

JUDGMENTS

BASE ball scores on the big league circuits are asking for private tele- phones from the press box to each manager's bench. This may not be needed.

The layman little realizes what a big prize fight, such as that had in this country for many years, but he has when Jeffries and Johnson meet, means from a financial standpoint.

What do you think of the Western league race? It is a common question just now. Frankly, we don't know just what to think, except that it will be a good one.

High school lads are going in for outdoor athletics with a vim this year, and are taking up all branches of sport, each in its season.

The power of publicity is on trial in the preparations for the Jeffries-Johnson fight. For the sake of the power we hope it comes clear, but if it does not accomplish all that is expected of it it should be over-worked.

The St. Louis Cardinals appear on paper to be greatly strengthened, and they are, too. They have been losing most of their games, but they have been playing them with the leaders.

Now, wouldn't it be awful if King should discover he wasn't needed, after all? Chick Autrey is betting like a man who wanted to get back into faster company.

BIG AUTO RACE AT ELGIN

Summer or Early Autumn Will See Event in Illinois.

CHICAGO CLUB BACKS EVENT

New Motordrome Will Sooner or Later Be Built by Chicagoans, but Their Identity Yet Remains a Secret.

NEW YORK, April 30.—If reports that are coming out of the middle west are not too highly tinted with optimism Elgin, Ill., will be the scene of a big automobile race late this summer or in early autumn.

It is hinted that the event will be the glamour of the national stock chassis race. Lowell, Mass., conducted this contest last year and was scheduled to do so again.

While the plans for the event are as yet in the preliminary stage, a bright outlook is at hand. That the Chicago Motor club will try to make the Elgin road race superior to the Cope cup event conducted last year by the Chicago Automobile club over the Lowell-Crown Point course is a foregone conclusion.

While the Chicago Motor club is progressing with its Elgin race the Chicago Automobile club is having trouble with the Cope cup event. Just when the race will be staged is problematical.

It is thought that wood is a far better speed medium than cement, brick or dirt. Motor car experts tell us that the coefficient of friction between wood and tires is better suited to high speed than any other substance.

GREAT CONTEST IN OCTOBER

Automobile Club of America Offers Grand Prize Gold Cup.

NEW YORK, April 30.—Charles E. Foran, secretary of the Automobile Club of America, announced the other day that the Kaiserlicher Automobile club had called an entry of three Benz cars for the contest on October 15 for the Automobile Club of America's grand prize gold cup.

As to the financial results of the California meet, Chicago knows nothing. One day, it was said, 15,000 people attended and that was on a Sunday. Indianapolis' biggest day last summer brought out 40,000. It is probable that this first racing at Playa del Rey did not show much of a profit, but it is thought the meet has firmly established the popularity of the track.
