We say by all means buy land!

Don't wait.

Some tempting offers are made in the Farm and Ranch columns of The Bee.

You can acquire it on liberal terms

Every young man should be a land owner.

Buy it now! The day may come when there will be no bargains in land " offered. Read the land ads in today's Bee. Don't hesitate. Do it!

Wouldn't you be rich today if you had

The Bee can give information about all of the land listed in its columns bought land ten years ago?

There is no possible way for you ever to regret it.

The Bee is the leading real estate paper of the west.

Destand were the second were the

April Magazines

Scribner's for April contains Mr. Roose- with a romance by Mrs. John Van Vorst Three States to the Union." velt's seventh article, "Hunting in the entitled "Her Italian Prince." Baronses Sotik," and three interesting personalities Von Hutten contributes a short story, "The music, painting and drama are the sub. Portrait of a Parson," and among other s of separate articles. President Prit- stories are "Through Hoops of Fire," by

Evolution of College Base Ball" and Morrison; "The Confidante," by Elizabeth sins her life story. Other features in this in Arcadia." by Marie Conway Oemler. Grier Hibben, the psychologist, has Maury Coombs; "Jenkins of the Appleby issue are "The Impending Roosevelt," by discussion on "Responsibility." In fic- Scimitar," by Will Levington Comfort, and Ruy Stannard Baker, and "The Spring tion are short stories by Arthur Train. "The Rise of Genevieve," by Stanley Olm. Training," by Hugh S. Fullerton, the noted Martha Haskell Clark, Charles Hanson Frederick Palmer and Carter Goodloe. sted.

St. Nicholas for April contains "The In the April Century Robert Hickens writes of his journey "From Damascus to Pocket Compass," the tale of a brave boy's Nazareth" and Charles R. Miller, editor of herolem; "In the Little Old Leather the New York Times, presents some of Trunk," the story of how a bright girl's paper by Ernest D. Burton on "Educa- of life contribute. his conclusions on socialism. Jacob Blis cleverness lifted her grandmother's burd. tion, Old and New, in China," and an arcontributes an article on "The People's eva; "The Secret Telegram." another of ticle by Samuel A. Harper on "Industrial sling question of the woman on the farm. Institute of New York." and there is also | The Young Railroaders' Series." "Betty's Reform in Illinois." Among other articles Rheis Childe Dorr handles the church proban article on "The Return of Halley's Practical Joke," ast." The number contains much beauti- Doer." a very funny story of two little ture." by Norman Kittrell; "Washington, tion is by Zona Gale, Richard Washburn art and the usual amount of clever girls for girls big and little-besides the an American Versailles," by Waldon Faw- Child, Grace MacGowan Cooks, and a new serials. d interesting fiction.

The April Harper's contains an article by April Everybody's opens with an article War in the West," by Harold Lane. Dr. Huntington of Yale university on on "Sanity and Democracy for American "Across the Ghor to the Land of Og." Cities." by Charles Edward Russell, and which is illustrated with photographs and there is an article on wild animal photoa map, and Prof. Oscar Hecker contributes graphing in Africa, while Judge Lindsey an article on "Tides in the Solid Earth," continues his story of political corruption. while Madox Hueffer writes interestingly There are a number of clever and humorof "Pre-Raphaelite Painters and Writers." ous short stories, several poems and the In fiction there are a number of good short usual review of new books stories and an interesting serial.

Country Life for April has an article by This month's issue of the Atlantic opens David Rankin on "How I Made Three Milwith a discussion of "Waterways and lions Growing Corn," and the first article Railways" by Logan G. McPherson, and on "Successful American Gardens" begins nother topic appealing to Americans is the in this issue. There are a number of illusussion of rising prices by W. Martin trated articles and the usual departments. Marion Hamilton Carter: "Follies in Crimi-

Swift. Among the other articles are "The Religion of the Present" by Dr. George A. Hampton's for April contains an article

tion."

the discovery of the north pole and an Heretic," by Seumas McManus. The April number of Lippincott's opens article by John L. Mathews on "Adding

