

SOCIETY READY FOR SUMMER

Field Club Starts Season with Formal Opening Saturday Evening.

OTHERS WILL SOON FOLLOW

Many Omaha Students and Friends Attend Society and Fraternity Parties at Lincoln the End of the Week.

A Toast. A cheerful mind, A loving heart, Some work and strength to do it, A bit to eat, A place to sleep— That's life to me—here in it. —Home Notes.

Social Calendar.

MONDAY—Mrs. Lester Dirlbaum, luncheon; Mrs. G. L. Bradley, Visiting Nurse Sewing club; meeting of Monday Kensington club. TUESDAY—Mrs. Frank Colpetzer, whist supper; Mrs. Mosier Colpetzer, luncheon for Miss Bessie Yates; Mr. Wallace Loman, Melody club. WEDNESDAY—La Salle club luncheon at Omaha club; Melancthon-Bath wedding; Mrs. E. S. Grant, Just Us Whist club; O. K. Harmony club, Mrs. G. Holten. THURSDAY—Mrs. C. J. Shinn, whist; Farnam Kensington club; B. A. Virp May party at Chambers' academy; Mrs. J. Hinman, Swastika club. FRIDAY—Omikron May party at Chambers' academy; Pan club May party at Hotel Rome; meeting of Original Bridge club; meeting of Junior club, Miss Helen Davis. SATURDAY—Opening of Field club with table d'hôte, dinner and dance; Harry Pilgrim, visiting party for Comis club.

The large annual dancing parties and banquets being given at Lincoln by the several societies and fraternities are being well attended by former students from Omaha and also by rubes who are planning to attend the University of Nebraska in the near future. Friday evening Phi Gamma Delta fraternity gave its annual dancing party. The hall room was profusely decorated with purple wisteria, representing a Japanese garden. Another feature was the artistic programs, which were of white leather, pennant shape, with the fraternity coat of arms in purple. An elaborate supper was served late in the evening and about 100 guests were present. Last evening Pi Beta Phi gave its annual ball, which was attended by a number from Omaha. During the month of May there will be a number of others.

The officers of the Omaha Field club have issued attractive cards, decorated with the club monogram, to the members announcing the formal opening next Saturday evening. By return mail the committee received the highest number of reservations ever sent in so short a time for the table d'hôte dinner which precedes the dance. The first dinner hour will be at half after 5 and the second at 7 o'clock, and the diners are urged to be on time or the tables will not be held in their honor. Last year about 500 dined at the club and this year plans are being made to accommodate 600.

The next club to have its formal opening will be Happy Hollow, May 14, and the Country club May 21, so that those who are members of several clubs may attend the opening of each this year. The Rod and Gun club, which is probably the largest of Omaha's athletic clubs, will have its formal opening Decoration day, Monday, May 30. An elaborate program will be arranged, including boat races, both for canoes and sail boats, and probably other athletic features. Meanwhile extensive improvements are being made. The lake front is to be improved and beautified and several new cottages are being built. The dancing pavilion is also being enlarged to accommodate the large number who attend the weekly dancing parties. Opening night of all the cottages, the cafe and the dancing pavilion will be electrically trimmed with Japanese lanterns, which will also be strung from the trees, giving the effect of an oriental village in gala attire. This club now numbers 300, making it the largest in the city, and opening night a large attendance is expected for the table d'hôte dinner and dance.

Personal Gossip.

