Colliett and Mrs. Paul Wernher, luncheon for Miss Eloise Wood

The festivities at Happy Hollow last e ening when this popular club was officially declared ready to administer to the summer pleasures of its members, were participated in and enjoyed by more than 509 of its members. Following dinner, which was served at 5:30 and 7 o'clock, a program of dancing and music was given. This program included a pretty Maypole dance given by Misses Carrie Kahn, Mabel Kahn, Helen Keating, Minerva Quinby, Frances Dennison, Marle Phelan, Marle Walcott, Cecil Cheney, Gladys Fowler and Hazel Fowler and solo dances by Misses Chency, Leona Fleming, Isabelle McDonald, Helen Framsden, Eleanor Keating and Ruth Thompson. The music numbers given were quartets by Misses Nettle William. Ollie Burnett, Helen Crowe and Alice Chandler; duets by Misses Marie Brandels and Nell Donohue. The usual dance program followed. As in former years Tuesdays and Thursdays will be luncheon days for the women of the club and Tuesdays and Saturdays has returned to her home, Two Harbors, dinner-dance evenings.
