Dr. Vaughn Finishes Story

Practically all of the morning session of the Hyde trial was consumed in the cross-examination of Dr. Victor C. Vaughn by Attorney Frank E. Walsh. The defense relinquished the witness a few minutes before noon. The state announced that it would briefly question the physician in the afternoon and afterward call Mrs. Logan O. Swope its last witness.

Mrs. Swope Begins Story

Colonel's Last Illness. Of the last illness of Colonel Swope, Mrs. Swope said: "While Dr. Hyde, Miss Keller and I were at breakfast in the morning of October 2, the doctor gave her a capsule, to administer to Colonel Swope. They went out and upon returning the nurse told me Mrs. Swope had not taken the medicine, but would later."

Get Acquainted With Our Clothes. Tennyson could take a worthless piece of paper, write a poem on it and make it worth $50,000. THAT'S GENIUS. Rockefeller could write a few words on a slip of paper and make it worth $5,000,000. THAT'S CAPITAL. The makers of our superior clothes take choice fabrics and tailor you for $15, $18, $20, $22.50 and $25, the handsomest suits your eyes ever rested upon. THAT'S SKILL. You can come here and get something a little better for considerably less money than anywhere else. THAT'S BUSINESS. The Berg Clothing Co. THE DOUGLASS
