

Council Bluffs GRAND JURY ENDS ITS WORK Returns Thirteen Indictments, Not All Made Public.

DR. WALTER INCLUDED IN ONE Physician for Twenty Years Accused of Practicing Medicine Without License—Rolph Must Answer.

In its final report the district grand jury at noon yesterday returned thirteen indictments and then adjourned to the August term. Six of the indictments only were made public yesterday as the defendants named in the others were not under arrest.

Dr. J. P. Walter, of 201 East Broadway, is charged in one indictment with practicing medicine and surgery without lawful authority. His bond was placed by the court at $500 which he promptly furnished on being notified that the grand jury had returned a true bill against him.

Two indictments were returned against William Rolph, charged with breaking into and stealing a quantity of wearing apparel from the residence of Mrs. Carl Herz at 509 Avenue H on the night of April 21 last. Rolph was arrested at Loup City, Neb., where on the day following the burglary he married a young woman to whom he is said to have given the stolen goods.

An indictment charging malicious injury to a building was returned against W. P. Slingerland, practicing physician at the state hospital for inebriates at Knoxville, who about a week ago went on a rampage after filling up with liquor and attempted to batter down the doors in the residence at 2328 West Broadway where his wife and children were. Slingerland was placed at $500. He has been in the county jail since his arrest on the night of May 20.

Two indictments were returned against John Kane charged with the theft of tools from the garage of the Council Bluffs Automobile company at 619 Pearl street on May 11. His bond was placed at $500. Kane is behind the bars of the county jail.

An indictment was returned against Harry Ryan, charged with picking the pocket of W. H. Keagles of Earlham, Ia., on May 19 on a street car between Omaha and this city. Ryan's bond was placed at $100.

In its report the grand jury stated it had visited the jail buildings at Trevor, McClelland, Underwood, Minden and Neola and had found them in good condition. The recommendation was made that the jailer at Minden be required to stay in the jail when anyone was detained in it for the purpose of preventing possible fires.

The jury also reported that it had visited the county poor farm at McClelland and had found the buildings clean and well kept.

Council Bluffs Court Will Wait Before Deciding Ole Marsh's Case

Judge McPherson at First Determined to Turn it Down, but Withholds Action.

Judge Smith McPherson of the federal court yesterday took under advisement his decision in the matter of the application of George N. Marsh and Bert R. Shores, two members of the J. C. Mabray gang of swindlers who at the time of their trial in this city last March entered pleas of "nolo contendere" to withdraw their pleas and have their sentences of fifteen months in the United States penitentiary at Fort Leavenworth set aside.

After the application was submitted Judge McPherson overruled the motion, but consented to reconsider the matter after an earnest request from John Lindt, attorney for the two men.

According to Attorney Lindt his clients and he himself had been led to believe from conversations he had had with the district attorney that in the event of their pleading "nolo contendere" the two defendants would not be let off with a fine and not given penitentiary sentence. It was on his recommendation, Mr. Lindt said, that his clients had entered these pleas, and he could not help but feel a sense of blame for the misunderstanding.

Colonel M. S. Temple, district attorney, who was present at the hearing yesterday, denied the charge that he had ever made any arrangement whereby Marsh and Shores were to escape with "nolo" fines in the event of their pleading "nolo contendere" or guilty. He stated that Mr. Lindt had approached him several times on the matter and that he had told him that in case the judge would consent to a fine sentence he would object.

Judge McPherson said that if any mistake had been made he believed it had been in not giving every member of the Mabray gang the limit. He believed that Mr. Lindt had done well by his clients by advising them to do what he had done, because by so doing he had saved them nine months in the penitentiary, but as the money dropped by the "mikes" on these cases.

FOWLER'S CASE BEFORE COURT Allegation Made Man in Victim of Antisociality of Girl.

The trial of Fred Fowler, charged with criminal assault on Iowa Smith, a 13-year-old girl was begun in the district court yesterday. In his opening statement to the jury Attorney Tinley, counsel for Fowler, announced that he expected to prove that the defendant had been molested by the antisociality of the girl he was charged with molesting.

Iowa Smith and Bessie Thompson, whose testimony in police court before Judge Snyder, led to the arrest of Fowler and Charles Catts, who was recently sentenced to twenty years in the penitentiary, repeated their stories yesterday afternoon. Their testimony was substantially the same as told in police court. The two girls were brought from the reform school at Mitchellville to testify.
