

We Are Shoeists to most of Omaha's Women!

Tomorrow! A landslide $2.45 of intense values in ladies' NEW low cuts at.

We say "new" to forewarn you that THIS special selling includes ONLY such ladies' shoes as ARE new—just from the factories—regular—clean—perfectly shined—absolutely made "low cuts."

The same, don't-happen-every-day-sort-of-a-special $2.45 shoe event will include ladies' patent 5-hole Oxford tie also—plain toe lasts that fairly bubble with fresh style—and the same lasts may be had in dull leathers.

TO Morrow you'll be willing to admit that you HAVEN'T seen gun metal pumps like those we will offer at $2.45—snappy, dainty kinds with square leather bows and short foreparts—and we offer something similar in patent leather.

But we will PROMISE some huge values tomorrow—at $2.45 per pair—with no charges or deliveries.

Patent kid 2-hole English tie oxfords will be here at $2.45, too. Low cut ideas that have CAUGHT the attention of the BETTER dressers.

A Little Different From the Rest

Are the men who are wearing "Berg's Clothing", made and designed by Schloss Bros., Steinbloch, and the Society Brand clothes for young men. There's a certain indefinable air of style and elegance about these master tailored clothes "not found" in others, a little more tone, a little more class, a little more distinction, a whole lot more service, and they don't cost you a cent more than the common kinds that most stores sell via the "hot air" methods—

$15, $18, $20,
$22.50, $25, Etc.

BRITONS GIVE UP ROYAL DEAD

Body of King Edward Lies in Crypt of St. George's Chapel.

MULTITUDE VIEWS THE PAGEANT

Casket Escorted to Railroad Station by Procession in Which All Nations of the World Are Represented.

throughout the length of half a mile were unbroken stretches of temporarily erected stands filled to their capacity with black-garbed humanity.

The route was lined with thousands of troops, behind whom were massed countless thousands of people in deep black, on the pavements below and the house fronts above, with the balconies, windows and roofs crowded.

Every branch of the defensive forces of the empire was represented in the long column which preceded the gun carriage.

The king rode between the German emperor and the duke of Connaught, all in brilliant uniforms, and next in line was the group of rulers, heirs to the throne, princes of great state and special ambassadors.

SERVICES IN WINDSOR CASTLE

Full Ritual of the Church of England Is Used.

WINDSOR, May 20.—It was a bitter winter day when the body of Queen Victoria was borne up the hill to the mediaeval chapel of St. George. Today the castle gates at Windsor opened to receive the casket of the seventh Edward with the green of an English spring on the trees and grass within the massive walls.

The clergy who were to conduct the services were in the chapel when the cortege arrived. They were the archbishop of Canterbury, the archbishop of York, the bishops of Winchester and Oxford and the dean of Windsor, the three latter, respectively, the prelate, chancellor and registrar of the Garter.

The casket was placed on a purple catafalque before the altar, which was fairly buried in floral pieces.

As the minute-guns boomed and bells tolled the casket, borne on the shoulders of Grenadier Guards, was placed on the catafalque. The lord chamberlain and the lord steward took positions at the right of the catafalque. King George, as chief mourner, stood at the head of the casket.

His majesty's body guard of gentlemen-at-arms stood at the left of the bier with axes reversed. The funeral party filled the edifice and overflowed into the prince consort's chapel to the south.

Twelve Eligible for O. H. S. Honors

Six of These to Be Chosen to Speak at the Commencement Exercises.

Twelve names were announced at the Omaha high school Friday as those whose essays had won in the contest for the commencement exercises.

Police Discover Cure for Drink

Minneapolis Inebriates Are Sentenced to Be Taken Home to Their Wives.

"In Minneapolis we take drunken men home instead of to jail," said Frank T. Corriston, chief of police at that city.

"Well, we always advise wives to be lenient," he replied.

ELECTION CASE NEARING END

But Three Precincts to Come in South Omaha Contest.

RESULT REMAINS UNCERTAIN

Count Falls of Obvious Points of Advantage—Some Wards Show Vote Larger Than the Poll List.

But three more precincts remain to be counted in county court in the South Omaha election contests.

In the second precinct of the Third ward the number of ballots in excess is two, and two of those who voted and whose names are not on the poll book were produced in court Friday morning by Murdock & Hancock.

Both men, Arthur Strunge and James Carr, swore that they voted and similar evidence was given by Henry Ryan, one of the judges of election in this precinct.

With the three precincts to count, Peterson is fourteen votes ahead of Larkin and Miller leads Elliott by ten votes.

T. J. Kelly, contestant for the seat on the excise board held by J. J. Ryan, gained three votes during the morning, but this will not help much, for Ryan is still more than 100 ahead.
