AFFAIRS AT SOUTH OMAHA

Mayor Trainor Issues His Mothers' Day Proclamation.

MILK TESTS SHOW UP DEALERS
Inspection Shows Only Few Dairy-men Are Complying with Regulations of City Ordinance Recently Passed.

Mayor P. J. Trainor issued the following proclamation relative to Mother's day yesterday:

It is particularly gratifying to Ne-braskans to know that the youngest holiday, "Mother's day," received its first national recognition, by our commonwealth, and that following the initiative taken by Nebraska the governors of nearly every state in the union, now recognize May 8 as a holiday.

The idea of "Mother's day" is one of the highest and purest sentiments that has enthralled the hearts of men; a beautiful tribute to the noblest of mothers. In recognition therefore of this pure sentiment, I, Patrick J. Trainor, mayor of the city of South Omaha, do hereby designate and set apart Sunday, May 8, 1910, the same to be known as "Mother's day," and I call upon every citizen of this city to show an appreciation and recognition of the lofty sentiment contemplated in this idea, and to suggest that wearing the flowers on the day, would be the visiting of the sick and the afflicted, and the giving of flowers to those who may need such tokens, that the poor in hospitals, and the unfortunate in prison be remembered, and further suggest, I recommend such other and further observations of this day, as to make of it a great service to mankind, and at the same time assist in giving "Mother's day" a permanent place in the list of Nebraska's holidays.

Bernard Scarr Dead.
Bernard E. Scarr, 19 years old, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Scarr, died at 2 p. m. Friday after an illness of over six months. The young man during the last few years has been beset by more than the ordinary ailments of youth and seemed prone to attacks. Last fall he contracted an obstinate case of typhoid fever. From this, he never fully recovered, although at one time he appeared to have gained the mastery over it. Later this and complications sapped his vitality until he finally succumbed. His father, C. E. Scarr, is one of the leading druggists and business men of the city. Mrs. Scarr is well known in the society of the women as a leader in their affairs. Many friends will sympathize with them in their grief. Bernard Scarr was their only son.

Milk Tests Show up Dealers.
The mayor ordered a number of milk tests made during the last few days. Most of the dealers were required to give sample bottles from their wagons. When the tests were completed it was discovered that only about three of the twenty-two or twenty-three of the city were selling milk which was up to the standard of purity and of percentage of butter fat and oils. The mayor has put the evidence in the hands of the city attorney to take steps which may be necessary to remedy these defects.

Church Services.
Most of the churches will hold services Sunday morning, especially observing "Mother's Day."

A. G. Laidlaw will conduct the services at the Baptist church in the absence of Rev. George Van Winkle, who is in Chicago.

Services at Letter's church will begin at 11 a. m. Sunday, conducted by Rev. T. M. Ransom. In the evening Rev. George Pinches, evangelist, will speak. Evangelistic services will continue through the week. "They Key Note of Progress" will be Rev. A. G. Write's Sunday morning topic. Holy Communion will be observed at 8 a. m.

W. L. Cullen will conduct the services at St. Clement's mission, his topic being the "Ascension of Christ."

Brown, former publisher of the Biencoe Herald, is charged with seduction, the complaining witness being Miss Myrtle McKibbin, a girl 17 years of age. She charges him as being the father of her baby born last September. Brown, aside from being publisher of a paper, was also connected with the Biencoe postoffice where the girl was employed. He pleaded not guilty and gave bonds in the sum of $1,000 for his appearance in the next term of the district court.

An indictment was also found against Martin Nealis of near Biencoe, who is charged with assaulting Mrs. Pearl Cooper.

Cannon Loudly Cheered on Eve of His Birthday

"Uncle Joe" Reaches Ripe Old Age of 74, and is Toasted at Metropolitan Club.