In the American Magazine for April, Jane evitable," and among the short stories are Addams, the founder of Hull House in "The Philandering of Penruddocke," by G. Chicage, the most extensive and important C. Harvey: "The Perfection of a Scounof the Carnegie Foundation writes of Grace MacGowan Cooke and Caroline Wood social settlement in the United States, be- drel." by Frederic Irving, and "L Too, > Theodogia Garrison, Clinton Dangerfield, base ball expert. The fiction is contributed Towne and others. by Lincoln Colcord, Barton Wood Currie, Harris Dickson and others. discussion on "The Rising Cost of Living." The World Today for April contains a in which men representing different walks

"The Little Giri Next are: "Texas: Her Past, Present and Fur lem in "The Institutional Church." The ficcett: "The Traction Situation in Chicago," serial, "The Unforeseen," is begun by Mary by Charles A. Livingston, and "The Freight Stewart Cutting. The early summer fashtons are set forth attractively.

The Columbian magazine for April opens with a statement as to the recent and issues of the Youth's Companion are two pending changes in the Nevy department. In the "industrial danger" series which cer-An article on "The Corner in Food" shows tainly afford the reader the sensation of the prolonged effects of cold storage dreadful suspense as few stories do. Par-There is a very readable article on "Oper- ticularly is this true of the one entitled atic Actors." two serials, a number of bright short stories and some good poetry. Dingwall, whose recent story in the Com-McOlure's for April shows "Some Modern Ideas on Food." by Burton J. Hendrick; "Preventable of Blindness," by nal Procedure." by Charles B. BSewer, and "What Whisky Is." by H. Parker Willis.

Gordon, a paper on "Irish Fairies" by by the editor on "The Vast Riches of Among the short stories are "The Purple garah N. Cleghorn and the two historical Alaska," and Charles Edward Russell has Stockings," by Edwin Sallsbury Field: "Liberty satin, charmeuse and silk voile, with richly embruidered tuile as trimming."

serials. "The Battle of the Wilderness" a story of the Central and Southern Pa- | "For the Sake of Her Children." by Oc- are the materials most in use for evening and Gideon Welles' "Diary of Reconstrue- cific railways. There is another install- tavia Roberts: "At Brady's." by Mary gowns. Nearly all the dinner gowns of the season ment of Commander Peary's narrative of Heaton Vorse, and "The Curse of the have tunics.

Heretic," by Seumas McManus. The April Smart Set has a new story by Mabel Herbert Urner. "The Price In-gown of beads in different tones.

The combination of bright blue and black is one frequently seen, the vivid tone being used for foundation or tunic at the whim or to sult the complexion of the wearer

For the spring motoring trip a dust coat of mercerized cotton is a splendid invest-ment, and an inexpensive one as well. These coats come in drab and cream There are also verses and sketches by

The Delineator for April opens with a

There is a new French grass used as a hat trimming which can only be described as resembling feathers. It comes in all sorts of colorings to correspond with the tone of the hat. "The American Farmer's Wife-Her Problem." helps solve the pus-

Among the stories contributed to the April

Ways pretty. One designer will tell you that all hats are turned up directly in the middle of the front; another that they must turn up squarely in the back; a third that a sharp upward turn at the side is essen-tial; a fourth that the broad-brimmed sallor rolling up all the way around is the most favored of all the spring models. Among the lot it is asfe to predict that somewhere and somehow the models hat will flare up instead of drooping down. "Larsen's Caryatid Act." It is by C. E. panion of "The Derrick and the Wind" held the reader breathless, almost persuaded that he was notually viewing the peril of the man in the air. This new story is likewise of a derrickman, placed in a singular situation of frightful danger

Leaves From Fashion's Notebook.

