

YOUNG IS BACK ON PAYROLL

Veterinarian Makes Peace with the City Health Commissioner.

ROTHWELL STILL IN SUSPENSION

Pay of Inspector Hung Up Until City Council Can Determine Just What Is Due to Its Dignity.

Dr. George M. Young, city veterinarian and dairy inspector, will get his salary for March. He will also make regular reports hereafter to Health Commissioner Rothwell. The health commissioner, however, will be paid by the city and the two officials will work together for the betterment of the dairies supplying milk to Omaha.

Both Dr. Young and Mr. Rothwell appeared Monday afternoon before the council committee of the whole, with the result that council instructed the controller to place Dr. Young's salary on the roll for March. Commissioner Rothwell had left it off because the dairy inspector had not reported to him during the month. After the matter had been referred to the commissioner reported, explaining that he had not done so sooner because he had understood from something his superior officer said that the council was hereafter to be held responsible for the salaries.

J. S. McNALLY, Division Passenger Agent
14th and Farnam Streets, Omaha

Council's Power to Appoint.
The salary of Garbage Inspector Sam Rothwell is still held up pending a report from the city attorney as to whether or not the health commissioner must have his appointment confirmed by the council. Dr. Young maintains that the charter provides he does not have to submit the names for confirmation, that he has been doing so only through a spirit of courtesy, and that he awaits the opinion of the city attorney with confidence.

On this point Councilman Bridges, Funkhouser and Brucker and City Controller Loebeck rather took issue with Dr. Young. Mr. Brucker intimated the council would insist on its right to confirm, charter or no charter.

Property Line on Dodge.
A representative of the Union Pacific appeared to ask that council pass an ordinance legalizing the present building line on Dodge street. It seems the buildings on the north side of the street extend nine inches beyond the original lot line, and that on the south side the buildings are five inches inside the original lot line. The Union Pacific has existed for a long period of years, and before the Union Pacific will build its new structure it wishes to have the building line legalized. The council looks favorably on the proposition, which will be put up to the city attorney for final decision as to its power to do what is asked.

The committee denied a request for permission to make certain alterations and repairs to a frame store building at 220-12 Farnam street. Councilman McGovern said the property had been bought twenty-six years ago for $500 and sold recently for $15,000, and it is too valuable to be encumbered by frame shacks.

The ordinance introduced by Judge Berka providing for a higher grade of city water was laid over a week, to give the water company and others a hearing.

Police Department Relief.
The city was asked to give an opinion on the request of the Police Department Relief association for half of the fines that may be levied on second-hand dealers under the ordinance recently passed compelling them to secure a license.

Mrs. Edward Johnson, president of the Omaha Woman's club, and Mrs. J. W. Cherrington, chairman of the civics committee of the same club, appeared to ask council to pass an ordinance forbidding the use of firearms or fireworks in the city on July 4, unless in a public exhibition under control of some city department.

Mrs. Cherrington presented statistics showing that in seven years 34,000 persons have been killed, blinded, maimed or otherwise injured in the city of America by fireworks. Mrs. Johnson said the Woman's club has indorsed the proposed ordinance and prays the council to pass it. The ladies were given a vote of thanks and were assured the request will have careful attention.

One Conductor Who Was Cured.
Mr. W. W. Adams is his name, and he writes about it: "Some time ago I was confined to my bed with chronic rheumatism. I used two bottles of Foley's Kidney Remedy with good effect, and the third bottle put me on my feet and I resumed work as conductor on the Lexington, Ky., Street Railway. It gave me more relief than any medicine I have ever used, and it will do all you claim in cases of rheumatism." Foley's Kidney Remedy cures rheumatism by eliminating the uric acid from the blood. MRS. EMMA BYERS TO LEAVE

Secretary of Omaha Young Woman's Christian Association Will Go to Minneapolis.

Mrs. Emma Byers, who has been secretary of the local Young Women's Christian association for nine years, resigned her position and the resignation was accepted by the board of directors at a meeting held Monday afternoon. The resignation will take effect in July.

Mrs. Byers will take the position of field secretary for the district that includes the states of Minnesota, North and South Dakota, Iowa and Nebraska. Her headquarters will be in Minneapolis.

Who will succeed Mrs. Byers as local secretary is not known at this time, as her resignation was rather unexpected, she having made up her mind to accept the office of field secretary last week.

Mrs. Byers took charge of the work of the local organization in September, 1901, and since that time has been actively identified with the growth of the local association. When she took charge there were less than 1,000 members, but last week the number was valued at over 3,000, making Omaha's Young Women's Christian association second largest in the world.

The magnificent new building that houses the organization was erected under her regime. After subscriptions had been raised to the amount of $100,000.

