COULD DIETZ MEETS DR. COOK

Omaha Traveler and His Wife Meet Explorer in South America.

ALSO MEET COLONEL BRYAN

At-Sar-Ben's King Takes Snapshot of the "Famous" Explorer When the Latter is Off His Guard.

From a journey which led them across 16,000 miles of South America and West India, with chance meetings with Dr. Frederick Cook and Colonel W. J. Bryan, Mr. and Mrs. Gould Dietz have returned to their home in Omaha.

The journey taken as a pleasure trip, has occupied Mr. and Mrs. Dietz since January 19, when they left Omaha. They have returned laden with curious and interesting objects from the countries which they have traversed. Mr. Dietz has made a collection of animals and plants which will give two basins, now enroute from New York, to the Omaha zoological garden. Just by way of adding to the collection of household pets they have brought a wonderfully colored Siamese house cat and a gorgeously colored cockatoo from Jamaica.

Mr. Dietz has added to his archives a certificate of the crossing of the equator, issued with the due ceremony of Father Neptune, assisted by a vigorous group of old tars. Mr. Dietz has a collection of views and pictures taken by himself on the long tour. The gem of them all is a snap shot of Dr. Frederick Cook of North pole fame, taken at Los Angeles. It is hardly necessary to say that Dr. Cook did not pose for this picture. Another of the pictures taken by Mr. Dietz show Colonel Bryan and Mayor Guerdner at Buenos Ayres admiring some cattle on that official's ranch.

"Dr. and Mrs. Cook were sailing under the name of Craig, when we met them, but everyone was onto who they really were. They avoided all mention of that little affair with Commander Peary. Dr. Cook preferred to talk about native fruits, his baggage and commonplace matters.

"We were fortunate in that we could cross the Andes. In a few more months that trip will be put to an end by the new tunnel which the railway is boring through the mountains. This road, as are many other enterprises in that country, is backed by American and English capital. It is the work of American engineers. American capital is largely interested in the development of Brazil."

Charity Bazaar is in Full Swing in The Bee Court

Dainty and Useful Articles Displayed by Those Whose Patient Efforts Have Wrought Them.

The Bee rotunda is a scene of beauty and will continue so until 10 o'clock Saturday night. The bazaar is the brainchild and the product of the Associated Charities Industrial home. There are also present some of the shut-in or handicapped workers who are struggling against great odds to support themselves in various ways.

Miss Ida V. Jontz, Mrs. Flora Hoffman, matron of the Park Wide home, and their assistants have made a most pleasing showing of the articles offered for sale. The large fountain and fish tank has been surmounted with plants and flowers and on all sides of the rotunda handsome flags are used to decorate tables which are loaded with the manufactured products of the industrial home.

Here are aprons, dress bags, laundry bags, quilts and comforters, rompers for small boys and girls, dainty toilet accessories, rugs and a hundred and one things that are both useful and ornamental; but the emphasis should be placed on the useful thing. It is these that the managers of the affair especially desire to have called to the attention of the public, for by their sale it is hoped and expected to build up a demand for the work of the industrial home among the men and women of Omaha.

Lunches are being served throughout the day, and the food is all home cooked. Sandwiches, cake, doughnuts, coffee and many enticing side dishes of various kinds are to be had at very reasonable prices.

The bazaar will be open until 7 tonight and on Saturday will be kept open until 9 o'clock at night. At 5 o'clock Saturday evening the elegant silk quilt made by Mr. Maxwell will be auctioned off.

BOARD TO EXAMINE GUNNERS
Tests for Noncommissioned Staffs at Fort D. A. Russell to Be Held in May.

A board of officers, consisting of Captain W. McK. Lambdin, Captain George M. Brooks and First Lieutenant William N. Michel of the Fourth field artillery, has been appointed to meet at Fort D. A. Russell, Wyo., for the examination of gunners of the noncommissioned staff, band and mounted orderlies of the First battalion. A similar board, consisting of Captains Leroy S. Lyon, H. L. Newbold and L. L. Lawson of the Fourth field artillery, has been appointed to examine gunners for the Second battalion of the same regiment of artillery. Both boards will meet at Fort D. A. Russell May 2.

Hill Estate May Now Be Divided

The estate of Lew W. Hill, worth over $400,000, may be partitioned at once among the legatees of the will instead of a wait for a five-year trust period to expire. The trustee of the estate is John Hill, Jr., nephew of testator. Some time ago John Hill, Jr.'s uncle, James Hill, one of the principal beneficiaries under the will, sued to get part of the income now and before the trust expired. Mr. Hill is 74 and feared that at 75 the money might do him little good. A motion has now been filed in district court asking for division of the property and dissolution of the trust and Judge Burton has intimated he will sustain the motion.

EXCHANGE MEMBERSHIP QUESTION UNSETTLED

Lack of Quorum Prevents Action on Pending Matters at Grain Dealers' Meeting Thursday.

A quorum was not present at the meeting of the Omaha grain exchange Thursday and consequently the matter of limiting the membership and fixing the cost of a seat was not settled.

A proposed amendment was offered limiting the membership to 200 and fixing the cost of a seat at $1,000. The membership now is about 185.

Mill is Robbed While Clerk's Busy

An artful thief entering the Glencoe mill, Twenty-third and Iard streets, on the pretext of offering some sacks for sale, robbed the till in the office during the preoccupation of a clerk and took $25. Meanwhile the sacked mill is holding the sack, or more accurately sacks.

This unidentified person of predatory habits, entered the mill office while the clerk in charge was talking with a customer. He carried a bundle of burlap sacks which he said he proposed to sell.

"Wait a minute and I'll wait on you," said the clerk.

"Sure," replied the sack man. He waited on himself.
