Temporarily, when the wheat market seemed about to give way in earnest, the most talked of matter was a dispatch from Duluth asserting that the May and cash wheat trade there was "sick" and that earned without trouble. Reports of rain in the candian northwest added to the difficulties of the bulls. Just in the nick of time for the bulls a telegram arrived disclosing that a prominent firm in Chicago was selfing May wheat in Duluth and delivering the stuff immediately. The situation then improved and closed firm at $1.00@1.00% for the hulls and closed firm at $1.00@1.00% for the hul securities is coming to be verified. This forms a continuing influence in favor of the whole financial situation.

A good deal of attention was paid to the copper metal market, and there were many rumors current of developments in that trade. Official information of copper transcactions beyond the publication of the statistics of the Copper Producers' association is not to be had. The price of the metal advanced again here, but fell back in London. Last month's large accumulation was attributed mostly to the leading interest, and its control was said to have increased sufficiently as a consequence to enable it to exact the better prices from some of the recent buyers. A somewhat better tone also was said to be growing up in the iron market. The record lake shipments of ore for April came into the discussion of the trade position.

Brooklyn Transit was the subject of dividend rumors. Wabash was affected by the revival of old rumors of new control. Adjustment of the trunk line dispute over import freight rates and proposed increases in suburban passenger rates out of New the whole financial situation.

"That's good. Give me the money.
tell me the amount of your fee and it

"My fees are $10. I have given you credit for the $5 collected; pay me another $5 and we'll be square."
"What?" gasped the man. "I don't see where I make anything by collecting the debt." "Nothing my dear sir, from a money point of view, but you have the satisfaction of knowing that a dishonest man has been brought to justice."—Columbian Magazine.