WASHINGTON, May 7.—"Uncle Joe" Cannon was loudly cheered, and when he declared that tomorrow he would be 74 years old, was toasted at a banquet at the Metropolitan club, given by the California delegation now in this city to urge the selection of San Francisco for the holding in 1915 of the exposition on the completion of the Panama canal.

"If God would let me live," said Mr. Cannon, "to journey across the desert, although it is no longer a desert, to the Pacific coast to dance the Virginia reel to commemorate the great event of the completion of the Panama canal and the accomplishment of the commercial supremacy of the United States over the entire world, I would be very happy."

Governor Gillett of California, who presided at the banquet, said that if "Uncle Joe" would come to California in 1915 they would declare a holiday for a week. About 100 Pacific coast congressmen and others were present.

Young Man Walks, Bullet in Brain

Henry Blaskovec of South Omaha Able to Go to Doctor—Probably Fatally Hurt.

Henry Blaskovec, thirty-seventh and Madison streets, South Omaha, shot himself yesterday afternoon and is now at the South Omaha hospital with a bullet in his brain. The shot did not render him unconscious and he walked to a car and rode to a doctor's office and went to the hospital without losing consciousness.

Blaskovec said he was cleaning a revolver preparing to do some shooting and had reached up on a shelf to get some cartridges when several dropped to the floor. One of these, he said, exploded and the ball struck him exactly in the center of the chin in the fleshy part behind the arch of the lower maxillary bone. It passed up through his tongue, through the roof of the mouth just in front of the soft palate and into the brain an inch forward of the joining of the medulla. The exact course after reaching the brain could not be determined as the doctor fears to probe for it.

After being hit by the bullet, Blaskovec, who is a young man of 30 walked ten blocks to the Q street car line and rode to Dr. Edwin Chaloupka's office at Twenty-fourth and M streets. When he arrived there he was perfectly clear mentally and told of the accident.

As to the final outcome of the case the physician expressed little hope of ultimate recovery, but said it was a possibility. He was also of the opinion that the shot was from a revolver owing to the penetrating force of the bullet and believed the boy told the story of dropping the cartridges because he was ashamed to admit he had been careless in playing with the revolver. He was convinced that the shot was purely accidental.

Mr. Bryan Applies Whip to Henchmen

Nebraskan Said to Have Declared Hitchcock and Shallenberger Must Come to Time.

William Jennings Bryan is said to have notified friends of Congressman Gilbert M. Hitchcock that Mr. Hitchcock must either fish or cut bait on the initiative and referendum. Mr. Bryan also has served notice on Governor Shallenberger that the governor must resign into time if he expects to be re-elected through Bryan backing.

Luke-warm reception by these and other democrats of Mr. Bryan's latest political panacea has stirred Mr. Bryan considerably, according to reports from Fairview, and he is now insisting that these other democratic leaders fall into line. Mr. Hitchcock is declared on the best authority to have been warned that he need not hope to be elected senator or even nominated if the congressman-editor does not crook the pregnant hinges of the knee to the new Bryan propaganda.

It is announced that Mr. Bryan has entirely abandoned what idea he may have had of a trip to Scotland and will devote sixty days to a stump campaign in behalf of his initiative and referendum scheme.

RAIN DOES NOT DAMPEN ARDOR AT THE WISE FAIR

Patronage at Booths Keeps Up in Spite of Weather—Today's Features.

Patronage of the booths at the Wise Memorial fair and bazaar Friday night was not dampened by the weather and another big crowd came out to enjoy the evening. Five numbers of the stage proved to be an attraction and the individual showing was given emphasis by a number of pupils from the Brandeis-Boyd teachers' school of acting who presented "The Circus Rider," a farce comedy.

A musical recitation, "It Looks Like Something the Cat Brought In," and "Foolish Questions" by Miss Gladys Thompson proved the applause of the audience and Prof. Chambers' dancing specialties proved no less popular.

For this afternoon the Japanese operetta, "Miss Chrysanthemum," which proved a popular earlier in the week, will be put on again.
