C. S. Blum, of Omaha attorney, was called upon to find the possibilities of legal action. He declared that the United States should be imposed to bring action against the various, charging that the agreement constituted an illegal combination in restraint of trade and simultaneous infringement made to the Interstate Commerce Commission. His suggestion became practically the decision of the meeting after considerable discussion.

John M. Glenn, representing the Illinois manufacturers of Chicago, made a fiery speech in which he declared in favor of criminal prosecution.

CANDIDATES DODGE PROHIBITION

Evasive Answers Sent in By Applicants for Office—Carroll Makes Charges Against Cowley.

(From a Staff Correspondent.)

DES MOINES, Ia., May 23.—(Special Telegram.)—Luther West, alias Tommy Rogers, who is charged with being a member of the famous Mabray gang, was taken into custody and turned over to the custody of a United States marshal in Des Moines and placed in jail. West, who is accused of having acted as one of the "steerers" for the Mabray gang, was arrested at Webb City, Mo., a few days ago and was brought to Des Moines this morning under orders of the federal court.

From the replies to the letters sent out the first of the month by the Iowa Constitutional Prohibitory Amendment association to the candidates for election in the thirty-fourth general assembly asking whether or not they would support the prohibition issue, it would seem that the democratic nominees are dodging the issue. Out of the democratic candidates but twenty-one were in favor of resubmission, while twenty-two evaded the question or refused to respond. Of the republican candidates seventy-two were in favor of prohibition and four were against. Five socialist candidates were in favor of prohibition and eleven did not report.

Carroll Makes Charges.

Governor B. F. Carroll, in a statement issued today, avers that John Cowley, resigned member of the State Board of Education, permitted immoral conditions to prevail at the Mitchellville State Industrial school under the former superintendent, that he purchased goods for state institutions without asking bids as the statute requires and that he shipped fifty-five tuberculin cattle to Omaha in violation of the federal statute, costing the state $32, to settle with the Cudahy Packing company.

SHIP SINKS IN LAKE HURON

Steamer Frank H. Goodyear Run Down by the Frank H. Wood.

SEVENTEEN PERSONS DROWNED

Vessel Goes Down in Three Hundred Feet of Water and Only Six Persons Are Saved, So Far as Known.

PORT HURON, Mich., May 21.—(Special Telegram.)—A collision of two big steel freight steamers on Lake Huron, north of Point Aux Barques, in a dense fog Monday morning. News of the collision reached here today.

The steamer Frank H. Goodyear of Cleveland, was sunk in forty-seven fathoms of water. The Frank H. Wood of Cleveland, which struck the Goodyear bow on, came into Port Huron harbor today with a big hole in its bow, carrying half a dozen survivors from the Goodyear. The latter carried a crew of twenty-three men and several passengers.

Captain F. R. Heminger of Algonac, Mich., who commanded the Goodyear, Chief Engineer Gibson, Steward David Hassett, one wheelman and two passengers, Mrs. Thomas H. Bassett and her daughter, of Marine City, Mich., were saved and brought to Port Huron on the steamer Wood.

The only hope of the survival of the others who were on board the Goodyear lies in the possibility of their having been rescued by the steamer Sir William Siemens, which was near the scene of the wreck and is due at Detroit and Sault Ste. Marie today.

The Goodyear was struck amidship on the starboard side while the bow of the Wood was punctured.

In a moment it was seen that the Goodyear was doomed, as it began rapidly to fill with water. Everyone on board was supplied with a life preserver and every effort was made to man and launch the small boats. But the water poured into the hold so fast that the heavy hatches were forced from their frames by the pressure from underneath and shot into the air in every direction and the falling hatches added terror to the crew and passengers.

With his infant child in his arms, Steward Bassett had almost reached safety in one of the life boats when one of the tumbling hatches struck the baby from his arms. The little one fell into the lake and was drowned, despite the frantic efforts of its father to rescue it.

Steamer Owned in Cleveland.

CLEVELAND, O., May 21.—According to the information received by the Gilchrist Transportation company here, owners of the James B. Wood, the steamer which is reported sunk, was the Frank H. Goodyear, owned by Captain John Mitchell, also of this city. It carried a crew of twenty-three men in charge of Captain F. R. Heminger of Algonac, Mich.

Captain Mitchell received word from Captain Heminger by telephone this morning. He reported that two boats collided in the fog twenty-seven miles south of Thunder Bay at 6 o'clock last night, and that the Goodyear sank in forty-seven fathoms of water.

Captain Mitchell received no word as to the fate of the crew.

The Frank H. Goodyear was a modern steel steamer and was 436 feet long. Six members of the crew of the Goodyear, including Captain Heminger, were rescued by the steamer Wood and taken to Port Huron, according to word received at the Gilchrist office.

As the Goodyear is said to have had twenty-three men aboard, the number thought to have been drowned is seventeen.

That some of the crew of the Goodyear were rescued by the steamer Sir William Siemens was announced at the offices of the Gilchrist company. The Siemens is up-bound, and until it reaches the Soo, some time today, it will not be known how many were saved by that vessel. The crew of the Goodyear was shipped at Chicago.

town and city is a state booster and every newspaper a self-appointed advertising medium for South Dakota lands. They want to see everyone in their home state get together and work for Nebraska, increasing the population per square mile, making the agricultural possibilities known, that lands may be more valuable and per capita wealth increased.

Chairman David Cole of the executive committee of the Commercial club has also authorized a telegram from Omaha, inviting the newspaper men to meet in Omaha next year. The 100 hundred business men on the train have pledged the editors their individual support and combined influence to get immigration work and state advertising started. They mean business, and the next legislature will be covered up with requests for appropriations to do such work from Omaha, as well as from other parts of the state, where the work has been wanted for years.

Several hundred sheep bells, with their labels changed to read, "Ring for Nebraska," have been sent to the press association. F. I. Ellick of the Omaha Printing company, who is to speak at Lincoln, is leaving the party today for the meeting there.

Route for Wednesday.

The last day of the excursion of the trade boosters begins with a ten-minute stop at Winston on the Bonanza line Wednesday morning. Then the party will visit the towns and cities from there to Dallas, where they will spend the evening. After the reception and meetings planned in that city the moving picture show and unloading of advertising matter "taps" will be sounded by the band and the Omahans will board the train, which will run to Omaha during the night, arriving at the Union depot at 8:30 o'clock Thursday morning, after having covered more than 2,500 miles.
