

JUDGMENTS

OMAHA, NEB., SUNDAY, MAY 29, 1910

THE country has been so scoured for several seasons for available big league talent that it is hard to find...

Observing fans must have been struck before this with the fact that four games have been played this year in this or any other league that could be classed as close contests...

Isbell is said to contemplate retirement from active work on the field and manage his team from the bench if he recruits Koehler, makes good at first...

Dick Cooley is quoted in one of the Topeka papers as attributing his failure to win games on the recent eastern trip to adverse decisions of the umpires...

Unless the New York Americans are playing ahead of their game they have a chance for the flag. They are certainly going a fast clip...

It is not necessary to believe that the fight is fixed to come to the realization that moving pictures showing a black man whipping a white man would have very little market value in the north, east or west and none in the south...

CONTROL IS THE BIG THING

Pitching is a Simple Matter as Compared to Good Delivery.

ANY SMALL BOY CAN PITCH

Spitter is a Great Ball to Use in a Pinch to Strike Out the Opponent—Headwork Counts for Much.

CHICAGO, May 28.—"Any small boy can pitch the spitball with a little practice," says Harry McIntire. "But pitching and control are two vastly different arts. It's a simple matter to take a base ball, moisten two fingers, and hurl the object toward a batsman...

While it is bad economy to stint the lubricating oil, it is a very common fault to use a great deal too much. This is not only wasteful, but tends to foul the valves, sparking plugs and platinum contacts...
