OMAHA SLUGGERS BAT HARD

Aitchison Taken Out in Fifth and Shaner Sent In.

THEN ROURKES GOT REAL BUSY

In Eighth Shaner Was Hit Five Times for Six Runs and the Whole Omaha Team Batted Around,

Omaha pounded Altchison and Shaner good and hard Monday afternoon and won from Wighita by a score of 13 to 4. In fact, the Rourkes pounded Attchison so hard that Isbell took him by the hand in the fifth with one down and led him to the bench and blanketed him. Shaner was waved to the box with majestic ges ture by the hald-headed manager, and he went along fine for two innings. In the eighth, which was Omaha's last time to bat, he was jumped upon by Pa's sluggers and touched up for five hits that counted six runs. Captain Schipke was the first to face him in this session and the last . Omaha batted around and one over. It was an excellent chance to fatbatting averages and most of the Rourkes took advantage of the opportun-

Schipke sacrificed. Gonding came forth with his second hit, a single, and scored Corridon and Welch. Keeley was walked, but died on base after Shotton and Fox went out on grounders.

In the next inning King wielded his bat properly for a single, and Kane brought him in with a dandy three-bagger. Corridon hit a high one to Belden, who caught it, but Kane crossed the plate before the ball could be thrown to the catcher. Welch singled and went to third when Schipke hit a safe one along the third-base line The ball was thrown to Shaw at the plate and he muffed it as Welch slid across the plate. Schipke went to third on the play Hede Shaner was sent into the box. Gonding hit one to labell, who caught the captain at home base. With Gonding on first, Keeley fanned. This was all until the Captain Bill Started Fireworks.

Schipke started the sad affair by floating a two-bagger over in left field. He then stole third, "Kid" Gonding followed the example of his captain and whacked a single in the same direction and Skipper scored. Keeley did not want to appear indifferent to the chance to do something for his country and dropped a hit between second and third. With Gonding on third and Keeley on first Shotton got the single habit and placed one beyond third, which scored Gonding.