Miss Louise McPherson is spending a month near Cody, Wyo. Dr. L. B. Bushman is making a short stay at Executive Springs, Iowa. Mr. Frank A. Furry has returned from a short stay at Colorado Springs. Mrs. Agnes Sorenson of Grand Island is visiting in Omaha for a few days. Miss Grace Low has returned from a visit in Kansas City and Conception, Mo. Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Brant left Saturday for Deadwood, S. D., for a short stay. Miss Leola Hedberg, who has been traveling abroad with friends, is now in Naples, Italy. Mrs. W. H. Gould, Jr., is at the Methodist hospital, where she has recently undergone an operation. Mrs. Jennie Osborne Hamann of Leipzig, Germany, will be the guest of Miss Estelle Brown next week. Mrs. T. J. Donohue and two small children left Saturday for a few weeks' visit with relatives in Norfolk, Neb. Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Rogers left Friday for Boston, where they will stay for some time with Mr. Rogers' relatives. Miss Eloise Wood is expecting Frau Mangelsdorf of Berlin, Germany, to arrive today to be her guest until June. Mrs. Noyes of Fort Crook, who is still at the Clarkson hospital, is improving and expects to leave today for her home. Mr. G. W. Megarth and two sons, Windsor and Edwin, will set June 4 on the America for a two months' trip abroad. A daughter was born Friday to Mr. and Mrs. Dimon Bird of New York. Mrs. Bird was formerly Miss Charis Curtis of this city. Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Prindle of Chicago have arrived to be guests of their daughter, Mrs. E. C. Griffin and Mr. Griffin for several weeks. Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Penfold, who have been traveling in Europe, are now in London and expect to sail about the first of next week for home. Miss Alice McCullough, who is attending the University of Nebraska, is spending the week-end at the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. M. McMillan.

Dr. and Mrs. Clement McMillan of Fort Crook who have been spending some time in Washington, D. C., and St. Louis, are expected home about May 20.

Mrs. John Krans, who has been visiting the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Krans, 328 Woodworth avenue, returned yesterday to her home at Hastings, Ia.

Mr. and Mrs. John A. McShane who have been spending several months in Egypt and the Holy Land and more recently in Paris, have sailed for New York.

Among the Omaha guests at the Phi Gamma Delta banquet given in Lincoln last evening were Messrs. Fred Thomas, Cheek B. Lott and Lieutenant Shallenberger.

Mrs. William Karnes of Kansas City, who has been the guest of Miss Lynn Curtis, will spend this week at the home of Mrs. E. M. Fairfield, after which she will return to her home.

Miss Stone of New York City, who is the guest of Mrs. Franklin A. Boutler, and has been honor guest at numerous social affairs during the last two weeks, will leave this week for her home.

Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Wainem have taken the residence formerly occupied by Mr. Howard Kennedy, str. on the corner of Twenty-fourth and Dodge streets, and will reside there this summer.

Miss Frances Nash, Miss Jean Cudahy, Miss Helen Cudahy and a teacher from Mrs. Somer's school in Washington, D. C., for a four months' tour abroad.

Mr. and Mrs. N. P. Dodge have moved to 18 South Forty-ninth street, the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Chadwick, who, with their son, John, have gone to Europe, where they will spend several months.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. French and Miss Isabelle French are expected home Sunday from Brooklyn, N. Y. Miss French has spent the last three months in the east as the guest of relatives, and was joined recently by her mother and father.

For the Future.

Mrs. Frank Colpetzer will give a whist supper Tuesday evening, May 10, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George A. Joslyn for some time, and Mrs. Joslyn has planned to give a number of recitals during their stay here.

"La Salle Club of the Missouri Valley" is the probable name of a new organization that will be formed by a number of women who have attended La Salle school near Boston, and who will meet May 4 at luncheon at the Omaha club, at which time they will establish a permanent La Salle alumnae. Almost 200 invitations were issued.

Wedding Bells.

Mrs. Katherine Holt announces the engagement of her daughter, Anna, to Mr. James Carter McTeer of Lenoir, Tenn. The wedding will take place June 29.

Mr. and Mrs. Gustave B. Dake announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Gertrude, to Mr. William Edward Haynes. The wedding will take place the first week in June.

Mrs. George B. Darr and Mrs. A. Tracyor entertained the P. E. O. society at the home of Mrs. Darr Saturday afternoon. Thirty guests were present. A lunch was served and a musical program rendered.

Announcement is made of the engagement of Miss Therese L. Wallace to Mr. Wallace J. Turnbull of Newburgh, N. Y. The wedding is to take place June 22 at "Robin's Nest" the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Wallace.

Colonel and Mrs. Cornelius Gardener gave a dinner Friday evening in honor of General and Mrs. Frederick A. Smith, Major and Mrs. Lord, Colonel and Mrs. Gardener, Miss Smith, Lieutenant Christie.

