

CONNOR JURORS MAKE REPLY

Eight Members of Panel Declare Their Good Faith.

INSIST THE VERDICT WAS JUST

John Britt Sets Forth Statement of Decision Was Reached After Honest and Painstaking Deliberation.

Eight members of the Connor jury make affidavits in district court in reply to the affidavits filed the other day by counsel for the proponents in support of a motion for a new trial.

The first of these affidavits is by John Britt, a brother of the attorney of that name. Mr. Britt carries the war in Africa and asserts that whatever religious discussion got into the case was interjected there by C. J. Smyth of counsel for the proponents.

Britt swears that "the verdict is the result of a deliberate and honest conviction, based upon the evidence and nothing else; that Joseph A. Connor deliberately destroyed his will."

The other jurors swear that they have read Britt's affidavits and affirm that they believe that anything was said in the jury room about "the church having property enough; that the church did not need the property in dispute and that therefore the heirs ought to have it."

The jurors likewise write in saying they did not hear an elderly woman walk out of the court room saying "It is a lie," with reference to C. J. Smyth, who was then addressing the jury.

The jurors making affidavits besides Britt are Charles H. Allen, J. R. E. Moore, P. J. Traher, Harry H. Hunsicker and A. Myer.

These affidavits are filed by J. J. Sullivan and James P. Keenan, counsel for the Connor heirs, and the two attorneys join themselves in an affidavit.

Campen Shies at Bathing Suits

Assistant City Engineer Does Not Warm to Sheldon's Request for Specifications.

Councilman Sheldon, as censor of the bathing costumes to be worn by swimmers at the Omaha Rod and Gun club, has requested Assistant City Engineer Campen to prepare drawings and make patterns for a proper suit, but Campen is not enthusiastic over the job.

"My work, as I understood it, was to be engineering," said Mr. Campen. "While I have some knowledge of draftsmanship, still I hesitate to tackle this assignment. Now, if the design were to be for a bathing suit on the isthmus of Panama I could handle it without much trouble, but to make designs and patterns for a self-conscious people is entirely different. At the isthmus a desire to swim and perhaps a coral necklace would be the limit of equipment."

"Here, I am given to understand, there must be a foundation and on top of that an apron or some such thing, with the footings covered by opaque material and the wings quite exposed."

"For a man any other man can design a bathing suit that will set off his good points just the way he desires, but for a woman, they tell me, the idea is to conceal, or not more than half reveal, the good points. That problem will give me some study. City Engineer Craig is a high officer in the Rod and Gun club and he will have to shoulder the heavy end of this design for stop-short clothes that will not be condemned by Councilman Sheldon."

Eberhart Coming Here Unannounced

Minnesota's Governor to Stop Off for a Family Visit on His Way to Omaha.

Governor Eberhart of Minnesota has written President Ryder of the Central Republican club that he does not care to have a reception committee meet him at the depot, when he comes for the republican banquet Monday night. The governor says in his letter:

"My folks live in Nebraska and I may make them a visit on my way to Omaha. It is therefore impossible for me to tell when I will arrive. I will report immediately upon my arrival, so that the club need not go to any trouble in looking after me. I am anticipating a good deal of pleasure from the gathering you are arranging."

Governor Eberhart is a man of most democratic spirit, say those who know him, and by his conduct in the difficult position in which he was placed on the death of Governor Johnson, has almost made his nomination by acclamation a foregone conclusion.

Tickets for the banquet are still being called for in most conspicuous fashion, and the capacity of the Rona banquet hall will probably be tested to the limit.

Chief Donahue to Stop Speeding

Says Chauffeurs Must Quit Using Farnam Street as a Speedway.

Chief Donahue has declared this the open season for motor speeders.

"I have noticed," remarked the chief, "that there are a lot of chauffeurs out in the West Farnam district who take their houses down to the offices in the morning in a very decorous manner and then proceed to hit 'er up at about seventy-one and two-thirds miles an hour on the return trip."

"I have issued orders now for the officers to arrest a bunch of these chaps and put them in jail. Put them there and keep them long enough to let them know there is really something doing."

"Then there is a bunch of kids who own fast motor cycles who seem to think that Farnam street is a specially constructed speedway for their exclusive benefit. Unless they are able to run away from our motor cycle squad, we'll tug some of those young hopefuls, too."
