MAY WIFE SEARCH POCKETS?

Important Question as to Rights of Wife Arises in Hutten Divorce Trial.
The right of a wife to go through her husband's pockets and extract therefrom small change or better—came into the Hutten divorce contest Friday when Dr. Jess Howard Hutten asserted that Mrs. Grace Hutten had practiced this time-honored custom.
Mrs. Hutten, he thought, has amassed $25 or $30 by this means until the colored physician began to "hide his money at night."
Hutten declared on the stand that he had never accused his wife of being unfaithful to him and did "not now think so."
Mrs. Hutten tells a different tale, saying that her husband several times made this accusation to her face, naming an Abyssinian minister who was a guest at the Hutten home at one time.
The excruciating pains from corns or bunions may be avoided by applying Chamberlain's Liniment.

WORKS WHILE SUING HIS BOSS

Employee of James Black Company Stays on Job, Though Fighting Employer.
There are few contractors who will permit an employee suing them to remain at work, but the James Black company, which is building the City National Bank building, is an exception.
Fred Schaefer, a steel worker, is now plaintiff in district court for $500, alleging this is due because a steel beam dropped on his right foot. Schaefer returned to work when his injuries permitted and stayed as long as other steel workers, although it was known that he intended bringing suit. There are one or two other workmen for the Black company who have small suits on who have not been troubled as to their jobs merely because they are suing their employer.
Suits Settled Here.
Can be obtained by the case from Charles Storz, next door north of Storz Brewery. Prompt delivery to private family trade. Same prices as formerly. 'Phons Webster 1306, Ind. 2-1281.

You good citizen

Enlist today with Omaha's best boosters.
You want to see Omaha grow and prosper—that goes without saying, but did you ever stop to think of the things that are necessary to growth and prosperity?
Did it ever occur to you that no matter how many advantages and superiorities a city may possess they alone cannot advance her interests greatly? That these advantages and superiorities must be made known—advertised, if you please—to those who will appreciate their importance and then act accordingly?
Many things contribute to such advertising, and none is more important than expositions and conventions. But the most valuable convention from this viewpoint ever held in Omaha will be that of the Associated Advertising Clubs of America, secured for this city by the Omaha Ad Club.
Your help is needed to help the Omaha Ad club to handle this convention in a manner productive of the greatest good for Omaha. The club ought to have a membership of not less than one thousand boosters for Omaha.
Will you be one of one thousand to join this week?
You will if you want to see maximum growth and prosperity in Omaha.
All you need do is to make immediate use of this coupon.

It's the live fish that swim upstream, and it's live men that make a city.
