McAlcese Chooses Two-Bagger and Sets Pushed to Counting Spot by Beals' Hit-Wichita Sunday.

Harry Welch got up in the fourth inning and did it. eH slapped a threebagger over into right field just south of center and sewed up the game. With the assistance of his teammates, especially Melier, the big boy who came from the Cardinals, he won the game from Denver by a score of 4 to 1.

Omaha played as fine a fielding game as has been seen on the local grounds, dewpite the fact that the ground was heavy. Not an error was made by the Rourkes. Melter was effective and hald the Grizzlies down to four hits, so scattered that out one score resulted. In the sixth, two double sackers were culled by Beall and McABese while the other two hits which wtre singles were so widely separated hat they did not worry the Rourkes at

Hagerman, from Chicago Cubs, was close with his hits and but for the fourth inning when a single and a triple netted three tailes and in the seventh, whith he hit Shotton and allowed a single which scored a run, it would have been a real pitcher's battle. He was free with his bases on balls, but only one pass that he handed out gave the Omaha team a

Infield in Trim.

The Rourke infield played tight ball and the Grizzlies had to get a real hit to get on bases. Neither side was offered the spectacular chances which have made two games of the series so interesting to the fans. Only once was a real warm eighth when McAlceso hit a swift grounder along the third base line. Captain Schipke made a run for the ball and to throw to first, but he made the attempt and threw it low to Kane who made a beautiful stop that sent the runner
