AFFAIRS AT SOUTH OMAHA

Pioneers Planning Big Celebration for Bellevue Day.

DEMAND FOR HALF HOLIDAY

Henry Ziegler Thinks More of Job Than of Court and Will Be Haled Before Tribunal Today.

The last meeting of the South Omaha Pioneer Historical society was held last evening and aside from the regular program the organization advanced some of the arrangements for the proposed picnic and celebration of the centennial of the establishment of the Bellevue trading post, which is to be held June 23.

This day promises to be a remarkable one and will mark a great gathering of pioneers from all parts of the state. The South Omaha organization appointed a committee to wait on the mayor and the city council and ask for the proclamation of a half holiday in South Omaha in honor of the occasion. The same committee will also present the matter of securing a holiday for the South Omaha mail carriers to the postmaster so that arrangements may be made if practicable to allow the carriers to attend.

The program last night consisted of well rendered selections by the South Omaha High school orchestra and selections by the Pioneer quartet. The speaker expected, Eugene Mayfield, was unable to be present so the several addresses were voluntary. Miss Georgina Davis, with Miss Gladys Van Sant as accompanist, rendered the pleasant lyrical song, "When Mabel Sings." Miss Davis rapidly improves as a musical entertainer. After the song the audience pleaded for more. The orchestra is worthy of notice for this organization is said to be the most successful high school organization of its kind in the state.

Mrs. A. D. Majors pleased the audience greatly by reciting "The Wood Tecks" and "Speaking Up Johnson." Both the selections were humorous and familiar lines of contemporary poets.

J. T. Farnsworth, George Anderson, J. J. Green, E. G. Rozelle and David Anderson made short addresses. Most of these men spoke on some point in the matter of the celebration of June 23 and the members of the association paused after each address to pass the motion suggested by the speaker. Mr. Farnsworth departed from the usual paths of discussion at these meetings and suggested that the people of the city have something more to do than to preserve memories and that among other needed reforms that of the election of federal judges by the people was needed. His argument was not extended on the point, being intended only as a suggestion. When the meeting adjourned it was decided to meet again the last Tuesday evening of October.

Case of Contempt of Court.

A case of contempt of court was developed in police court yesterday when Henry Ziegler was arrested for refusing to appear in court when served with a subpoena. He is an Austrian and considered his obligation to his employer of greater importance than the demands of the court. He stayed at his job and was served with a bench warrant and charged with contempt. He said: "I have to keep my job, don't I?"

The court has not yet given him trial. This case will probably be heard this morning. The judge will probably pass sentence on him forthwith upon his appearance.

Alleged Tool Thieves Caught.

T. J. Hullis and H. E. Dilly were arrested yesterday and the latter is charged with petit larceny. The former is suspected as an accomplice. The case was the alleged theft of property from Fred Parks. An outfit used by painters was stolen and Parks suspected these men of the act. They were not readily located at first, but later returned to South Omaha.

Increase in Cattle.

The South Omaha market shows a smart increase in the receipts of cattle this year. The increase has been about 26,000 head since the beginning. The prices have remained fair. In hogs a great decrease, amounting already to $27,000 head, is noted. Prices have been lower during the last week, but yesterday they were considerably advanced. The tops reached $3.31. This is the highest paid for three weeks. The receipts of sheep have fallen off slightly. A few days of good receipts will still remedy this loss.

Powers Will Appeal.

Captain Peter Powers does not intend to abide by the decision of the Fire and Police board and claims that his discharge from service was illegal. Captain Powers says that he was given no trial and that the action of the board was purely arbitrary and will not stand. He will contest its decision.