Mr. and Mrs. James Howe announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Elizabeth Howe, to Mr. Dexter Byrd. The wedding will take place early in June. Miss Howe is assistant secretary at the Associated Charities, and in this office she has made many friends. She will resign her present position shortly before her marriage.

The Eta-Virp club, at its annual meeting Thursday evening, elected the following officers for next season: Mr. S. S. Hamill, president; Mr. Paul F. Nindel, vice president; Mr. A. J. Hanley, secretary; Mr. Dean Glover, treasurer. The club will give its May party, the last dance of the present season, Thursday, May 5. The entertainment committee has arranged a couple of enjoyable summer parties this summer.

An announcement of unusual interest in university circles is the engagement of Miss Mary W. Paha, daughter of Mr. William Paha, to Mr. Alvin E. Brown of Fremont, Neb. The wedding will take place June 15 at the bride's home. Miss Paha is a popular member of Kappa Alpha Theta sorority, and attended the University of Nebraska. Mr. Brown is a graduate of Oberlin college, and the young people will reside in Fremont.

A birthday party was given at Mr. Emil Peterson's residence, 146 South Twenty-eighth street, Friday evening, May 7, in honor of Mrs. Peterson's birthday. A large number of guests were assembled and were entertained by vocal and piano music, furnished by Leon and Lucille Peterson. At dinner the guests were seated at one large table profusely decorated with spring flowers.

Mrs. J. J. Hens entertained the W. W. club at the last meeting. A story "swapping" contest afforded entertainment for the afternoon. Mrs. F. Martin receiving the prize for the most comical story. The guests present were Mr. and Mrs. John Morrison of Miller, Neb.; Mrs. Wm. McLeod of Kennedy, Neb.; Mrs. F. Russell and Mrs. George Swoboda. The next meeting will be in two weeks with Mrs. George Hampton, 62 North Forty-first avenue.

The marriage of Miss Louise Rush, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Rush, to Mr. Edward P. McLaughlin of Lincoln, will be celebrated Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock, at St. Philomena's church, Rev. J. T. Smith will officiate, and only relatives and a few intimate friends will be present. Miss Philomena Rush will be maid of honor and Dr. E. Darby will be best man. Miss Rush was educated at St. Mary's academy and Mr. McLaughlin at the University of Nebraska, and is a member of the Delta Tau Delta fraternity. After a wedding trip they will reside in Lincoln.

A Pete Farnham given last evening at Brownell hall was one of the most successful and largest affairs ever given by the students of Brownell hall. The scenery for the different tableaux, recitations and one-act plays was quite elaborate and all of it was designed and painted by a school artist, Miss Augustus A. Knight. Eighty-two young women of this school, representing the different French classes, took part in "Marie Francois," under the direction of Mademoiselle Louise Labouin, assisted by Miss Emile Gehring and Miss Eleanor Renta. Invitations were issued to about 300 Omaha guests and they were received by four of the young women of the school, dressed as French peasants, acting as usher and distributing programs.

The male section of the Mademoiselle choir was entertained by Mr. Sigmund Lansberg at his studio Thursday evening. The evening was devoted largely to work on Storch's beautiful male chorus, "Night Witchery," which will be one of the program features of the concert in Grandis theater the night of May 10. This remarkable bit of descriptive work sends the basses to unheard-of depths and pushes the ambitious tenors to be natural with a number of naturals to keep it company. The selection has great possibilities, and Mr. Kelly, with his usual assortment of male voices, is working in developing these possibilities to the utmost. During the evening several of Mr. Lansberg's newest compositions were given a try-out by some of those present.

Complimentary to Miss Eloise Wood, one of the June brides, Miss Fannie Howland, had a delightful luncheon yesterday. It was a dainty luncheon and white, which carried out in all details. A basket of daisies tied with white tulle formed the centerpiece for the table and miniature baskets adorned with daisies were at each place. Crystal candlesticks holding green and white candles shed a soft light over the table. Interspersed about the table was a chain of daisies and smilax, which was cut as the guests were seated and worn as boas. Covers were laid for Misses Eloise Wood, Laura Dale, Bessie Sage, Doris Wood, Jane Milliken of Fremont, Effie Haight, Fannie Howland, Madeline George, Walter, Wayne, Hemphill, Ronald Patterson, E. P. Boyer, B. N. Wood and E. H. Howland.

