OMAHA. April 23, 1910. Senument among wheat tracers was more bullish again and opening prices were higher. Cables were firm following the domestic advance yesterday. While news from all points in Nebraska and Kansas is very bullish the market ruled rather dull. Cash conditions and a stronger agent market is helping to strengthen corn. Values are slowly working away from the low point of a week ago.

Unfavorable weather coupled with better cash demand and higher cables turned sentiment buillsh again and prices worked an-cash demand and higher cables turned sentiment bullish again and prices worked another ic higher today. News from all sections of the winter wheat belt shows much damage to crops.

The corn market was very firm from the start. Cash houses were good buyers on the strength in wheat and the improvement in snipping demand. Stocks are decreasing and if demand contibues further advances are likely.

Primary wheat recepts were 25:000 bushes and snipments were 15:000 bushes and snipments were 15:000 bushes and snipments of 24:000 bushes and snipments were diagono bushes, against receipts last year of 20:000 bushes and shipments were diagono bushes, against receipts last year of 20:000 bushes and shipments of 38:000 bushels.

Clearings were 28:000 bushels of corn. 1,000 bushels of cats and wheat and flour equal to 20:000 bushels.
