TWO JOBS FOR DISTRICT CLERK

Attorney General Rules He Can Also Be Court Reporter.

RULES CANDIDATES MUST FILE

Secretary of State Discovers Mistake Made About Candidates for Legislature—Traction Case Testimony at End.

(From a Staff Correspondent.)

LINCOLN, April 21.—(Special.)—According to the attorney general it is not lawful for a person to be district clerk and at the same time court reporter in the same county. The question was put to Mr. Thompson recently by the county attorney of Red Willow county, Sidney Dodge, who asked if it was legal for one person to be both district clerk and court reporter, and receive salary for both offices.

Mass files with secretary.

After Deputy Secretary of State Wall had announced that it was not necessary for candidates for the legislature whose districts consisted of more than one county to file their announcements with the secretary of state, it was discovered that a mistake was made.

Mr. Junghs looked up the law today and announced that reference to the filing in the several counties of a legislative district was made in the constitutional judiciary act which has become definite by reason of a decision of the supreme court. Hence the old law stands.

End Taking of Testimony.

The taking of testimony in Traction company case closed this afternoon. The commission set May 12 for hearing and arguments in the proposition of segregating the various business enterprises of the company, including heating, lighting and power. Steps are to be filed in addition to the oral argument.

Based on Expects.

The man in charge named Wilbur was arrested. This is the beginning of raids on all the clubs in the city.

FUNERAL OF J. L. STONE

Newspaper Man of Holdrege Laid at Rest at Minden by Side of Wife.

HOLDREGE, Neb., April 21.—(Special.)—A short service was held over the body of J. L. Stone today at his home in this city, after which the body was taken to Minden for burial beside his wife and children. The deceased had lived in this city for the past few years, and had at different times been employed on the Citizen and Progress newspapers here. His health for the last year or more has been gradually failing. He was born at Marion, Ia., in August 1864, and grew to manhood in the town of his birth. He learned the printing trade in the office of the Marion Register, where he worked for a number of years. He left his position there to study law, and was admitted to practice at the bar at Burlington, Ia., in the late '90s. In 1907 he came to this state to practice his profession, and opened an office at Sutton soon after his arrival here. He had hardly become well acquainted with his new surroundings when he was appointed to the position of county clerk's office of Clay county, a position which he held for the following two years. After he retired from his official duties he again took up newspaper work, and to that he devoted his activities at several places in the state, including service on an Omaha daily and later on a Lincoln paper. He conducted a newspaper at Minden for several years, and it was there he made a reputation as a newspaper man of more than ordinary ability. He married Miss Rice in 1882, and the two children which were born to them both died in infancy. He leaves surviving him only a mother and one brother.

Need & Shipyards Co. Cracks, Kwikler Implements House and Four Buses Destroyed.

CENTRAL CITY, Neb., April 21.—(Special.)—Fire originating at Clark's this afternoon, supposedly from sparks from a passing engine, consumed the big crib of the Howd & Shipyards elevator, the implement warehouse of M. Kwikler and four large barns, before it was finally gotten under control by the fire department. It was reported in the surrounding towns at first that the whole of Clark was burning, but the damage was confined to the buildings mentioned. The loss is placed at about $15,000.

Want Boosters to Visit Them

People Along Itinerary of Trade Trip Show Interest and Ask for Longer Stops by Party.

Much interest in the Omaha trade excursion is evidenced by persons living in the territory to be visited by the party. Many inquiries have been received by the committee concerning the proposed trip. The information asked for is in general for longer stops than was proposed in the itinerary published a week ago. Towns not on the railroad are being heard from and the trade excursion committee is being asked to include these in the itinerary. Two requests were made in letters received by Chairman Hayward Tuesday.

One of these was from the postmaster at Vera, S. D., who says that the country around there is the finest grain growing section in South Dakota. There is an excellent trip of twelve miles would have to be made to visit the town, agents are being sent. It would be almost impossible to make such a trip on the day that the excursion reaches Vivian, the nearest point to Vera. The fourth day of the day designated in the schedule for arrival at Vivian and on the entire time is to be taken up in the run from Cheyenne to Rapid City, the itinerary must be passed up.