Invitations have been issued for the wedding of Lieutenant Martin Shallenberger, son of Governor and Mrs. Shallenberger, and Miss Ina Dowdy, daughter of Captain and Mrs. R. W. Dowdy, which will take place Wednesday, May 12, at the home of the bride's parents in La Salle, Colo. Lieutenant Shallenberger, who is stationed at Fort Crook with the Sixteenth infantry, has had leave of absence granted him, beginning May 7. Lieutenant Elliott Brown of the Sixteenth infantry will serve as best man at the wedding, and Miss Grace Shallenberger of the Sixteenth infantry, groom, will be one of the bride's attendants. After a two weeks' wedding trip, the young people will return to Fort Crook and leave some time in June with the Sixteenth infantry for Alaska, where they will be stationed.

Mrs. Burd Miller gave a children's party Saturday afternoon at her home in Dundee in honor of her son, Burdell's, eleventh birthday. The feature of the afternoon was a peanut hunt, prizes being given to the one finding the most and a consolation to the one finding the least. Mrs. Miller was assisted in entertaining the little folks by Mrs. C. D. Rosenbery, Mrs. Tom Hoch, Miss Della Rich and Miss Gladys Miller. Those present were Misses Mildred Rhoades, Jeanette Jaeger, Ellene Gunter, Helen Patterson, Clarice Browne, Helen Presson, Arline Rosenbery, Lila Hoke, Florence Dow, Lila How, Lila Deems, Phoebe Rich, Lila Miller, Masters Clara Doods, Warren Deems, Robert Hume, Herman Crowell, Harold Simpson, William Harte, Lester Klapp, Douglas Dox, Graham Warner, Roger Moore, Ward Browne, Richard Peters, Delbert Quaman, Thomas Rich, Burdell Miller.

The repetition of the fairy play, "The Magic Sword," which was given in the home of Mrs. E. W. Nash Saturday afternoon for the benefit of the Creche and the social settlement, was exceedingly popular, and demand for place exceeding the capacity of the "Virginia theater." The young misses gave a graceful presentation of the drama of toyland. A program of children's songs was a pleasant addition to the program. The musical program was contributed by little Miss Love, Master Ludowick Crofoot, Miss Alice Kennard and fact that there are no officers, the management being vested in three of the members—Mrs. Stokes, wife of Surgeon General Stokes; Mrs. J. L. Robinson, wife of Lieutenant Robinson of the navy, and Mrs. Knox-Taylor.

It is announced that President and Mrs. Taft will not arrive at their summer home in Beverly, Mass., until the first of July. It is understood that Captain Butt, President Taft's aide, has secured accommodations for himself at Beverly Cove from July 1 until October, which seems to indicate the time of the presidential arrival. Mrs. Taft and her sister, Mrs. More of Cincinnati, are expected to arrive at Beverly Cove about July 5. They will stop off in both New York and Boston visiting relatives.

Mrs. Champ Clark, wife of Representative Clark and Mrs. Harry Woodward, wife of Representative Woodward of West Virginia, will spend the summer in Europe.

Miss Mabel Boardman has changed her system of entertaining on Mondays. In the future she will receive in the afternoon instead of the evenings, and at the Country club instead of her own house. She has sent out cards for May 2 and 9. Mrs. Larz Anderson will have an afternoon in her Italian garden before she and Mr. Anderson go to Europe, early in May. Mr. Anderson will go to Marienbad for the bath.

Mrs. and Mrs. Edson Bradley have closed their residence in Dupont circle for several months and have gone to Tuxedo, where they will remain until late in June. In July they will go to their summer home on the St. Lawrence and will not return to Washington until December. They will entertain a number of yachting parties during the summer, and will also have a number of house parties on board their houseboat in the St. Lawrence.

Washington has voted Mrs. Wesley L. Jones, wife of the senator from Washington, one of its most popular matrons. Mrs. Jones really became a society leader during her husband's service as a representative and her many friends rejoiced when she took her place at the head of a senatorial household. She is pronounced one of the most likable women in officialdom and has scores of friends among resident Washingtonians also. Mrs. Jones is a fine hostess and a sympathetic and companionable friend. She is a woman of distinguished presence.

