

VICTORY PITCHED BY BOVEE

Rourke Takes Laurels and Southpaw Shows Real Class.

COUNTRY CLUB GETS BLANKS

South Omaha's Amateurs Gate Hit One Lonesome Hit, While Pa's Boys Roll Up Nine Runs.

Bovee, the long southpaw, who has been working out with the Rourkes all season, almost got by Friday afternoon with a no hit game against the South Omaha Country club. As it was he allowed but a single in the ninth. He pitched right ball and had the boys from the southpaw almost at his wits' end. He fanned eight and passed three.

The score was 9 to 0. The lads from the club showed they had little training and could not make much of a showing against Bovee. At times, however, they pitched pretty ball and got the glad hand frequently from the little bunch of rooters in the stand.

Fagan, who played the short field, was the star for the visitors, and got away with a couple of nice plays. He did a Circus Solly stunt on one of Welch's hits after running back of second and after completing the juggling act held onto the sphere. He played a good clean game and received applause from the fans for his endeavors.

King slipped a homer into deep right which should have been a three-sacker. He scoured around the bases like a rabbit and reached the fourth bag in time. Although he was aided by the dumb fielding and throwing of Murphy in right, Welch and King both helped themselves to three-base hits off Mr. Cavannagh.

Johnny Gooding made his first appearance in an exhibition game this season and showed the speed and steadiness that helps Omaha win games. After working five innings he was relieved by Cadman.
