

Nebraska HOW TO MAKE CITY IDEAL

Lincoln Labors to End with Host of Citizen's Clubs. COMMITTEE OF TWENTY IS NEXT

City Council Authorizes Appointment of Body that Will Suggest General Plans for City Betterment.

(From a Staff Correspondent.) LINCOLN, April 26.—(Special.)—This beautiful city struck another blow in the direction of the "ideal" last night, when the "Candy Prof." ordinance was passed by the city council.

At the present time Lincoln has a mayor, a city council, an excise board, a school board and a park board. But the city council has proven too much for these and so, many clubs have been formed to advise and instruct them in their duties.

Now, a new body, the committee of twenty, has been organized. It will suggest general plans for the betterment of the city.

Nebraska Salary Payment to Ludden is Legal

Attorney General Thompson Rules Allowance to Secretary of Normal Board is Proper.

(From a Staff Correspondent.) LINCOLN, April 26.—(Special.)—Another prop was knocked from under the politicians who have been trying to discredit the State Normal board, which a democratic legislature failed to abolish, when Deputy Attorney General Grant Martin ruled that the board acted legally when it paid to Luther P. Ludden $600 a year salary for acting as secretary.

The democratic legislature first attempted to get rid of the republican board by legislating it out of existence and giving the governor the right to appoint a democratic board.