Washington has voted Mrs. Wesley L. Jones, wife of the senator from Washington, one of its most popular matrons. Mrs. Jones really became a society leader during her husband's service as a representative and her many friends rejoiced when she took her place at the head of a senatorial household. She is pronounced one of the most likable women in officialdom and has scores of friends among resident Washingtonians also. Mrs. Jones is a fine hostess and a sympathetic and companionable friend. She is a woman of distinguished presence.

Washington has voted Mrs. Wesley L. Jones, wife of the senator from Washington, one of its most popular matrons. Mrs. Jones really became a society leader during her husband's service as a representative and her many friends rejoiced when she took her place at the head of a senatorial household. She is pronounced one of the most likable women in officialdom and has scores of friends among resident Washingtonians also. Mrs. Jones is a fine hostess and a sympathetic and companionable friend. She is a woman of distinguished presence.

Washington has voted Mrs. Wesley L. Jones, wife of the senator from Washington, one of its most popular matrons. Mrs. Jones really became a society leader during her husband's service as a representative and her many friends rejoiced when she took her place at the head of a senatorial household. She is pronounced one of the most likable women in officialdom and has scores of friends among resident Washingtonians also. Mrs. Jones is a fine hostess and a sympathetic and companionable friend. She is a woman of distinguished presence.

Washington has voted Mrs. Wesley L. Jones, wife of the senator from Washington, one of its most popular matrons. Mrs. Jones really became a society leader during her husband's service as a representative and her many friends rejoiced when she took her place at the head of a senatorial household. She is pronounced one of the most likable women in officialdom and has scores of friends among resident Washingtonians also. Mrs. Jones is a fine hostess and a sympathetic and companionable friend. She is a woman of distinguished presence.

Washington has voted Mrs. Wesley L. Jones, wife of the senator from Washington, one of its most popular matrons. Mrs. Jones really became a society leader during her husband's service as a representative and her many friends rejoiced when she took her place at the head of a senatorial household. She is pronounced one of the most likable women in officialdom and has scores of friends among resident Washingtonians also. Mrs. Jones is a fine hostess and a sympathetic and companionable friend. She is a woman of distinguished presence.

Washington has voted Mrs. Wesley L. Jones, wife of the senator from Washington, one of its most popular matrons. Mrs. Jones really became a society leader during her husband's service as a representative and her many friends rejoiced when she took her place at the head of a senatorial household. She is pronounced one of the most likable women in officialdom and has scores of friends among resident Washingtonians also. Mrs. Jones is a fine hostess and a sympathetic and companionable friend. She is a woman of distinguished presence.

Washington has voted Mrs. Wesley L. Jones, wife of the senator from Washington, one of its most popular matrons. Mrs. Jones really became a society leader during her husband's service as a representative and her many friends rejoiced when she took her place at the head of a senatorial household. She is pronounced one of the most likable women in officialdom and has scores of friends among resident Washingtonians also. Mrs. Jones is a fine hostess and a sympathetic and companionable friend. She is a woman of distinguished presence.

Washington has voted Mrs. Wesley L. Jones, wife of the senator from Washington, one of its most popular matrons. Mrs. Jones really became a society leader during her husband's service as a representative and her many friends rejoiced when she took her place at the head of a senatorial household. She is pronounced one of the most likable women in officialdom and has scores of friends among resident Washingtonians also. Mrs. Jones is a fine hostess and a sympathetic and companionable friend. She is a woman of distinguished presence.

Washington has voted Mrs. Wesley L. Jones, wife of the senator from Washington, one of its most popular matrons. Mrs. Jones really became a society leader during her husband's service as a representative and her many friends rejoiced when she took her place at the head of a senatorial household. She is pronounced one of the most likable women in officialdom and has scores of friends among resident Washingtonians also. Mrs. Jones is a fine hostess and a sympathetic and companionable friend. She is a woman of distinguished presence.

