

DEATH CALLS A CENTENARIAN

Tabina Shally, Oldest Omaha Woman, Dies in Convent.

BORN IN NORTHERN IRELAND

Known to Have Lived in Omaha Last Two Decades—Many Circumstances of Her Life Not Disclosed by Nuns.

Tabina Shally, the oldest woman in Omaha, died yesterday at the convent of the Good Shepherd. She was at least 100 years old when death claimed her.

Her exact age is uncertain, as well as many of the circumstances of her life. But that she was a centenarian is pretty well established.

She must have been born five or seven years before the cannon of Waterloo sounded. Assuming the earlier date, Thomas Jefferson was then president of the United States.

Miss Shally's last years were such as are characteristic of the very aged. She was only slightly deaf and her sight was not seriously impaired.

Modern Patriotism

BLAIR, Neb., May 30.—To the Editor of The Bee: The military display in memorial exercises today, suggested the idea that if all military display was eliminated we would be starting at the bottom round of the ladder of peace.

Then let us avoid all unnecessary military display and we will have taken the first great step toward the disarmament of the various nations.

It is pertinent and consistent in advocating arbitration or peaceful method of military or suggestion of military display, at Memorial and Fourth of July exercises, thereby instilling into the youth of our nation, but men cannot successfully change their methods suddenly.

I am convinced that disarmament of nations will only come through the slow process of elimination of military display. There will be no harm done and a great deal of good will be accomplished.

Are They Fixing a Ringer for Erdman?

Peculiar Stunt Pulled Off by Convict's Lawyer in the Vicinity of Dennison Home.

People in the vicinity of the Dennison house, which was the scene of the attempted dynamite outrage, witnessed a peculiar incident this morning when Attorney John O. Yeiser made his appearance there preceded by a reporter for the afternoon yellow, and accompanied by a man carrying a suitcase made up to be a dead-ringer for his client, Erdman, the convict, who is being held for trial.

CITY COUNCIL PROCEEDINGS

Railroads Present Several Matters of Real Public Interest.

BURLINGTON ASKS MORE STREETS

Serves Official Notice of Intention to Erect New Freight Depot on Its Present Eighth Street Property.

The Burlington railroad has asked the city council to vacate all the streets and alleys from the east side of Eighth street, between the south line of Jackson street and the south line of Farnam. G. W. Holdrege, in the communication, urged that the company now own a majority of all the property in the district abutting on the streets and alleys in question, and that the vacation is required because of a big freight house the Burlington proposes to erect on the east side of Eighth street between Jackson and Farnam.

A. H. Mohler and G. W. Holdrege, representing the Union Pacific and the Burlington railroads, requested the council to have the city engineer make an examination of the Eleventh street viaduct, with a view to making regulations for traffic over the bridge.

Councilman Bridges introduced, and council passed, a resolution directing the city attorney to report as to whether the Mason City & Port Dodge Railroad company has forfeited its right to vacated streets and alleys in the vicinity of Nineteenth and Mason streets.

Under a resolution introduced by Councilman McGovern, the Belt Line railway is directed to lower to street grade its tracks at Twenty-second and Boyd streets, the work to be done at once.

Revised Council Committees. President Brucker tendered a revised list of council committees, as noted in The Bee, putting Schroeder on the judiciary, making Kugel chairman of paving and sewerage committee and Davis chairman of sidewalks and crosswalks.

Councilman Bridges protested that the chairman had no right to change the committees after their first presentation to council. He called for an opinion from the city attorney on the matter, but on motion of Burmaster the council confirmed the rearranged committees, Bridges alone voting no.

The council sustained a veto from the mayor of the occupation tax on bill posting companies. The mayor says the ordinance passed by the council is not to be passed, which he will sign.

City Attorney Burnham reported, in response to a request from the council that there is no way to make available the $2,000,000 of waterworks bonds voted in March, 1909.

The city attorney also notified the council that the police department is not entitled to any of the money received from pawnbrokers and junk dealers for licenses. The city attorney also holds that, as the building inspector is of the opinion the livery stable at 114 Douglas street can be repaired and put in a safe condition, the city will be inviting a lawsuit to condemn the building and order it torn down.

Question of Water Parity. City Bacteriologist Langfeldt reported that the water now being furnished is not up to the standard required by the Berka ordinance. The committee of the whole will consider what steps shall be taken to bring the water up to standard.

Councilman McGovern introduced a resolution, which was referred to the park board, directing Rome Miller to trim the trees on his property on the boulevard so that vehicles can drive under them. Every body laughed, and President Berryman of the Park board looked surprised and doubtful.

The council by resolution ratified the action of Treasurer Purdy in awarding to Conner & Kahler of New York $50,000 of park bonds.

'Time's Flight Turned Backward' SAGE AND SULPHUR

Made Her Look Twenty Years Younger

READ MRS. HERRICK'S SWORN STATEMENT

STATE OF NEW YORK } ss ROCHESTER, N. Y.

COUNTY OF MONROE } Nancy A. Herrick, being duly sworn, deposes and says: When I was a girl, I had a head of heavy, long, dark brown hair which was the envy of my schoolmates, and which attracted the attention and remarks of strangers.

As I grew older, my hair commenced to come out, just a little at first, but gradually more and more, and then began to turn gray. I was induced by the many good reports I had heard of Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy to try a bottle. My hair was quite thin and gray when I began using Sage and Sulphur, and you can imagine my satisfaction when I found that it was fast coming back to its natural condition, being thicker, darker and more glossy than it had been for a long time. I continued to use Sage and Sulphur, and my hair is now as heavy, dark and smooth as when I was a girl of sixteen. It is now four years since I commenced using Sage and Sulphur, and my hair is still in splendid condition.

Seems to be before me this 14th day of July, 1909. Nancy A. Herrick, My true and lawful signature.

JUDGE ROASTS WIFE BEATER

Says His Regret is that He is Not Able to Send Him to the Penitentiary.

"I wish I could sentence you to the penitentiary," announced Police Judge Altstadt to a prisoner Wednesday morning.

The prisoner was J. C. Miller, charged with intoxication and abuse of his family. According to the testimony, Miller had set upon his wife and beaten her. He was sentenced to thirty days in jail.

A Bloody Affair

Your daughter may be permitted, safely, to read The Bee. No exaggerated accounts of crime, no filth, no scandal, no dime novel sensations; but all the news.

Cultivate the habit of newspaper reading in your children, but take care that the paper educates—and does not demoralize.

No woman need blush when reading The Bee; it is barred from the home. This makes it the most powerful influence in selling goods through advertising.
