cent. He also printed a circular called the "Dying Seab" for which he received no compensation, and numerous other jobs of a like nature to help the boys.

Mr. "Brawny Union Man" further stated: "I want to know wherein Mr. Traitor betrayed labor by voting as he did as a county commissioner during the recent street car strike?"

If Mr. "Brawny Union Man" will look over the records he will find that Mr. Traitor did just what he promised to do under the circumstances.

As sheriff Mr. Bralley has the power to appoint deputies and that he did during the strike, but as commissioner Mr. Traitor had to vote to pay them and his only recourse was to cut down the bill if it seemed too high, and this he did.

Mr. "Brawny Union Man" if you would sign your name to the articles you take it upon yourself to give to the Daily Slander, we might, possibly, find your sore place on the payroll of the sheriff's deputies, who know: We, the undersigned, have read the above through thoroughly and we each and severally have looked up the records or were directly connected with instances of record mentioned and hereby place our hands as evidence of its approval.

W. M. CONWAY, President American Federation of Labor Local Council No. 7112.
WILLIAM H. McDERMOTT, 223 North Twentieth Street, Local No. 7112.
JOHN STEVENS, Former Secretary of Local No. 10, C. I. U.
DAN DONOVAN, Member Electrical Workers' Union.
C. H. VAN WIE, Member Omaha Typographical Union No. 129.
JOHN LYNN, 223 O Street.
GEORGE STEVENS, President Stationery Printers' Union.

All Active Union Men.

The men whose names are signed above are all union men and old-timers and are in a position to know. William McDermott was employed by Mr. Traitor and was personally acquainted with him and a member of the same union, Local No. 33, and marched in the demonstration parade. Dan Donovan was a member of the Electrical Workers' union and employed by the same company and a neighbor and friend of Mr. Traitor. Thomas M. Conway, president of Federal union No. 7112, was president of the Central Labor union during the street car strike and also a member of the committee on arrangements at that time, and Mr. Conway's standing as a union man is undisputed. George Stevens was vice president of the Central Labor union during the controversy and was also a member of the committee on arrangements at the time and an old war horse of organized labor and can always be depended on. John Lynn was secretary-treasurer and handled all bills and was a member of the arrangement committee and has been a labor leader in South Omaha for the last ten years. John Stevens is a member of the Cooper's International union No. 10 and is one of the few who accompanied the above named committee and James Kotera in their walks between Omaha and South Omaha during the strike, and in which walks P. J. Traitor also accompanied them a number of times, in their efforts to assist the strikers and they are all active union men and promoters and no man can dispute their word and they all say that the above is a correct record.

Action on Message Near Close of Term May be Erased from Records of Congress.

WASHINGTON, March 31.—Representative Bennett of New York took steps yesterday to have erased from the records of the house one of the severest rebukes ever administered to a president by congressional action. He introduced a resolution to expunge the report of the special committee, of which the late Representative Perkins was chairman, which caused to be laid on the table of one of President Roosevelt's messages relating to the secret service.

The message was interpreted as containing direct reflections upon the integrity of the members of the house in that the former president defended his action in using secret agents to ferret out the acts of certain house members. The Bennett resolution was sent to the committee on rules.

By some members the effort to expunge from the record the action of the house in tabling the president's utterances on this subject is taken as an indication that republicans of New York state are planning to rally under the leadership of Colonel Roosevelt as soon as he returns.

Steamship Pool To be Prosecuted

WASHINGTON, March 31.—Suit in equity under the Sherman anti-trust law is to be instituted by the department of justice against the so-called European steamship pool on the contention that it is an arrangement in restraint of trade. The fact that the vessels owned by the steamship companies forming the pool, or a number of them, touch at American ports, is the basis for proceedings against them under the Sherman law as that enactment gives the government jurisdiction to punish violations of law affecting both interstate and foreign commerce. All the steamship companies involved in the proposed proceedings are foreign organizations.

A federal grand jury investigation at New York, it is said, developed the fact that the pooling arrangement embraced the transportation of both passengers and freight. On the American side of the Atlantic it was said that the arrangement had its ramifications in the shape of rebating by railroad companies.

The investigation is said to have developed a case embracing the whole service of the immigration traffic from every country in Europe. The operation of the pool, it was charged, seriously interfered with the work of American steamers lying at American ports awaiting cargo, the foreigners under-bidding them and getting the traffic.

It was several hours before he was discovered by neighbors and released from the closet.

River Men Go To Pierre Meet

Session Delayed by Bad Weather Finally Under Way with Good Attendance.

William A. Campbell of Omaha today compared "Soo" canal rates with Dakota freight rates and places the costs of carriage of freight by water at one-twentieth of the Dakota rail cost.

NEW YORK POLICE STUNNED

"Mayor Gaynor's Order a Hard One on the Graters," Declares Magistrate House.

NEW YORK, March 31.—Mayor Gaynor has dealt what is commonly called the police system the severest blow it has received in years, said Magistrate House today. "It has been common knowledge that the liquor interests were paying for police protection and this was one of the richest sources of income, received by certain police officials."

The magistrate was commenting on the mayor's letter of last night, practically forbidding police to make arrests for liquor law violations and putting the matter up to the state excise department and the district attorney's office.