Another letter was received from a country seat at Butte, Neb., the county seat of Boyd county, asking that the excursion visit his town. As Andika, the nearest railroad point to Butte, will be reached on the last day of the trip it was found possible to accept the invitation extended. Butte is but two and one-half miles from Andika and enough time has been assigned for the whole party to make a visit. The committee for the party will be contacted by the business men of Butte so that the lunch will not have to wait.

HEARST PRAISES PRESIDENT

Farmer Aspirant to White House Endorses Chief Executive.

COMPARES TWO ADMINISTRATIONS

Expresses Belief in Roosevelt and in Efficiency—Reveries Rail—Latter he Sees as an Example.

WASHINGTON, April 21.—William Randolph Hearst, former aspirant for the democratic nomination for the presidency, issued tonight a remarkable statement over his own signature, in which he unqualifiedly endorses President Taft.

In doing so he also criticizes in the severest terms the administration of President Roosevelt and in so many words says that the American nation, as a result of the political domination of the former president.

Mr. Hearst called at the White House this afternoon. He spent a half hour with the president in the executive office. Upon leaving Mr. Hearst said he had called merely to pay his respects to Mr. Taft, whom he said he admired.

Later he issued his endorsement of the Taft administration.

"No one can talk with the president without appreciating and respecting his earnestness and sincerity," the statement proceeds. "Personally I believe also in his efficiency. He has been one year in office and he has certainly accomplished more in that one year than Roosevelt did in his first year."

"It is hardly fair to compare Taft's one year with Roosevelt's seven, and yet I am not sure that even at that the comparison may not be in Taft's advantage. Taft's methods are not those of Roosevelt, but then Taft will probably not concede his term with a panic."

Head to Roosevelt.

"On the whole it seems to me that a quiet, earnest gentleman who came into office when the country was in the slough of adversity and after one year in office has placed the country on the high road of prosperity, is quite as valuable a president as a more showy and spectacular person, who found the country in the height of prosperity and left it in the depths of adversity."

Mr. Hearst admits that he does not charge Mr. Roosevelt directly with responsibility for the panic of 1907 nor does he undertake to give Mr. Taft the entire credit for the restoration of prosperity. He declares, however, that an administration which is producing more dividends for business men and finding work for the unemployed "should not be too sharply criticized for certain minor faults of omission or commission."

"Taft is carrying out Roosevelt's policies in the same way that the right ought to be carried out. That is to say he is doing the things that Roosevelt should have done but did not do."

"Taft is making the Roosevelt railroad act complete and effective. The Roosevelt railroad act has always been in effect since it was passed, but it has been doing nothing about the subject since it was passed that it was a farce and would be a failure. It might have been made to have been a failure."

Effort of Thief to Steal Golden Chalice Fails

Burglar in St. Peter's Catholic Church, Council Bluffs, Foiled by Steel Case.

The steel door or the window in which it was obtained alone prevented the burglar or gold chalice from becoming the lot of a sacrilegious burglar who invaded St. Peter's Catholic church at Council Bluffs Tuesday night. The burglar succeeded in prying open the outer door of the safe with a jimmy, but the inner steel door failed his efforts.

Entrances was effected through the door leading into the vestry at the rear of the church. This door is fastened with an ordinary lock. There was no evidence that this door had been forced, although the marks on the outer door of the safe showed that a jimmy had been used to pry it open. The supposition is that the door leading into the vestry was opened with a skeleton key.

In the vestry, which opens off the center of the church, the burglar searched the cases containing the vestments, but failed to discover the keys of the tabernacle, one of which would have opened the inner door of the safe containing the costly chalice, which the thief was evidently after.

The attempted robbery was discovered by Father Leonard when he arose about 5:30 o'clock yesterday morning.
