One publishing house in New York has issued $9,000,000 copies of the Bible and is printing more than 1,000,000 copies a year. The philology of the enterprise is not its least interesting feature. The Bible is printed in fifty ianguages, in its entirety, and portions of the sacred book are printed in 400 tongues and dialects throughout the world. These unprecedented publications represent actual sales, and not gratuitous distribution—it being understood, of course, that while millions of copies have been given away, they were all originally purtain the publishing house.

Women parishioners of the Church of $t. Mary at Bensonhurst. L. L., must either eschew the current enormous varieties of spring millinery or stay away from church. Their pastor, Rev. Charles Wighman, says, "Our church is able to accommodate only 275 persons. Women with big hats take up twice as much room as is necessary to seat them. The hats make it difficult for men either to obtain seats or two women have difficulty in one pew and often it is necessary for one wornan to occupy an entire seat. The small hat is the hat for churchgoing."