Washington has voted Mrs. Wesley L. Jones, wife of the senator from Washington, one of its most popular matrons. Mrs. Jones really became a society leader during her husband's service as a representative and her many friends rejoiced when she took her place at the head of a senatorial household. She is pronounced one of the most likable women in officialdom and has scores of friends among resident Washingtonians also. Mrs. Jones is a fine hostess and a sympathetic and companionable friend. She is a woman of distinguished presence.

Washington has voted Mrs. Wesley L. Jones, wife of the senator from Washington, one of its most popular matrons. Mrs. Jones really became a society leader during her husband's service as a representative and her many friends rejoiced when she took her place at the head of a senatorial household. She is pronounced one of the most likable women in officialdom and has scores of friends among resident Washingtonians also. Mrs. Jones is a fine hostess and a sympathetic and companionable friend. She is a woman of distinguished presence.

Washington has voted Mrs. Wesley L. Jones, wife of the senator from Washington, one of its most popular matrons. Mrs. Jones really became a society leader during her husband's service as a representative and her many friends rejoiced when she took her place at the head of a senatorial household. She is pronounced one of the most likable women in officialdom and has scores of friends among resident Washingtonians also. Mrs. Jones is a fine hostess and a sympathetic and companionable friend. She is a woman of distinguished presence.

Washington has voted Mrs. Wesley L. Jones, wife of the senator from Washington, one of its most popular matrons. Mrs. Jones really became a society leader during her husband's service as a representative and her many friends rejoiced when she took her place at the head of a senatorial household. She is pronounced one of the most likable women in officialdom and has scores of friends among resident Washingtonians also. Mrs. Jones is a fine hostess and a sympathetic and companionable friend. She is a woman of distinguished presence.

Washington has voted Mrs. Wesley L. Jones, wife of the senator from Washington, one of its most popular matrons. Mrs. Jones really became a society leader during her husband's service as a representative and her many friends rejoiced when she took her place at the head of a senatorial household. She is pronounced one of the most likable women in officialdom and has scores of friends among resident Washingtonians also. Mrs. Jones is a fine hostess and a sympathetic and companionable friend. She is a woman of distinguished presence.

Washington has voted Mrs. Wesley L. Jones, wife of the senator from Washington, one of its most popular matrons. Mrs. Jones really became a society leader during her husband's service as a representative and her many friends rejoiced when she took her place at the head of a senatorial household. She is pronounced one of the most likable women in officialdom and has scores of friends among resident Washingtonians also. Mrs. Jones is a fine hostess and a sympathetic and companionable friend. She is a woman of distinguished presence.

Washington has voted Mrs. Wesley L. Jones, wife of the senator from Washington, one of its most popular matrons. Mrs. Jones really became a society leader during her husband's service as a representative and her many friends rejoiced when she took her place at the head of a senatorial household. She is pronounced one of the most likable women in officialdom and has scores of friends among resident Washingtonians also. Mrs. Jones is a fine hostess and a sympathetic and companionable friend. She is a woman of distinguished presence.

Washington has voted Mrs. Wesley L. Jones, wife of the senator from Washington, one of its most popular matrons. Mrs. Jones really became a society leader during her husband's service as a representative and her many friends rejoiced when she took her place at the head of a senatorial household. She is pronounced one of the most likable women in officialdom and has scores of friends among resident Washingtonians also. Mrs. Jones is a fine hostess and a sympathetic and companionable friend. She is a woman of distinguished presence.

Washington has voted Mrs. Wesley L. Jones, wife of the senator from Washington, one of its most popular matrons. Mrs. Jones really became a society leader during her husband's service as a representative and her many friends rejoiced when she took her place at the head of a senatorial household. She is pronounced one of the most likable women in officialdom and has scores of friends among resident Washingtonians also. Mrs. Jones is a fine hostess and a sympathetic and companionable friend. She is a woman of distinguished presence.

Washington has voted Mrs. Wesley L. Jones, wife of the senator from Washington, one of its most popular matrons. Mrs. Jones really became a society leader during her husband's service as a representative and her many friends rejoiced when she took her place at the head of a senatorial household. She is pronounced one of the most likable women in officialdom and has scores of friends among resident Washingtonians also. Mrs. Jones is a fine hostess and a sympathetic and companionable friend. She is a woman of distinguished presence.

