ROME. April 5-Mr. Roosevelt was not his happiest mood today. His wish that the Vations audience incident be regarded as personal to him has not been respected, and he was intensely annoyed.

About the first thing the former president did today was to call off the reception to the members of the American comus, which had been set for tomorrow night. This action can be traced directly to the because yesterday of a statement by Rev. B. M. Tipple, postor of the American Methodist church, in which opportunity was taken for an arrack on the Roman church. Mr. Roosevelt does not propose to be used by any one to the disparagement

Rev. Mr. Tipple called on Mr. Roseveit yesterday afternoon and on his departure made public a statement, in which he lifted the Vatican episode out of the resim of the personal and gave it a world-wide signifi-

"Mr. Roosevelt has struck a blow for twentieth century Christianity," said Rev. Mr. Tipple, "The representatives of two great republics have been the ones to put the Vatican wiver it belongs * * * The Vatican is incompatible with republican principles.

"This is a bitter dose for patriotic Catholies in America to swallow. I wonder how many doses of this sort they will take before they revolt. Is Catholiciam in America to be American or Romish? If Romini, then every patriotic American should rise to crush it, for Roman Catholicism is the uncompromising for of freedom . . . The world advances, but the
