Sister Tells How Dreams of Wife Were Shattered

Mrs. Joseph Kaplan Had to Work Instead of Riding in Motor Cars and Going to Theater.

Mrs. Joseph Kaplan Pollard found married life vastly different from what she had been led to expect, according to the testimony of her sister, Rose Kaplan...

Mrs. Kaplan testified that she heard a conversation one day between her sister and her brother-in-law, in which the former, she said, reproached Pollard bitterly. The defense has introduced this testimony to show that it was not Kaplan, but his daughter, who was displeased with Pollard...

"I heard my sister say this," declared the witness: "I've taken your abuse for a year and a half and I'll never go back to you. You promised me dinners and theater visits and automobile rides. Instead of getting these, you have made me go to work after a week. I'll never go back to you."

"You think I'll ask my poor old father for money for a life, I never will. You want me to put my baby in an institute. Never. I'd lose my right hand first."