Washington has voted Mrs. Wesley L. Jones, wife of the senator from Washington, one of its most popular matrons. Mrs. Jones really became a society leader during her husband's service as a representative and her many friends rejoiced when she took her place at the head of a senatorial household. She is pronounced one of the most likable women in officialdom and has scores of friends among resident Washingtonians also. Mrs. Jones is a fine hostess and a sympathetic and companionable friend. She is a woman of distinguished presence.

Washington has voted Mrs. Wesley L. Jones, wife of the senator from Washington, one of its most popular matrons. Mrs. Jones really became a society leader during her husband's service as a representative and her many friends rejoiced when she took her place at the head of a senatorial household. She is pronounced one of the most likable women in officialdom and has scores of friends among resident Washingtonians also. Mrs. Jones is a fine hostess and a sympathetic and companionable friend. She is a woman of distinguished presence.

Washington has voted Mrs. Wesley L. Jones, wife of the senator from Washington, one of its most popular matrons. Mrs. Jones really became a society leader during her husband's service as a representative and her many friends rejoiced when she took her place at the head of a senatorial household. She is pronounced one of the most likable women in officialdom and has scores of friends among resident Washingtonians also. Mrs. Jones is a fine hostess and a sympathetic and companionable friend. She is a woman of distinguished presence.

Washington has voted Mrs. Wesley L. Jones, wife of the senator from Washington, one of its most popular matrons. Mrs. Jones really became a society leader during her husband's service as a representative and her many friends rejoiced when she took her place at the head of a senatorial household. She is pronounced one of the most likable women in officialdom and has scores of friends among resident Washingtonians also. Mrs. Jones is a fine hostess and a sympathetic and companionable friend. She is a woman of distinguished presence.

Washington has voted Mrs. Wesley L. Jones, wife of the senator from Washington, one of its most popular matrons. Mrs. Jones really became a society leader during her husband's service as a representative and her many friends rejoiced when she took her place at the head of a senatorial household. She is pronounced one of the most likable women in officialdom and has scores of friends among resident Washingtonians also. Mrs. Jones is a fine hostess and a sympathetic and companionable friend. She is a woman of distinguished presence.

Washington has voted Mrs. Wesley L. Jones, wife of the senator from Washington, one of its most popular matrons. Mrs. Jones really became a society leader during her husband's service as a representative and her many friends rejoiced when she took her place at the head of a senatorial household. She is pronounced one of the most likable women in officialdom and has scores of friends among resident Washingtonians also. Mrs. Jones is a fine hostess and a sympathetic and companionable friend. She is a woman of distinguished presence.

Washington has voted Mrs. Wesley L. Jones, wife of the senator from Washington, one of its most popular matrons. Mrs. Jones really became a society leader during her husband's service as a representative and her many friends rejoiced when she took her place at the head of a senatorial household. She is pronounced one of the most likable women in officialdom and has scores of friends among resident Washingtonians also. Mrs. Jones is a fine hostess and a sympathetic and companionable friend. She is a woman of distinguished presence.

Our Beautiful New Store ---Most Up-to-Date Specialty House West of New York City

THIS is not an idle boast for Omaha, but a fact that is proven to every one who visits us.

The fashionable women of today can procure her garments, made up ready to put on, far more satisfactorily than having them made by a tailor to her order, and, what is more, she can select right here in Omaha at Orkin's New Specialty Store to better advantage than going to Chicago or New York.

You will find here a great variety of beautiful new models in Coats, Tailored Suits, Costumes, Street Dresses, Skirts, etc.—the very smartest styles brought out by the most noted foreign and American designers.

We show you the finished garments and you can try on as many as you like until you find just the cut, material and shade that are best suited to your particular style.

Orkin Brothers 318-320 South 16th St.

Crane's Kid Finish Wedding Stationery CRANE'S LINEN LAWN PAPER If you have a personal interest in a near future wedding we invite you to call or send for our samples. We have the latest styles in copper photo engraved invitations and announcements. The Moyer Stationery Co. 1616 Farnam Street

Stunning Spring and Summer MILLINERY In Round Hats and Turbans Values Up to $15.00 This Week, $5.00 and $7.50 F. M. SCHADELL & CO. 1522 Douglas Street

Watch Repairing There is no medium in Watch Repairing—it is either good or poor. We employ only the best workmen. Look for the name. S. W. LINDSAY, Jeweler 1516 Douglas Street.

