We have had many requests to continue our Auction Another Week, also the contractors advised us yesterday that the material for our new Innovation front cannot be completed for another week. therefore this wonderful opportunity to buy from the choicest jewelry stock in the city at your own price will be given Omaha people for one more week, but positively and absolutely no longer than then. The wonderful values leaving our store every day is just being realized by thousands of people and our genial auctioneer, Mr. Hart, acceeding to the demands of his many, pleased patrons has consented to remain another week if the interest in the auction contines as at present, so whatever you may want him to sell you must buy this week.