Hats with crowns buried in a mass of flowers and very broad brims of straw are even more popular than the all-flower toques which are so spring-like and be-earning her own living in her native land. Miss Bessie A. Dwyer, who is at pres-ent employed in the library at Manila. wan one of the first women appointed to a place in the congressional library in Washington. It is said that because of Miss Dwyer's efficiency other women were appointed to responsible posts in the con-gressional library and later she was sent by the government to assist in establish-ing libraries in the Philippine islands. She is a graduate of the Woman's Law school of Washington. Gauge roses are the latest millinery con-ceit. The flowers are rather small and most of them are pink, the gauge giving a particularly soft color effect. The petals have raw edges and sometimes are ever so slightly frayed out.

a slightly frayed out. Alternate rows of lace and tucking is too old an arrangement to be completely dropped, and now that transparencies are so much in vogue this combination of lace and tuck is dainty and effective over a delicately tainted lining. All sorts of diagonal settings work out well with these stripes of lace and tucks, and although they are by no means new they are al-ways pretty. One designer will tell you that all hats During the Lenten season a number of

Chat About Women.

A woman as a police magistrate is Ber-lin. Germany, during the last year has proved a success. In October, 1968, Miss Margaret Ditimar was appointed to the police staff, and her record for one year shows that she had 604 cases to des

RELIGIOUS NOTES.

A memorial fountain is to be eracted in New York to the memory of Josephine Shaw Lowell, founder of the Womah's Municipal league, the league being inter-ested in it having accepted the design for the foundation. It will be erected in Cor-lears Hook park.

Miss Carrie E. Crane was the first city clerk appointed in Gloucester. Mass., under a new ordinance. She has been employed in the office of the city clerk for more than twenty-five years, and her recent appoint-ment was in recognition of long and faith-ful services and "for the best interest of the office." The late Rev. Dr. William M. Johnssa of Cohoes, N. T., inserted in his will a declaration of his unshaken loyalty to Presbyterianism and a direction for the immediate burning of all his manuscript sermons.

Rabbi Joshua Seigei, the leader of the Polish Hebrew Church of America, over-come with grief, feil dead two hours after pronouncing the funeral oration over the body of his boyhood friend, Abraham J. Lewis of Bayonne, N. J. "Miss Amy F. Ching of China has just entered Wellesley college and is going through a course that will equip her to become a teacher in her native land. Her friends point to her as a self-made girl. She supported herself while taking a course in the Normal school of Honolulu, for which she prepared herself while earning her own living in her native land. Miss Beasie A Duwer who is at pre-

For a term of three years the Very Rev. Dr. E. Gregory Fitzgerald, professor of ecripture and moral theology in the Do-minican seminary at Washington, has been selected prior of St. Vincent Ferrer's con-vent and paster of St. Vincent Ferrer's church in New Tork.

Mrs. Mary Bruen, mother of the Rev. J. de Hart Bruen, pastor of the First Pres-byterian church of Belvidere, N. J. 1s 84 years old and has spent seventy-two years of his life in teaching Sunday school. At present she has charge of a Bible class in her son's church.

George H. Curfield, one of the best known Sunday school workers in New Jersey, died of heart disease in Jersey City at the age of G. He began to attend Sunday school in the old Court House mission in Astoria. L. I., as a boy of 5 and seidom missed a session either as a pupil or a teacher until he suffered a physical breakdown last year.

The part of the lenten season a number of washington women, interested in the Newshington the state of the degran to attend Sunday school in the part online their charity money. The rink is paironized during this season only by the save tickets obtained from the stateng club and ladies serve tax. Miss Anna Barber, a native of Colorado from the interest the folls don't go to church and hades serve tax. Miss Anna Barber, a native of Colorado from the interest of the anterest of the did Court House mission in Astoria. The maximum club and ladies serve tax. Miss Anna Barber, a native of Colorado from the interest in the 'Egypt' end of lill-nois, where the folls don't go to church and never worship. The is hes nonnected with a London firm en-paratus. Soon after taking her degree as an achitest she determined to devote her buildings. The task now before her is did fuelt because the paises is exceedingly in-trice in the arrangement, containing sev-eral hundred halls and apartments.