One Week of Reductions, Beginning May 2, in Artistic Ladies' Tailoring Ladies wishing to enjoy a fashionable tailored suit, coat or gown at extremely low cost should visit L. KNETTER, Omaha's best Ladies' Tailor and Exclusive Designer. Latest approved styles and workmanship guaranteed. Full line of materials to select from. 506-S S. 16th St. Phone, Douglas 6065.

JEWELERS C.B. BROWN CO. 222 So. 16th OMAHA EXCLUSIVE SILVER FOR THE Spring Bride Chests of Silver, New, elaborate and complete. Price range graded by number of pieces you may wish. Selection can be made to suit any desired want. An elegant gift for the Spring Bride. An economical plan in buying jewelry is to go to a store where there is absolutely no question about quality. When you buy here you don't pay any more than you would at an honest store, but you're certain about the quality. That's more important in choosing diamonds, jewelry, watches and silverware than almost any other article of merchan-

C. B. Brown Co. 16th and Farnam Sts. NEW COOKING CLASS AT YOUNG WOMEN'S CHRISTIAN ASSOCIATION Short Term, Four Lessons BEGINS WEDNESDAY, MAY 3, at 8:30 O'CLOCK Subjects: Plain Pastry, Puff Pastry, Two Lessons on Salads. Fee: $1.50 for four lessons.

MR. JEAN G. JONES PIANIST AND TEACHER Leschetzky Method Pupil of Wagner Swayne, Paris STUDIO—Rooms 7-8 Davidge Bldg. $2.50 $3.95 $9.50 $6.65 One of the most interesting engagements of the spring was that of Miss Eliza Hoffman Rodewald to Mr. Gerald M. Sheriff Livingston of St. Paul, Minn., which was announced recently. Miss Rodewald is the elder daughter of Mr. William MacNeill Rodewald, and her mother, who died some years ago, was the daughter of an old New York family. After some time in Europe they will reside in York. A wedding of much interest in the southern colony in this city was that of today of Miss Edith May Russell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Russell of Atlanta, Ga., to Edward Victor Gambler of New York. The ceremony was performed at 4 o'clock this afternoon in the Church of the Incarnation. Miss Russell is one of Atlanta's popular young women and while residing in the south for a number of years, she formerly lived in this city. Mr. Gambler comes of Dressing Your Hair For the Evening (From Style and Fashion Magazine) "Frequently, after the day's work or pleasure, there is little time to dress the hair for the evening. For occasions like this, it is well to be prepared with the ever-ready and convenient dry shampoo. A most excellent shampoo is made by mixing four ounces of ether with four ounces of orris root. Keep some of this in an old talem box with sifter top, so that you can sprinkle it thinly and evenly through the hair. Brush the hair thoroughly and a clear, soft, beautiful, lustrous hair can be achieved in less than twenty minutes. "Nothing is so good as this mixture to quickly remove the day's dust. It should be remembered, too, that much water is not good for the hair and frequent washing takes out the life and color."—(Adv.)

Social Notes From New York Alice Roosevelt Longworth Will Establish a Salon on Her Return from Europe—Mrs. Henderson a Suffragette with Poor Opinion of the Antis—Mrs. Taft Now Has Her Third Social Secretary for the Term. BY MARGARET WATTS DE PEYSTER. NEW YORK, April 30.—(Special to The Bee.)—While the Gould-Drexel wedding stands as the foremost of the season, that of Miss Mathilde T. Townsend to Peter Goelet Gerry next month will rank very close to it. The Gould-Drexel wedding was one of display linking two socially prominent and very rich families, but the Townsend-Gerry wedding is one linking one of the oldest of the Knickerbocker families to a young woman who has been courted by almost as many of the royalty of Europe as Miss Marie Louise Gould was. The noblemen who was the most persistent suitor for Miss Townsend's hand was the Spanish duke of Alba, a grandee whose title is one of the oldest in Europe. Peter Gerry's marriage is as notable a case, however, as that of Miss Gould's was because it seems to show that the rich