He was bern and character, but kept ahead of what the born at Dalton, Mass., and built his fortune bred a gentleman. Whenever the qualities that go to the making of a gentleman have had occasion to put in an appearance Taft Chicago, is celebrating his 50th birthday. has shown large, indeed. His letter to Gif-He is a native son of Chicago, and his ford Pinchot was almost a nonsequitur. Except that he had been grossly misled and deceived in Ballinger it would have put Pinchot in a hole. But he shone out respiendent the other evening when he was so suddenly and so sorely iried by the audience of rude, unfeeling and unthinknodest expression of a difference of opinion, gave their cause away.

The Courter-Journal touches its hat to you, Mr. President. We look toward you, Mr. President. There is still good fishing in Kentucky river-yes, in Eagle creek and Einhorn-Mr. President, and, when that four years' term is up, and you are slek and tired of honor and glory, come to God's country, Mr. President, and we'll have a burgoo and a thimbleful of the best ever to wash it down.
