Dramatic Cinb Gives Performance at

Shakespeare's "Twelfth Night." Shakospeare's "Twelfth Night," the life given Monday evening by the Dramstic club, was one of the very best production of its kind ever given at the Peru Normal The characters that took part in the play have been making a special study of its literary and dramatic features for three aonths, under the personal direction of Dalay D. Nettleton, head of the departnent of expression. Mrs. Nettleton is con idered especially strong in dramatic work She has accepted a position in the Co umbia School of Oratory, under Miss Blood, for the coming summer school. This is a very strong recommendation, as the Columbia School of Oratory is one of the best, if not the best, in the country. The work of Miss Builer, who played the part of Viola, was very strong.