SENATOR CONGER RESIGNS

New York Legislator Surrenders Office as Aftermath of Alldis Scandal.

"SITUATION INTENSELY DRAMATIC"

Accused Statesman Trembles as He Makes Final Speech and Expresses One Regret That He Has Not Denounced "the Gang."

ALBANY, N. Y., April 5.—Rising to a question of personal privilege in the senate tonight, Senator Ben Conger, after reading a statement in which he declared he fully realized that as a result of the Alldis bribery charge his usefulness as a legislator was at an end, handed his resignation to Lieutenant Governor White, a duplicate of which he later filed with the secretary of state.

With ashen face and trembling hand he read while his fellow senators listened with intense interest and when he had finished he sent his resignation to the desk and quickly left the chamber.

Mr. Conger read how at a private conference where the qualifications of ex-Senator Alldis for the position of republican leader of the senate were being considered he was asked to declare his position and replied that I would not and could not vote for him.

Conger then related how, later, ex-Senator Alldis, on the floor of the senate, denied the truth of Conger's statements and demanded an investigation.

"So, he added, 'the alternative was presented to me of becoming a liar and thereby remaining a member of this body in good standing, or speaking the truth and thereby materially injuring myself financially, politically and socially and bringing upon my family undesirable notoriety and sorrow. I determined that the only thing I could do and retain my own self respect was to speak the truth whatever the cost. That I have done and for your number by your votes have certified thereto.

"I do not seek to excuse, nor do I ask you or others to excuse the part which I took in the transaction of 1901. The one great and sorrowful regret of my brother was that he had submitted to the demand of the worst gang in the history of the senate to become a member of it. I regretted this and for it I have always been ashamed, and sincerely sorry was in standing by and permitting the thing to be done instead of then and there denouncing it.

"I am told," he continued, "that some of your number profess to feel that they cannot remain in the senate if I am here. . . .

"I have no desire to remain a member of this executive body if my presence is to give offense to any of its members. I realize, and from the beginning have fully realized, that with the feeling here as it is, my usefulness to my district as a member of this legislature is at an end. I cannot afford the expense of a further hearing and another trial, and I feel that I ought not to impose the expense thereof on the state. Indeed legislation ought not to be longer delayed, and so I am going to voluntarily surrender my office."

Senator Cobb's resolution providing for the appointment of a committee to prepare charges against Conger are ended by his resignation.

Trail of Ruin Left by Storm in Ohio Town

Many People Injured, Homes Demolished by Cyclone of But Three Minute's Duration.

YOUNGSTOWN, O., April 5.—In three minutes' time a cyclonic wind came and went in the midst of a rainstorm late today, and left in its wake southeast of the city a score of injured people, thousands of frightened ones, ten demolished houses and a hundred partially wrecked. The loss is upwards of $100,000.

The storm came from the west and did the heaviest damage in Langsville, where it razed five houses and wrecked three others. At Hazelton it wrecked the power plant of the Republic Iron and Steel company works, crushing in the store and sawmill fronts on both sides of one street, unroofed and demolished the gable of the Methodist church, blew in windows of the public schools, and continuing over a hill, uprooted trees and pulled down poles and wires.

Miss Grace Wheat, a teacher, was trying to close the windows in a school house when the wind blew in the panes of all the windows around her and the pupils fled panic-stricken to the hall, where a janitor controlled them. The home of Mrs. Elizabeth Cox of Langsville was blown off its foundation and fell upon the home of George Hambury. Mrs. Hambury literally threw her 6-year-old girl from a window and jumped herself, but neither was seriously hurt. The house was damaged. Similar experiences were had in dozens of homes. The injured include George Gallott, whose leg was almost severed with flying slate, and S. T. Clover, a carpenter, who was pinned in the debris of a fallen building. Gallott probably will die. The others will recover.

CRAZED NEGRO SMASHES SHOW CASE IN DRUG SHOP

Blake Franklin, Supposedly Under the Influence of a Drug, Wrecks Store.

For a quarter of an hour last night, between the hours of 1 and 2 o'clock, Blake Franklin, colored gentleman, played "old herry" with the drug store of Frank W. Fogg at Twelfth street and Capitol avenue. Running into the place about a quarter of 9 o'clock, he seized a chair, and before either assistants or customers were aware of his intent, he set about smashing the glass cases, the windows and everything that came in the way of his fury. When Officers Wood and Wilson got to the place several hundred dollars worth of fixtures had been demolished. The temper of the negro was then quiescent and he to the why and wherefore of his mad exhibition he hadn't a word to say. "Another case of dope," as the account was figured up at the police station, may be the solution.

$114.50 in Prizes GIVEN AWAY FREE FOR 12 APPROPRIATE NAMES.

