Some Things You Want to Know

Grand Opera.

When the wonderful notes of Tetrazzini's voice echoed through the Manhattan Opera house to the strains of Lucie H. Lamoureux's "Il Trovatore" last Saturday night, another memorable opera season came to an end in America.

There are many schools of opera and the rivalry among them often becomes very acrimonious. During the past season there has been much bickering about the alleged discrimination against the German or Wagnerian school at the Metropolitan Opera house.

New York prides itself upon being the center of operatic appreciation in America, and the source from which has sprung a national love for dramatic music.

Opera management and opera composition are not nearly so lucrative as opera singing. The Metropolitan Opera company each year has a big deficit which is made up by the millionaire directors.

Longest of Election Days. May 1 to 14 for Governor of Wisconsin Memorial Bazaar Will Be the Occasion.

MADE JEFF DAVIS CAPTIVE AND WINS HIS OWN FREEDOM. Civil War Hero Gets Off Easy in Seattle When Arrested for "Boatlegging."

SEATTLE, Wash., April 1.—Because his discharge from the army shows that he was one of the two men who captured Jefferson Davis in Savannah, Ga., forty-five years ago, Jost Wolen, aged 79 years, was released from the city jail early today on suspended sentence.

DR. LUMSDEN THINKS BEST TO MOVE THE INTAKE PIPE. Believes Better Water Could Be Secured to Extend Florence Means of Supply.

DR. LEON L. LUMSDEN, investigating the Omaha water supply, visited the county hospital as part of his plan of investigation. He is impressing the local officials with the fact that when one of Uncle Sam's public service experts is put on a job he goes plumb to the bottom of the trouble.

DR. LUMSDEN HAS INTIMATED THAT HE MIGHT help to secure better water for Omaha if the Florence intake pipe were extended to point above where Mill creek empties into the Missouri river.
