BATTING AVERAGES FATTENED

folland's Team Does Not Make Strong Showing on Its First Appearance This Year at Vinton Street Park.

One big slugfest was dished up at Vinton park Saturday in which the Rourkes did most of the slugging. The Omaha team piled up a score of 20 to 8 against the St. Joseph bunch, Almost every man of the Rourke team fattened his batting average on the Holland pitchers and when the last inning was over were anxious for more. two hills were made off Watson and Omah did not get into a serious state of mind until the third. Kane started to do things by hitting a nice little single, which was followed by a safety by Corridon. With two on base Harry Welch picked out his trusty willow, and after looking over a couple of nice ones, hit a fast one over the right field fence, clearing the bases. SCORES ALL COME IN NINTH Capiain Schipke dropped a single over SCORES ALL COME IN NINTH thurt, but died on base when Gonding flew out to center field. This inning netted the that won the game. The next big inning was the seventh. Weich got away with a two-bagger and scored on Schipke's single. Gonding got a hit, went to second when Watson passed Keeley. Shotton hit a single over second and put John on third and Keeley on sec-Gonding was tagged at the plate when Fox hit a slow one in front of the home station and went to first. King got a base on balls and Kane grabbed a single, which scored Fox. Mr. Corridon looked over a couple of Mr. Baker's best and him a two bagger between third and short, n the eighth the Omaha players were there with the batting cloths and annexed three more to the total runs and cinched