Send us one name for the Schmolzer & Mueller Hand Made Piano. Think of the most appropriate name—and send it right now. Who knows but that you may be one of the twelve fortunate ones—suggest names that will meet with the approval of the committee of judges. Don't hesitate to read the conditions of this contest, then act. Send the name in at once, please. . . .

Twelve distinct names for twelve styles of Schmolzer & Mueller hand-made Pianos—that is our present need. The Piano which has come to the front faster than any other instrument now before the American music loving public.

Sold in every state in the Union, Canada on the north and Mexico and Cuba on the south. Wherever you find a Schmolzer and Mueller Piano there you will find a satisfied customer.

But to date our various styles have only been known according to number. For instance, our Art Style has been sold and is known as Art Style Forty (40). We do not feel that justice is done to this high grade Piano, an instrument which we guarantee for twenty-five (25) years, in designating it by a number.

Not only do we want a name for this Art Style 40, but we want a name for our Style 30, for our Style 20 and for our Style 10, and if we think best in getting out our new catalogue, we may require a name not only for each Style, but also a name for each separate style, as it is made by us in walnut, in mahogany or in oak.

You will see in furnishing four (4) different styles of Schmolzer & Mueller Hand-Made Pianos in three different woods that we really have twelve different Styles. So we are in the market for twelve distinctive names under which we can advertise our Pianos and by which these various Styles will be known in the future instead of by a number, which means nothing.

We are willing to pay well for names which will be accepted by us as appropriate. We will give away free altogether $1,145 in prizes, absolutely free to those who, within the next three weeks, send us twelve names which will express the utmost when applied to the High Grade, Sweet and Mellow Toned, Durably Constructed and Finely Finished Schmolzer & Mueller Piano. Nice Soft Rugs for Teachers' Pretty Feet

Board of Education Looks to Comfort Ahead of Economy in School Furnishing.

When the Board of Education met Monday night the subject which brought forth the most debate was concerning the purchase of rugs for the Walnut Hill and Howard Kennedy schools. James C. Lindsey, chairman of the committee on supplies, recommended that rugs be procured for the buildings, and Paul W. Kuhns said that he thought it would be much better to buy first-class linoleum, as it would look as well and wear much longer.

Mr. Kuhns spoke at some length about the difficulty experienced in keeping rugs clean, whereas linoleum could be kept bright and neat by a few rubs with a mop. Dr. Grant W. Williams was also in favor of substituting linoleum for rugs, and made an amendment to that effect, which was seconded by Mr. Kuhns. Mr. Lindsey arose and made a speech in favor of planking the women. He said that personally he thought linoleum better than rugs, but the fact was, he said, seem to have a fondness for rugs.

"They like to see the pretty rugs about," he said, "and although a linoleum carpet may be better, they like to have something soft to put their feet on. They like to see rugs about, and you know we have to cater somewhat to the women. That's why the committee recommended the purchase of the rugs. They are harder to keep clean than linoleum and perhaps won't be kept in as good shape, but the women teachers like them, and we want to please the women."

A roll call was taken and four were in favor of the amendment and six opposed, so the amendment came upon the original motion, which was passed without a dissenting vote.

A colored woman who occupies the cottage on Sixteenth street in the rear of the Comenius school, recently bought by the board, seems at loss to know to whom to pay her rent, and according to one member of the board will not either vacate or settle. The matter was referred to the body's attorney with power to act and steps will be taken to get the occupant of the cottage removed.

The board voted to purchase lots 15 and 16 in block 15, Hitchcock's addition for an addition to the Clifton High school site at a cost of $550. This will mean that the pupils will have additional playground.

The plans for the new shop building for the superintendent of buildings were adopted and the secretary was instructed to get bids for the erection of the building, which, it is roughly estimated, will cost about $20,000, including machinery. The structure is to be 55 feet long and will be a two-story affair to be erected at Twenty-first and Nicholas streets. The present plan is to get bids for the brick work and to use old material on hand for putting in the woodwork. The school carpenters will be used on the job. The board adjourned at 8:20.

Strange Properties Of A Wonderful Drug

(From Chicago Examiner.)
Prof. H. Von Starck's new book, "Thirty Years' Observations of Eczema," contains much that will interest the layman as well as the scientific reader.

"In June, 1905," he writes, "there appeared at the Institute a woman, 22 years old, with hair unusually interesting. It was abundant and long, but upon close examination two distinct growths of hair were seen.

"She said that up to four months previous her hair was thin, straggling and brittle, with a tendency to fall out. Dandruff and eczema of the scalp had developed, which she treated with a simple solution made by dissolving 2 ounces of quinine in 1/2 pint of hot water—let cool and add 2 ounces of alcohol.

"The result of the treatment was that the eczema and dandruff were eradicated, and apparently the hair follicles were revived, for new hair appeared.
