

Fashions in House Painting

By Ernest Trigg, Director of Bureau of Promotion and Publicity of the Paint Manufacturers' Association of the United States of America.

Fashion rules the universe with a strong hand. Styles of fashions either consciously or unconsciously permeate our entire existence. They appeal to women with peculiar force—

ENGLISH AND AMERICAN GIRLS

Marked Contrasts in Education, Training, Sentiment and Environment.

There cannot be a greater contrast than that between a young girl in England and a young girl in America. The former is afraid of herself, afraid of her men, and of life. She turns to the past for guidance while watching the future with timid hope.

BUSINESS, NOT CURIOSITY

New Yorkers Who Watched the Gould-Drexel Guests Watched Fashion Hints.

Before the rest of the country makes the usual comments on the behavior of the women who crowded the sidewalks and street near St. Bartholomew's church and defied rain and the police in an apparently frantic desire to see something of the big Gould-Drexel wedding, which took place there.

BEAUTY SECRET GIVEN AWAY

"Eat, Sleep and Live Well." Signposts on the Highway of Vanity. To be very beautiful is a very simple matter—like with stars, coral lips, pearly teeth and all.

The Actors' Fund Fair

The Actors' Fund fair, which runs throughout the week of May 9 and in which I have already told something, is the last of the great charitable bazaars for which society will stand sponsor this spring.

Young Viscount of Maldstone

Young viscount of Maldstone, who marries Miss Margaretta Drexel in London on June 8 will, in the course of time, inherit one of the most picturesque old baronial homes in England.

Colonel Astor

Colony Astor doesn't go in for horsecar, but he owns more automobiles than any other man in America, and he delights in mechanical affairs.

Not the Fish He Caught

"Ray," said Baitman, as he passed the fish dealer's stand, "send up a couple of nice bass to the house tomorrow."
